OPEN SEASON FOR

MOOSE IN MAINE
Moose hunting in the State of Maine is to be allowed again for the first time in four years. The ban which was put on when the moose herds dwindled, was lifted Thursday last. Great herds have been seen in the Mooseland and West Branch regions, and it is believed that sportsmen, long awaiting the opportunity will turn out to hunt them.

During the sessions, it is expected, the local Preceptory will be granted its official Charter. Mr. Alexander was accompanied by Mr. James E. Miller who will also attend the convention. En route home Mr. Alexander will take an extended trip to several Canadian and American cities.

A SCOT WHO WENT ABROAD

A Scot went abroad on the chance of picking up a job, and in the course of his peregrinations, called at some big works and interviewed the man in charge. After quite a satisfactory talk, the latter inquired if his visitor was a Scot.

"Ay, and I am," was the proud reply.
"Ah, then I am sorry I cannot take you on."
"Mistake me! Why?" demanded the Scot indignantly.

"Well you see, some years ago the then manager engaged a Scot and within a year, he got the manager's place."
"Then all I can say," came the disappointed rejoinder. "I wish that Scot was here yet."
