

A nourrir ceux qui ont faim,
 A donner à boire à ceux qui ont soif,
 A vêtir ceux qui sont nus,
 A visiter et racheter les captifs,
 A recueillir ceux qui n'ont pas d'asyle,
 A visiter les malades
 A ensevelir les morts.

OF THE VICES.

13. The seven principal sins are pride, covetousness, lust, wrath, gluttony, envy, sloth.
14. Pride is a capital sin because it is the source of vanity, ostentation, ambition, presumption, hypocrisy, disobedience, & contempt of one's neighbours.
15. Covetousness is a capital sin, because it produces forgetfulness of God and insensibility to the poor.
16. Lust is a capital sin, because it is contrary to modesty and to chastity; and because it produces evil thoughts and evil actions.
17. Envy is a capital sin, because it produces generally the two vices injurious to one's neighbour—slander and calumny.
18. Slander consists in discovering without motive the true but hidden faults of one's neighbour.....Calumny in inventing and reporting false one's.
19. Gluttony is a capital sin, because it produces, intemperance, sensuality, and quarrels, inseparable from debauchery.