THE MARITIME PROVINCES.

The Monetary Times, in its last issue, had the following short but appreciative reference to the Maritime Provinces:

A graceful tribute to the Maritime Provinces it was to appoint Hon. G. H. Murray, premier of Nova Scotia, as chairman of the interprovincial conference at Ottawa. Amid all the drumbeating of Western Canada and the self-satisfied smiles of Ontario and Quebec, there is a quiet persistence in Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick which excites admiration. The attitude of the maritime provinces carries weight in the world's money market. A Canadian banker in London said recently that the eastern provinces of the Dominion have nothing to fear regarding their securities on the British market. Their conservative methods are appreciated.

The maritime provinces do not always get their due, and we sympathize with their request for more adequate representation in the federal house. If any criticism were offered here, it would be only that the maritime provinces are too modest. We should like to hear their voice more frequently, and above a whisper.

The governor based his decision on the indictment returned against Thaw in New York County and which charged him with conspiracy to escape from the insane asylum at Mattawan, N. Y., to which he was committed, following his trial for the killing of Stanford White. Thaw made his spectacular flight on August 17, and a few days later was arrested near Coaticook, Que.

The Maple Sugar Industry

It may surprise many to learn that the maple sugar and syrup crop in Canada is worth about two million dollars per year. In the Province of Quebec the industry has maintained a strong foothold, more especially in those counties that contain more or less rough and rocky land. In Ontario it also bulks large, and in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia considerable quantities of sugar and syrup are made each Spring.

During recent years the industry has shown signs of decline, and in order to encourage its improvement the Hon. Martin Burrell, Minister of Agriculture, has authorized the preparation of a bulletin which should give it considerable support.

One cause of the decline is given as the poor quality of much of the goods made. On the authority of extensive dealers it is estimated that fully sixty per cent of maple products do not grade above No. 4 and that this vast amount has to be sold for not more than half the price per pound of No. 1 goods, of which about ten per cent is made. On this account it is pointed out in the bulletin that makers are losing each year on quality alone, fully one million dollars.

The bulletin goes fully into the subject of syrup and sugar making, describing clearly the necessary equipment and its operation, and gives useful information on marketing. An interesting section describes the making of maple vinegar and the collection and preparation of sugar sand which constitute two valuable by-products of sugar making.

The work, which is from the pen of Mr. J. B. Spencer, B. S. A., Editor of the Publication's Branch, is gotten up in very attractive form, containing many beautiful illustrations portraying sugar making scenes, ancient and modern. To show the appearance of sugar and syrup of different grades, plates of samples of each are presented in natural colors. This work, which is designated "The Sugar Making Industry in Canada," will be sent free to those who apply for it to the Publication's Branch of the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa.
