

BOSTON.

We have received quite a large stock of honey mostly from Vermont, and the quality is very fine. We are doing the best we can to keep the prices up, where the bee-keepers can get something for their honey. One of the largest producers sold his entire crop at a very low price, and it is being sold here at a price that would give the bee-keeper nothing. We still hold our prices 16c. to 18c. for one pound, 14c. to 16c. for two pounds. Extracted 6 to 8c. Wax 30c.

BLAKE & RIPLEY.

Sept. 21, 1885.

No change has taken place in the general feature of the market. Demand is slow for extracted honey with an abundance on the market. Depression in other branches of business and low prices have their bearing upon honey. Better prices will, in my estimation, not be obtained until a general revival of business takes place; our most ardent desires to the contrary notwithstanding. Custom has to be made, even at the short crop of this season. Small lots only of new comb honey make their appearance and are sold readily. Yet, demand is slow in proportion. Extracted honey brings 4 to 8 cents on arrival, and choice comb honey 15 to 16 cents in jobbing way. Beeswax is in fair demand and arrivals are good. We pay 20 to 24 cents for good yellow.
