1831 THE CULTIVATOR AND 1883 COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

THE BEST OF THE AGRICULTURAL WEEKLIES.

THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN is the LEADING JOURNAL of American Agriculture. In amount and practical value of contents, in extent and ability of correspondence, in quality of paper and style of publication, it occupies the FIRST RANK. It is believed to have no superior in either of the three chief divisions of

Farm Crops and Processes, Horticulture & Fruit-Growing, Live Stock & Dairying, while it also includes all minor departments of rural interest, such as the Poultry Yard, Entomology, Bee-Keeping, Greenhouse and Grapery, Veterinary Recipes, Farm Questions and Answers, Fireside Reading, Domestic Economy, and a summary of News of the Week. Its MARKET REPORTS are unusually complete, and much attention is paid to the Prospects of the Crops, as throwing light upon one of the most important of all questions—When to Buy and When to Sell. It is liberally illustrated, and is intended to supply, in a continually increasing degree, and in the best sense of the term, a LIVE AGRICULTURAL NEWSPAPER.

The Volume of THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN for 1883 was GREATLY ENLARGED by increasing its size from 16 to 20 pages weekly, but the terms still continue as follows, when paid strictly in advance. ONE COPY, one year $2.50; FOUR COPIES, $10, and additional copy for the year free to the sender of the Club. TEN COPIES, $30, and an additional copy for the year free to the sender of the Club.

S. S. PAPERS. S. S. PAPERS. S. S. PAPERS. S. S. PAPERS. S. S. PAPERS.

Just what is required in Canadian Sunday Schools. Three different papers. Pronounced by the Press to be superior to anything published in the Dominion.

Golden Hours and Early Rays, bright, beautifully illustrated, Sunday-school papers, are suited to any School, while the Sabbath School Presbyterian, as its name indicates, is adapted to Presbyterian Schools.

It is claimed for the above publications that they are as cheap as imported papers of the same class, and altogether better suited to young Canadian readers.

SPECIMEN COPIES forwarded to any address free of charge on application. C. BLACKETT ROBINSON, Publisher, 5 Jordan Street, Toronto.

"These addresses are brief, pointed, eminently practical. Mr. Elliot is well known in his community as an accomplished expounder of the Word of God, and with the gift of saying much in little, such meaning, few words. This is the characteristic of these addresses which we most cordially commend to the thoughtful reader. We confess to be reminded by these brief and terse discourses of our dear old favorite, John Foster."—Presbyterian (Halifax) Witness.
