

LE
CAMP

THE OLD AND THE NEW HOME

A Canadian Tale

By J. E.

“ But may dishonour blight our fame,
And quench our household fires,
When we, or ours, forget thy name,
Green island of our sires!”

—PRINGLE

409075
22.1.43

TORONTO
JAMES CAMPBELL AND SON

1870 and a little child, with a few simple words from the Scriptures, had vanquished him. —Page 35.