

Chronicle. A sumptuous repast, prepared by the ladies of the congregation, formed an agreeable finale to the labors of the day. Knowing the taste and skill, as well as the experience in such matters, of the Rev. D. C. Moore, we feel sure that at a moderate cost, the Bridgewater Churchmen, with his assistance, will soon have a Rectory which will be an ornament to the town and a credit to themselves. A pretty cottage costs no more than an unsightly one of equal size. We wish the new building every success. Before the termination of the proceedings a pleasing and affectionate address was presented to the Rev. W. H. E. Bullock, Assistant Chaplain of H. M. Forces, by his late parishioners. The rev. gentleman made a suitable reply.

THE following notice was crowded out of our last issue:

On Sunday, the 5th July, the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop held a special ordination at the early celebration at St. Luke's Cathedral. The Rev. P. Brown and the Rev. W. B. Armstrong, Deacons, were admitted to the holy office of the Priesthood.

The committee, appointed by the Synod, to open negotiations with the dioceses of British North America, relative to union under a Provincial Synod, passed the following resolution at a meeting held August 7th, 1868:

"That Colonel LOWRY, and any other member of the committee, be authorized to represent the committee with reference to the Provincial Synod of Canada, for the purpose of obtaining information for the benefit of the committee, especially as to the terms and mode of the reception of this diocese, in case it should be the decision of the Synod of Nova Scotia to unite with other dioceses under the Provincial Synod of Canada."

We are glad to learn that Colonel Lowry, who takes a warm interest in all that relates to the interest of the Church, proposes to visit Canada principally with a view to attend the meeting of the Provincial Synod there in the month of September.
