

earlier examinations to be allowed to complete their work under the old conditions.

In view of this being an experiment and of the growth of the Western Universities, this scale of division should be open to revision after three years.

Yours sincerely,

(Sgd) Robt. W. Falconer.