Purest Ice Cream at Our New Tea Rooms

London, July 10.—The Olympic games were brought to a close this afternoon by the closing ceremony, which was held in the Stadium when Queen Alexandra, accompanied by the Duke and Duchess of Westminster, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, and Lady Desborough, presented the silver and bronze medals and the cup to the ones entitled to them.

A big crowd attended the closing ceremony, and cheered the athletes up to receive their medals. Queen Alexandra, who was seated in the center of the royal box, was the first to receive the medals. She presented the silver medal to the Italian runner, Dorando, who had won the gold medal in the 100 metres race, and the bronze medal to the American runner, Hayes, who had won the silver medal in the 100 metres race.
