RECRUITING IN IRELAND.—We learn that recruiting for the army is proceeding in Ireland with great activity.

Colonel William Mercer Wilson, of Norfolk, in retiring from the Militia, retaining the rank of Lieutenant Colonel, is specially complimented by the Governor General for his long and valuable services.

The Committee on Ordnance have submitted their report on heavy guns to the United States Senate. The report condemns the Rodman guns now generally in use in the United States navy, which are pronounced utterly unsuitable.

An order has been received at Portsmouth directing that the Victory, heretofore the flagship of the Commander-in-Chief of the port, is to be virtually scratched off the books of the navy, and taken into the "Ordinary."
