PLEASE THE BOYS WHO ARE FIGHTING

Lieut. J. M. McKinley Tells King Edward School Pupils to Write Letters.

ANNUAL JUNE CONCERT

Interesting Program Was Given on Last Night by Boys and Girls.

"I will not tell you anything about the battle of Langemarck, for you have read enough in the papers of it already. I do want to tell you that the boys from Canada have done their bit and will continue to do their bit until the end. If you want to please the boys you should write to them often for they would rather have a letter from home than get their pay," said Lieut. J. M. McKinley to the pupils at the King Edward school last night, when the annual June concert was held.

Lieut. McKinley is home on furlough after being shot thru the left lung at Langemarck, the bullet just passing within an inch of his heart. As he is an old resident of the King Edward school district Principal Evans invited him to attend the concert and speak to the pupils.

One of the most interesting items on the program was an elocution competition between Misses McKinnon, Miss Douglas, Miss Carson, Miss Siskin and J. Kidd each reciting selections of their own choice. Siskin won the prize, a book entitled "The Bird Guide." Miss Audrey and Gwendolyn Park did some very clever dancing. The school captains sang, "The King's Own," a good comedy, and the senior girls in a dumb-bell drill were very good. The minstrel show and a little sketch, "Night School," afforded some good comedy, and the Boy Scouts gave a demonstration of flag-signaling.

Miss Vokes of the board of education acted as chairman. Trustee Taggart presented a silver cup to the girls' basketball team. They were the winners of the Mayor's Basketball League championship. The proceeds of the concert are to be equally divided between the Red Cross and the fund for the school sports.

NEED SKILLED WORKERS.

American workmen who are makers of artificial limbs are wanted by Authentic Cox, who is practically the only concern in this country manufacturing this line of goods. The demand for skilled workmen is not occasioned by needs arising from the war, but simply thru the normal demand for this manufacture. The Canadian industry is so small that it is impossible to secure skilled workmen here.

Seized With Paralysis Could Not Walk

Most Extraordinary Cure Effectuated by the Use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

To have the nervous system paralyzed, to be unable to walk and scarcely able to talk, and then to be completely cured, is not a usual experience, but Mr. Hyatt tells in this paper what he passed through. Doctors told him his case was hopeless, and when they gave up he turned to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and obtained complete cure.

Mr. Avery Hyatt, blacksmith, St. Ann's, Lincoln Co., Ont., writes: "I am a blacksmith by trade, and for years ago became afflicted with paralysis. I could not walk or read or write, and could talk with difficulty, so that it was a hard matter to understand anything I would say. Being only a young man, I was nearly discouraged. Two doctors told me it was brought on by overwork, and that my case was hopeless.

"One day my father read about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and advised me to try it. I bought 12 boxes, and when

TORONTO NURSE TELLS OF TRIP TO ENGLAND

Miss Helen Sibbald, En Route for Northern France, Writes of Voyage.

A very interesting letter has been received by Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Sibbald, 529 Church street, from their daughter Helen, who has gone to the front as a nurse. The letter was written on the Cornishian. It describes the day's routine, principally drill and medical lectures. Excerpts from the letter follow:

"On Wednesday every one was seasick, except little Nellie. Eva and myself. About noon we passed an iceberg, the effects of which were felt about three hours before we saw it. We would certainly have thought that it was below zero; the air turned so cold. On Thursday we were in a dense fog and the ship just crept along, and at 8 p.m. it stopped altogether, starting after the weather cleared.

"We were in sight of land but a torpedo destroyer appeared on the horizon to escort us the rest of the way, and I can tell you that it was a relief to see it, although we had not seen one thing to be afraid of."

CELEBRATE SILVER WEDDING

Dr. J. A. Macdonald, editor in chief of The Globe, and his wife, received a number of friends at their residence, 37 Spadina road, last night, on the occasion of their silver wedding.

UPSTAIRS AND DOWNSTAIRS

Many firms in the retail trade are carrying on business as usual and even offering better bargains than in normal times. Among these Claude Pascas and his firm are conspicuous not only in that way but because they have dared to establish their business on the second floor of the Kent Building, between Yonge and Richmond streets.

Pascas and Hurn realized that there was no real reason to conduct an up-to-date clothing business on the ground floor. Contrarywise they saw the opportunity to give better value to their customers by eliminating high rentals and other sources of expense. That is why their up-stairs clothes shop has already become noted for the values they can afford to give. Their up-stairs price is $15 for suits in all respects equal to the usual $25 charged in ground floor stores. Not only this, but at $20 they show the finest and best suits made.

YORK COUNTY...AND...SUBURBS

FAIRBANK TORIES HELD WAR SESSION

Complain That Separation Allowance to Wives is Delayed.

INSURANCE QUESTION

"Blood Money" Said One Speaker—Township Council Upheld.

Addressing the Fairbank Conservative Association last night at their regular monthly meeting in the Harvie avenue clubhouse, School Trustee Duncan Hood said that considerable suffering was caused by delay in remittance by the government of the separation allowance to soldiers' wives, which in some instances had been held back for two or three months.

After some discussion a resolution was passed authorizing the secretary to write to W. F. Maclean, M.P., for South York, drawing his attention to the matter.

George Pryor, eulogized York Township Council's stand against the insurance of soldiers and said: "The honor conferred upon the relatives of the fallen men should be sufficient recompense without asking for blood-money in the shape of insurance." W. Jarvis, Oakwood, was of the opinion that the men who have gone from the County and Township of York, have to fight for the Dominion and he thought that it was the duty of the government to look after the insurance of the soldiers of the township," said Ed. Berch. "and I think the York Township Council has been unfairly badgered in relation to this vicinity. I think that the council will adopt a better scheme than the insurance, and I am positive that if the city could recind the insurance today they would do so. In my opinion an annuity to the dependents of men who are killed and to the soldiers who come back wounded, will be the proper thing to adopt. I sincerely trust that Deputy Reeve Miller will be in a resolution at the county council meeting asking for no insurance," said Mr. Berch in conclusion.

Duncan Hood also thought that Mr. Miller and the York Township Council were getting a lot of unnecessary criticism, and he said in particular for opening his mouth too wide. (Laughter.) I will say, however, that they have not done anything to be criticized for. They propose to do it. If the council had put forward their scheme they would not doubt have got the necessary backing from the ratepayers if the scheme was a good one. We do strongly object, however to the city interfering in our business and the city interfering in the township's business. "All the noise about insurance of township soldiers is coming from a few little associations in this district," said Mr. Miller. "We hear nothing about the insurance in the east of the township, but we hear a little about it from Runnymede and Lambton Park. Only five per cent of the residents of the township are in favor of the insurance. We agree to the insurance scheme we should have to insure every man who passed the doctor, even if he was subsequently rejected, and we went to the front and there are also a number of single men without dependents, who have insured themselves. If we insured the men who were killed, the insurance money might go to the farmers with whom they were employed.

It will, I think, be the policy of the county council to appropriate certain amounts from year to year for soldiers' widows, and the men who return maimed. If the county does not do so the York Township Council will, in my opinion, have to do so. The government should see to this matter of insurance, and it does not seem the right thing that we should have to do. Mr. Miller. "There will be 75 per cent more men maimed than killed in this war, and I hope the York Township Council thru the county council will make good allowance for these men in order that they may forget their wounds."

"I suggest that a home be erected for disabled soldiers and soldiers' children where they could be looked after. The township might take up this matter up," President J. Badams, thought that the matter might be safely left in the hands of the York Township Council.

The following resolution was adopted: "That the Fairbank Conservative Association have the greatest confidence in the York Township Council." President Badams read letters of regret for non-attendance from W. F. Maclean, M.P., and Magistrate George Syme.

PEACE AT ANY PRICE ADVOCATE IN TROUBLE

Charge of Treason Against Woodbridge Farmer, Dismissed—Intent Not Proven.

In the county police court yesterday Magistrate Brunton dismissed the charge against Emerson Smith of Woodbridge, of "using treasonable and seditious language against His Majesty the King."

The charge was the outcome of an argument in a radical car when, according to Andrew Stewart, a witness, Smith said that it didn't matter how the Germans fought, by sinking the Lusitania or using gas, so long as they were put to win.

Robert Topper, another farmer who took part in the discussion, swore that Smith said the British were just as big murderers as the Germans, and that he would as soon live under the German flag as the Union Jack, and asked "what was the difference?"

Rev. J. W. Morgan testified that he heard the conversation, and when Smith was talking to the British soldiers, said "They are guilty of murder," he thought of his own son who is at the front and joined in the argument.

Peace At Any Price.

Smith in his own defence claimed that he was British and wanted Britain to win, but said he would have peace at once if he could. He admitted that he did not know what he was talking about when referring to the flags, he said, "What is the difference as he knew nothing of the German system of government."

The magistrate reprimanded the accused severely, telling him that he was a foolish crank, and that the men he called "murderers" were making it possible for him to live in peace and enjoy the widest liberty.

He found that a prima facie case of seditious had not been proven owing to the absence of treasonable intent.

WEEDS ON VACANT LOTS

Nuisance To Farmers
Township Councils Will Take Vigorous Action if Warnings Are Disregarded.

Numerous complaints are being made especially by the farmers in the suburban districts adjacent to the blocks of sub-divisions yet vacant that no attempts are being made to cut the noxious weeds which are a nuisance. Last year the matter was brought to the attention of the York and Scarborough councils, but little was done to abate the nuisance. The different real estate companies holding the land will this year be notified and vigorous action will be taken. The weeds, sweet clover, burdock, and other weeds abound and farmers coming from the rates payers will be notified if immediate action is not taken.

URGE BOARD OF WORKS

TO COMPLETE STREET

Connecting Link Between Walker and Alcorn Avenues Left in Bad Shape.

The Central Citizens' Association, composed largely of business men around the crossing on upper Yonge street, has passed a strong resolution urging upon the board of works the necessity for opening up the new street between Alcorn and Walker avenues. Immediately to the east of the McCormick property, Walker avenue until last fall, was a blind street terminating in a short distance at Avenue Road. At that time Miss McCormick offered, conditional upon the city's acceptance, to buy the premises at 113 and 125 Alcorn, and those on Walker in the rear, providing the city would take over the land and asphalt the street. The board of works ordered the demolition of the houses and there the matter rests, no effort ever having been made to put the street in a passable condition. Only a narrow wagon track is used on the part of the city's amorphous in the business men and residents generally.

In connection with I.O.O.F. Union Jack Chapter, a lawn fete and sale of home-made cooking will be held at the home of Mr. Fred Smith, "The Willows," Lake Shore road, Mimico, Saturday, June 19, from 3 to 7.

The following resolution was adopted: "That the Fairbank Conservative Association have the greatest confidence in the York Township Council." President Badams read letters of regret for non-attendance from W. F. Maclean, M.P., and Magistrate George Syme.

POSTOFFICE HELD UP NEWMARKET ANNOYED

Fittings Installed Six Weeks Ago
But There is No Word of Opening.

The long delay on the part of the postoffice authorities in opening up the new postoffice in Newmarket is causing a lot of annoyance to the people of that town. It is six weeks since the fittings were installed, and everything was then apparently ready, but no further progress has since been made. The present quarters are wholly inadequate to handle the increasing mail or afford accommodation to the townspeople. The clock remains to be placed in position, but this it is held is no reason for delaying the opening.

Police Magistrate Brunton has received a letter stating that his son, Lieut. Brunton, while wounded in the face is not in a serious condition, and his rapid recovery is looked for.

SCARBORO TOWNSHIP

Scarboro Township Council will meet at Woburn on Monday to hold the annual council of revision of the assessment roll, but there are few applicants of importance to be dealt with. The commissioners of Agincourt have appealed to have a property in the village belonging to Mark Kennedy assessed as a sub-division. The subdivision plan was registered some time ago, and the property is still assessed as farm land.

Scarboro Junction school trustees will apply to the council for an issue of debentures to cover the cost of a two-room extension.

About $140, the total deficit in connection with the Scarborough Relief Fund, was realized by a concert in Malvern Town Hall on Thursday evening. Rev. Mr. Cameron occupied the chair.

PICKERING TOWNSHIP

The Atha picnic, one of the big events of the year in Pickering Township, and generally attended by from three to four thousand of the school children, their parents and friends, will be held this year on Saturday afternoon, June 26. The program of sports and everything in connection promises to be more interesting than ever before and that is saying a good deal.
