Queen City Back in Port Sealers Are Having Difficulty in Securing Crews on the West Coast.

The Steamer Brings Three Good Bricks Worth Three Thousand Dollars.

Steamer Queen City, which returned yesterday from the West Coast, brought more gold from the mines at Wreck Bay. The parson here has three good bricks, two owned by the Wreck Bay company, and the other by Talbot & Jacobsen.

The Queen City also brings news that the sealers on the coast are having difficulty in securing crews, and when the steamer left the various ports of the island coast, at which the schooners are lying, not one of them was able to ship a canoe.

From London Times. A very interesting report of the Faroe Islands is reported in the columns of a few days ago, a denial was given to this fact in the evening paper, but for all that the fact remains that the schooners are without crews, and the Indians refuse to go for the price offered, three dollars per skin and a bonus of ten cents per skin to the boss.

Others think the outlook for hunters is not bright. The schooners at different points along the coast are as follows: At Quatsino, the C. D. Rand is awaiting a crew. The hunters are all away from the wharf, the tribesman at Natwite, where a big poltatch is in progress.

At Kyquot news was learned of the promotion of Mrs. Anna Leckie, who is now a Victoria, to engage in a general fishing business of the West coast. At Nootka, it was learned that the Methodistists had started a mission which was attended on the first day by twenty Indian children.

The steamer will sail again for the coast on Monday. The excursion fleet. Chamer, Yosemite and Islander to carry excursionists to Vancouver.

The C. P. R. have made arrangements for three steamers to carry excursionists to Vancouver for the coming holidays and those from Vancouver intend to visit Victoria during the period in which the special rates of two dollars for the round trip are in force. Four trips will be made. On Sunday morning, when the special rates come into force, the steamer Chamer will carry a large crowd of excursionists on her regular trip, and on Sunday morning at 10 a. m. the steamer Yosemite will make an excursion trip carrying a large crowd, for many have booked passage in order to make the daylight trip.

The tickets issued at the $2 rate for these steamers are good returning by the Chamer up to July 3, and for the Yosemite's special trip leaving Vancouver at midnight Monday.

THE TEES SAILS. Many Passengers Bound to Northern Ports—Miners for Skoena.

Steamer Tees sailed for Nans and way ports last night. Her hold was not filled, her cargo being a small one, made up of general supplies for the mining camps, logging camps, canneries, settlements, etc., along the northern coast. The list of passengers was a long one, 49 in all, every berth being taken up from Victoria and Vancouver.

THE COAST LINERS. City of Puebla Arrives From Golden Gate—Umattila Sails Tonight.

Steamer City of Puebla arrived last night from San Francisco with a total complement of 230 passengers of whom 42 departed here. Her freight list has been the average. Some ninety tons of general merchandise, mostly peaches, apples and other California fruits were landed at the Outer wharf.

THE FAROE ISLANDS. They Are Populated by an Honest, Hard-Working People.
