

an exchange of not more than two specialists for a period of one to two months to study the pre-school systems. It is envisaged that under these exchanges on the Canadian side, the teachers and specialists will be from the Province of Ontario.

14. Both sides agreed on the basis of reciprocity to exchange textbooks, pedagogical material and educational films at all levels, subject to their respective legislation.

15. The parties agreed to examine sympathetically the initiation of an exchange of opinion on the content of textbooks used in Soviet and Canadian schools, with a view to having these textbooks present the most objective account possible of the history and geography of the other country.

16. Both sides agreed to create the conditions necessary for the fulfillment of agreed programmes for individuals accepted under the terms of paragraphs 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 13, including the use of educational and scientific material, as well as, wherever possible, full access to laboratories, archives and organizations which are outside the system of higher educational establishments.

17. The financial and administrative provisions are shown in Appendix II attached.
