

sion may require : these rules are to have the force of Laws till they can be decided on by a General Meeting. In all discussions of the Committee, the President, or Vice-President presiding, shall have a casting vote.

XV.

The Committee is to consist of a President, Vice-President, Librarian, Treasurer, and Secretary, to be chosen by the General Meeting ; together with the Chaplain to the Forces for the time being, and two Officers from each Regiment, one from the Royal Artillery, one from the Royal Engineers, one from the Commissariat, one from the Medical Department, and one from the General Staff ; who are to be appointed by their respective Corps and Departments.

XVI.

The Committee is to meet on the first Wednesday of every month, at 12 o'clock, in the Garrison Orderly Room, or at any other time and place which they shall appoint, to transact the business of the Society ; and any five of them with the President, or Vice-President, shall be competent to act.

XVII.

If one of the Members of the Committee, elected by a General Meeting, be absent from the Garrison for more than two months together, or absent himself for more than three successive Meetings of the Committee, unless prevented by sickness, the Committee is to elect another Member in his place. And if any other Member of the Committee be absent, as above stated, the Corps or Department that appointed him, is to be called on to name another Officer in his place.

XVIII.

Every thing affecting the Society, that may take place at Committee

kept by

The
mittee,
and the
is detain
stating shall be

Any
be two
for paym
a Mem
period,
yearly s

Subsc
or retur
writing
forfeit d
have no
paid.

No B
Subscri
from on

The m
bers, sh