haugural Meeting of the Separate School Board
—Bight Members Leave the Room in a Huff. The separate school board for 1882 met fo ganization at St. John's hall last night, all the members being present, viz: Rev. Fathers Rooney, Laurent, Sheehan, McCann and Bergin, Messrs. Flannery, Burns, Herbert, Ryan, Petley, Kennedy, O'Connor, Thompson, Britton, Herson and Gibson Drs. Lynn and McConnell.

OFFICERS. Father Rooney was elected chairman There were three nominations for the secretary-treasurership, viz: Fathers Laurent and Bergin and Mr. Petley. The office fell to Father Bergin. Mr. Flannery moved to appoint Bishop O'Mahony local super-intendent of the schools. The archbishop was not able to attend to the duties and they never got a report for him. Father was not able to attend to the duties and they never got a report for him. Father Bergin favored the re-appointment of his grace and moved accordingly. Mr. Flannery withdrew his motion, most of the members being in favor of the amendment which was adopted. Mr. Lee was reappointed assistant secretary-treasurer. Bro. Tohics was need inspector. Messrs. appointed assistant secretary treasurer.

Tobias was named inspector. Mei
Petley and Ryan were chosen auditors. COMMITTEES.

Mr. Flannery moved the appointment of Fathers Rooney, Laurent, Sheehan and McCann, and Messrs. Petley, Ryan, Flannery, Herson and Burns as a committee to strike the standing committees. In Herson and Burns as a committee to strike the standing committees. In amendment Father McCann submitted the names of Fathers Rooney, Bergin and McCann, and Messrs. McConnell, Herbert, Lynn, Petley and Herson. The board stood 8 to 9 against the amendment, and a number of members cried lost, lost. The chairman, however, voted for the amendment which made the vote a tie, and followed this up with a casting vote on the lowed this up with a casting vote on the same side, declaring the amendment carried. The members who had voted nay pretested The members who had voted nay pretested that the chairman should have voted with the other members and held that the amendment was lost. The chairman was however, firm in his decision. The protesting members expressed their dissatisfaction at the reverend father's ruling by leaving the room in a body, their names being as follows:—Father Sheehan, Messrs. Petley, Burns, Flannery, O'Conner, Ryan, Britton and Herson. An adjournment was made while the striking committee prepared its report. Messrs.

When the board resumed there were just ten members present, including the chair-man, which number made up a bare m. The striking committee presented ris report as follows:—Finance committee—Petley, Thompson and Herbert, with the chairman and secretary-treasurer ex-officio. Sites and buildings committee—McCann, Burns and McConnell, with the chairman and secretary-treasurer ex-official Committee and Connell with the chairman and secretary treasurer as official Committee. and secretary-treasurer ex-officio. Com mittee on management and supplies—Laurent, Sheehan, Herson, Gibson, Lynn, with the chairman and secretary-treasurer exofficio. The report was adopted without discussion and the board adjourned. The board has begun the year badly. It is to be hoped it will not continue so.

Isabella and Catherine McGill sue Ramsay et al for an organ, a family Bible, a clock, and some other articles, which were sold at the time of the seizure in question, the articles being the property of the plaintiffs, and not of their brother, who had made the chattel mortgage on the authority of which the seizure had been made. The jury found a verdict for $68 in all. The next case was verdict for $68 in all. The next case was one in which William S. Bletcher, a produce and commission merchant of Port sproduce and commission merchant of Port Hope sued Hawden rnd Cluxton of Millbrook, grain merchants, for the non-delivery of 15000 bushels of barley. On the 19th of October last plaintiff purchased from defendants the barley in question at 91 cents.

Robert Upton, the head waiter of the Walker house, was entertained to a supper band an offer to buy barley and white there received a message from them withdrawing their offer. The contro ence with Coffee & Co. From this interview Howden appears to have taken the impression that the bargain between plaintiff and defendants was off. Bletcher, however seems to have thought differently as he went to work to try and get a new purchaser for the barley and finally made an engagement to sell it to one King, at 91½ cents. He then telegraphed and wrote Howden several times and received an answer from him "you told me the bargain was off." Barley was rising rapidly at the time and got up to 98 cents and over. King kept pressing Bletcher who finally made an arrangement with him on a basis of 97 cents. The case was not finished yesterday and warrangement with him on a basis of 97 cents. "By thee with Bliss," a duet sung by Mrs. Osgood and Mr. Schuch, with chorus accompaniment was the gem of the evening and drew forth a hearty encore. Mrs. E. Aline Osgood, solo soprano and Mr. George Wrrenrath, solo tenor, were brought from New York, and Mr. J. F. Egan from Hamilton, to assist with the solos. Mrs. Osgood's singing was simply superb, her voice being one of the richest, and most sympathetic we have heard for many a day. She was greeted with appleuse every time she sang, and fully sustained the high reputation she enjoys.

Mr. Werrenrath, solo tenor, also acquitted himself in a manner shewing that he, too, was worthy of his high reputation, drawing forth a hearty applause after every solo. The singing of Mr. Schuch, basso, of Toronto, was exceedingly good, both in his solos and duets, etc., and fully deserved the hearty applause which was given him. Mrs. Cooper's soprano singing too was deservingingly well received in the trio's "Most Beantiful Appear" and "The Heavens are Telling." Mrs. Morris' soprano appeared in good voice and sang very sweetly. Mrs. Caldecott soprano and Miss Dick contralto deserve more favorable notice than our space will permit of. on the whole was a great success, surpassing everything of the kind we have heard in Toronto for years. One defect though was noticeable, the tenors being a little weak. This was painfully apparent in that part of "The Heavens are Telling," where the high A was left for half a dozen voices. Mr. Fisher conducted the performance throughout in a manner shewing that he is thoroughly at home as a leader of both chorus and orchestral music.

During the performance the mayor came on the platform and, on behalf of the society, thanked the audience for their appreciation of the society's efforts. The performance closed at half-past ten.
