

sible. Pork had advanced 2s. a barrel, but was still far below a rate at which it could be shipped from Canada.

Butter was uncommonly low, and abundant, nevertheless some that had been sent from Canada, was deemed so superior, that it brought the highest rate of the market, viz.: 70s per cwt. The greater part of sales were at 50s. to 57s per cwt., yielding an average of about 5½d per lb. here. Canadian oatmeal was not liked, being neither "high dried," nor "round ground," so that whilst Scotch oatmeal brought 30s per 280 lbs., Canadian, of what is deemed a good quality here, would not bring over 22s. Ashes had receded in prices.

Business was brisk, and goods of all kinds advancing, especially cotton and cotton goods, upon which the rise in price was considerable.
