There is nothing mean about the 12th of July anniversary celebration in Toronto. This has been demonstrated year after year. The brethren of many scarlet cloaks, white pants and tiles that only see surshine on this memorable occasion kept up their reputation yesterday. The turn out, while smaller as regards numbers than in some former years, was decidedly respectable in appearance. The reason why the procession did not compare in length with last year was because of the total absence of visiting woman was afraid her truant lord had marlodges. The orangemen of the city and suburbs had it all to themselves. The weather was very pleasant. The atmosphere was comparatively cool and there was no wind to blow dust into the eyes and ears of the celebrants. The exhibition grounds, where the orange celebration proper was held, looked charming. The grass was as a scood partner. Mann was arraigned beheld, looked charming. The grass was as green as grass should be to be admired, and the numerous young trees and plants throughout the spacious enclosure were pleasing to look at.

THE MARCH TO THE PICNIC. The marshals of the day got the different lodges into line in Queen's park about 12.30. For over an hour previous to this time the brethren came trooping into the park by lodges, nearly every one of which was headed by a band. The regalia of gay colors sparkled in the sunlight as it shot through openings in the tress overhead, and the scene on the green in front of the old asylum was quite animated. The procession being formed poured out of the St. Albans' street gate to yourge street days young to Queen along yonge street, down Yonge to Queen, along Queen to Strachan avenue and to the grounds. There were forty lodges in the march and eleven bands were distributed at different points. There were probably 2000 men in the march. Edward Clarke, county master, was the grand marshal of the day, assisted by Bro. Samuel Defries and Bro. James Smith.

AT THE GROUNDS.

Crowds of people poured in from every gate, and not less than 5000 persons could have been present. The chief points of interests were the horse-ring, where the games ware conducted, and the east side of the main building, where the orators of the day were seembled. Music was heard on all hands and the best of order prevailed. Refreshments could be obtained at nearly every time. AT THE GROUNDS.

It was 4 o'clock before County Master It was 4 o'clock before County Master Clarke called the people to order from a balcony. He remarked that the enemies of the order had said that it was on the wane. When he looked upon the vast crowd of people that had gathered in the grounds to celebrate the glorious anniversary he could not see on what grounds these tatherests were made. Mayor McMurrich then came forward amid cheers. It gave him much pleasure at being present at the celebration of the great and glorious anniversary. His worship referred to the stapleness of the order as a body and hoped that it would long prosper. He referred briefly to the history of Toronto and said that it would be a good thing to have a semi-centennial of the city's existence. Within two years Toronto, as a city, would be 50 years old. TORONTO AND YORKVILLE. What the News Thinks About Annexation

The Yorkville News this week contain the following regarding the annexation of Yorkville to Toronto :

There is no question that a speedy con-solidation of the city should be effected by acceptation of its northern quarter, forming, as it does, one continuous street or ing, as it does, one continuous street or series of streets, with the rest of Toronto. The growth of Yorkville has assumed such proportions that its inhabitants should not shrink from assuming their share of the city's burdens, in view of the necessity of increased police protection, and of a share in the city water supply, which, after the 31st of next month will be taken from the 31st of next month will be taken from the new extension into the purest part of the lake beyond the island. Chemical experts assure us that the water of Lake Ontario is of purer quality than that of any other lake in this province. Yorkville occupies the highest ground, and is, therefore, the healthiest part of the city, but pure water is as necessary to health as pure sir. No effort should be spared to secure this priceless blessing, of course on equitable terms to our constituents.

HAMILTON NEWS,

The Orange Turnout-Lines on Ben Block -The World in the City.

HAMILTON, July 12.—At 8 a.m. a procession of local orange ledges started for the G.W.R. station where they boarded the train for St. Catharines. Beyond this and the returning of the same parties at night, there was hardly the least sign visible that the sun was shining on the 12th of July. Once again have the brethren had to march without the well-known figure of Ben Block and his good horse Billy heading the procession. The only thing to remind one of Ben, the old orange veteran, were the cries of a boy selling "an ode on the death of Ben Block." Some of the verses are as follows: are as follows:

I heard of a death and it gave me a shock, It was that noble hero, his name is Ben Block It saddened my heart and caused me to sigh, For he rode on old Billy on the 12th of July.
