

LADIES OF THE COVENANT:

Memoirs of Distinguished Scottish Female Characters, embracing the Period of the Covenant and the Persecution. By Rev. JAMES ANDERSON. One vol., 12mo., price $1.25.

"It is written with great spirit and a hearty sympathy, and abounds in incidents of more than a romantic interest, while the type of piety it discloses is the noblest and most elevated."—N. Y. Evangelist.

"It is a record which, while it confers honor on the sex, will elevate the heart, and strengthen it to the better performance of every duty."—Religious Herald. (Va.)

"It is a book of great attractiveness, having not only the freshness of novelty, but every element of historical interest."—Courier & Enquirer.

"The author delineates with great fidelity the struggles and sufferings of the noble female worthies of Scotland in the cause of civil and religious liberty. It is refreshing to read these actual and heroic lives of Christian women in both the higher and lower walks of life."—Prairie Herald.

CHARACTERS IN THE GOSPEL,

Illustrating Phases of Character at the Present Day. By Rev. E. H. CHAPIN, One vol., 12mo., price 50 cents. (Second edition.)

"As we read his pages, the reformer, the sensualist, the skeptic, the man of the world, the seeker, the sister of charity and of faith, stand out from the Scriptures, and join themselves with our own living world."—Christian Enquirer.

"Mr. Chapin has an easy, graceful style, neatly touching the outlines of his pictures, and giving great consistency and beauty to the whole. The reader will find admirable descriptions, some most wholesome lessons, and a fine spirit."—New York Evangelist.

"The work is done with a skilful hand, and in a style attractive and impressive. The book furnishes not only agreeable, but very useful and instructive reading."—Boston Traveller.

"We commend this volume to those who imagine that the teachings of the pulpit are nothing if not dull. Its brilliant vivacity of style forms an admirable combination with its soundness of thought and depth of feeling."—Tribune.

LECTURES AND MISCELLANIES.

BY HENRY JAMES. One vol., 12mo., cloth, price $1.25.

"A series of essays by one of the most generous thinkers and sincere lovers of truth in the country. He looks at society from an independent point of view, and with the noblest and most intelligent sympathy."—Home Journal.

"This is the production of a mind richly endowed of a very peculiar mould. All will concede to him the merit of a vigorous and brilliant intellect."—Albany Argus.

"A perusal of the essays leads us to think not merely because of the ideas which they contain, but more because the ideas are earnestly put forth, and the subjects discussed are interesting and important to every one."—Worcester National Argus.

"They have attracted much attention both here and in Europe, where the author is considered as holding a distinctive and prominent position in the school of modern philosophy."—Albany Atlas.

"The writer yields a masterly and accurate pen, and his style is good."—Boston Olive Branch.

"It will have many readers, and almost as many admirers."—N. Y. Times.

THE STUDY OF WORDS.

By Archdeacon RICHARD C. TRENCH. One vol., 12mo., price 75 cts.

"He discourses in a truly learned and lively manner upon the original unity of language, and the origin, derivation, and history of words, with their morality and separate spheres of meaning."—Evening Post.

"This is a noble tribute to the divine faculty of speech. Popularly written, exact in its learning, and poetic in its vision, it is a book at once for the scholar and the general reader."—N. Y. Evangelist.

"It is one of the most striking and original publications of the day, with nothing of hardness, dullness, or dryness about it, but altogether fresh, lively and entertaining."—Boston Evening Traveller.

"This volume will be found exceedingly interesting not alone for what it teaches, but as a stimulus to thought and study, and opening wide a scene of infinite pleasure and beneficial investigation."—Troy Daily Times.
