

4. On Mr. Beatty's suggestion, the Principal was asked to form committees to confer with the architects on the design of these works, it being understood that there should be on each Committee a member of this ^{General} Committee and that the individual committees would report to this Committee, and that this Committee, through the Principal, would report to the Board their final recommendations covering this building programme.

Chairman.

BRAHMA BOND