

(Mr. Boudria); and No. 26 in the name of the Hon. Member for Davenport (Mr. Caccia). If Your Honour would do that I have replies to deal with on all four.

Motion No. 6—Mr. Gagliano:

That an humble Address be presented to Her Excellency praying that she will cause to be laid before this House the initial findings of the mixed study team on Services and Subsidies to Business to the Ministerial Task Force.

Mr. Doug Lewis (Parliamentary Secretary to President of the Privy Council): Mr. Speaker, the Study Team Report on Services and Subsidies to Business, along with all other study team reports, was laid before the House on March 11, 1986. I would therefore ask the Hon. Member to withdraw his motion.

TASK FORCE ON PROGRAM REVIEW

Motion No. 26—Mr. Caccia:

That an humble Address be presented to Her Excellency praying that she will cause to be laid before this House copies of all follow-up studies to the Task Force on Program Review.

Mr. Lewis: Mr. Speaker, the Deputy Prime Minister (Mr. Nielsen) indicated in the House on June 6, 1986, that the follow-up study on the environment will be tabled in the House on the same basis as the original reports as soon as translation and printing are completed. I would therefore ask the Hon. Member to withdraw his motion.

Mr. Caccia: Mr. Speaker, I will not withdraw my motion in view of the fact that weeks have gone by since that statement was made and the report is causing anxiety and uncertainty. The report should be tabled now.

Mr. Speaker: Accordingly, pursuant to Standing Order 73, the question is transferred for debate.

Mr. Doug Lewis (Parliamentary Secretary to President of the Privy Council): Mr. Speaker, I would ask that you call Motion No. P-9 now.

DATA RESPECTING GARLON HERBICIDE RESEARCH TRIALS

Motion No. 9—Mr. Fulton:

That an humble Address be presented to Her Excellency praying that she will cause to be laid before this House copies of all correspondence, notes, minutes of meetings, reports, documents and other communications between the government, the Forest Pest Management Institute and Dow Chemical with respect to Garlon herbicide research trials in the Skeena River watershed.

Mr. Lewis: Mr. Speaker, the Departments of the Environment, Fisheries and Oceans and the Ministry of State (Forestry) have informed us that the documents requested cannot be released pursuant to Section 20(1)(b) of the Access to Information Act. I therefore ask the Hon. Member to withdraw his motion.

Parliamentary Employment and Staff Relations Act

Mr. Fulton: Mr. Speaker, I have not had a chance to look at the precise nature of those documents listed in Motion No. 9 but I cannot imagine that they all fall under that Section of the Freedom of Information Act. I would ask that this motion as well be transferred for debate.

Mr. Speaker: Accordingly, pursuant to Standing Order 73, the matter is transferred for debate.

What is the wish of the Parliamentary Secretary with regard to Motion No. P-18?

Mr. Lewis: Mr. Speaker, I do have an answer which would result in my requesting the Hon. Member to withdraw his motion, but in view of the fact that he is not here I do not wish to proceed along those lines.

Mr. Speaker: The Chair has two options. It can stand the motion and wait a while, in which case we could return to it, or else it could simply order it transferred for debate.

Mr. Caccia: Stand.

Mr. Lewis: Mr. Speaker, a member of the Hon. Member's Party has indicated that he feels it is appropriate that it stand and I would agree with that contention.

Mr. Speaker: We will consider the matter stood until an appropriate time later when the Hon. Member returns.

PARLIAMENTARY EMPLOYMENT AND STAFF RELATIONS ACT

MEASURE TO ENACT

The House proceeded to the consideration of Bill C-45, an Act respecting employment and employer and employee relations in the Senate and House of Commons, as reported (with amendments) from a legislative committee.

Mr. Speaker: There are thirteen report stage motions on today's Order Paper in amendment to Bill C-45, an Act respecting employment and employer and employee relations in the Senate, the House of Commons and the Library of Parliament.

Motions Nos. 1 and 2 appear to go beyond the scope of the Bill and, pursuant to Citation 773(1) of Beauchesne's Fifth Edition, I would propose to rule these motions out of order.

Motion No. 3 will be the object of a separate debate and a separate vote.

Motions Nos. 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 were all moved and negatived in Committee and will not be selected for debate and will therefore be dropped from the Notice Paper.
