After repeated chemical analyses of the Wines made by Robert Braiford of No. 595 Parliament St., Toronto. I do not besitate to pronounce them to be unsurpassed by any of the native Wines that have come under my observation.

Analyses show them to contain liberal amounts of the other of and satine elements, sugar and tanne neue otc., characteristic of true Wine and which modify materially the effects which world be produced by alcohol alone.

alcohol alone.
Retaining to a high degree the natural flavor of the grape, they serve the purpose of a pleasant table Wine as well as that of a most valuable medicinal Wine

HEALTH AND HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

It is said there is no manufactured article of powder better than ordinary cornstarch, the kind used for culinary purposes. It gives the desired smoothness to the face, and is perfectly harmless.

Raisins allowed to stand for ten minutes in boiling water are easily stoned by rubbing them between the thumb and finger, when the seeds come out clean. They must afterwards be dried and dredged with flour before using.

"My Optician," of 159 Yonge st., says that many so called nervous diseases are caused entirely by defective vision. Go and have your eyes properly tested, free of charge, at the above address.

Black Strap Pudding.—One cupful mo-lasses, one-half cupful butter, one cupful sweet milk, four cupfuls flour, one cupful chopped raisins, one-half teaspoonful soda, one-half teaspoonful cinnamon, one-half tea-spoonful cloves, a little salt. Steam three

Plum Jelly.—This jelly is very nice, and can be made from large or small plums; it jells easier than most other fruit. Cook, and drain through a jelly-bag; measure, and allow one pound of granulated sugar for each pint of juice; heat the sugar and add, cooking from twelve to fifteen minutes, then test.

Build Up.

When the system is run down, a person becomes an easy prey to Consumption or Scro-fula. Many valuable lives are saved by using Scott's Emulsion as soon as a decline in health is observed.

Cheap Ornamential Brackets. - Two oblong chip baskets that can be bought for twenty cents each at fruit stores can be made into pretty scrap or work baskets by staining them with red or blue, and lining them with silk or satio, tying a ribbon bow on each handle. Small baskets of the same kind, without handles, when gilded inside and out are very pretty to stand on a bureau.

Lemonade.—The finest lemonade is made as follows: For a quart, take the juice of three lemons, using the rind of one of them. Carefully peel the rind very thin, getting just the yellow outside; cut this into pieces and put with the juice and powdered sugar, of which use two ounces to the quart, in a jug or ar with a cover. When the water is just at the boiling point, pour it over the lemon and sugar, cover at once, and let it get cold.

The Bell Telephone Company,

Walkerton Agency, May 15th, '94. Dear Sirs,-I sold your Acid Cure for 20 years, and during that time I never heard of a case that was not relieved and cured by its use. I have recommended it in bad cases of Eczema, Ring-worm, and never knew it to fail (when properly used) to effect a cure.

Yours truly, W. A. GREEN.

COUTTS & SONS.

Apple Trifle.—To make this tempting dessert take three pints of pared, cored and quartered apples, half a pint of water, one cupful of sugar, a slight grating of nutmeg and three pints of whipped cream. Put the water in the stew-pan and then put in the apples. Cover closely and place on the fire. As soon as the apples begin to soften, which will be in about three minutes after they begin to be in about three minutes after they begin to boil, add the sugar and nutmeg and cook gently for ten minutes. Take up and set away to cool. At serving time put them in a deep glass dish and heap the whipped cream

Stewed Oysters—After all bits of shell are removed from the oysters and their liquor has been strained to free it from the shell and sand, put the liquor over the fire with a tablespoonul of butter to the liquor from a quart of oysters and let it boil; remove all scum as it rises; add pepper palatably and very little salt; milk may be used, if it is desired, in equal quantity with the syster liquor; after the broth thus made is freed from scum and seasoned, put in the oysters; watch them, and the moment the edges curl remove them from the fire and serve them at once. This stew may be made in a chafing dish.

Dear Sirs,—"I have much pleasure in stating that your 'Acetocura' remedy has been used for the past fifteen years by our family. We have derived so much benefit from its application that I can heartily testify to its beneficial qualities.

"I have recommended its use to many of my friends, who also speak very highly of it as a very effective and simple remedy. "Yours truly, WM. PENDER."

Out of Sight -out of mind. That's the way with things in the laundry and the kitchen. Per haps you think they're Using using Pearline there.

your listen is going to pieces, and you're dissatisfied with the work, and you're blaming Pearline for all the trouble. If this is the case, you can make up your mind either that Pearline isn't used, or that something else is used with it, which does the damage. Possibly you'll find that they're trying to wash with some of the imitations that peddlers, prize-givers and unscrupulous grocers are offering to those who do not realize the danger. 347 JAMES PYLE.
