CRIMINAL LAW—PASS.

Examiner : A. W. Aytoun-Finlay.

Answer twelve questions only.

1. A vendor of land conceals an instrument material to the title thereof, with intent to defraud the vendee. The latter instructs his solicitor to proceed criminally against the vendor. What measures must the solicitor adopt before doing so?

2. A justice of the peace issues a summons requiring the attendance of a witness. How, and by whom, may such a summons be served?

3. An accused person has been remanded by the justice of the peace for eight days, but at the end of two days he assumes to order him to be brought before another justice for the same territorial division for examination. Has he or has he not authority to do so; and what is the duty of the gaoler in whose custody the accused is?
