OFFICIAL VISIT TO NORWAY
OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR EXTERNAL AFFAIRS

The Secretary of State for External Affairs, the Right Honourable Joe Clark, announced today that he will make an official visit to Norway on December 7-9, 1987.

Mr. Clark will have bilateral discussions with Prime Minister Gro Harlem Brundtland, his counterpart Minister Thorvald Stoltenberg as well as the Storting Standing Committee on Foreign Affairs. Mr. Clark will also attend a luncheon at the Royal Palace where he will be the guest of His Majesty King Olav V.

During his consultations with Prime Minister Brundtland, Mr. Clark will have the opportunity to reiterate to the Norwegian Prime Minister Canada's commitment to the advancement of the recommendations of the Report of the World Commission on Environment and Development. He will also discuss the international economic situation and the development of the European Community internal market.

Mr. Clark's discussions with both Mr. Stoltenberg and the Storting Committee will focus on Canada-Norway bilateral relations, the East/West Relations, Arms Control and Disarmament and regional issues such as South Africa and Central America.
