

“ my study, which I should have promoted any other way,
“ had I been called to it.——I hope to die with the comfort
“ of believing, that Old England will continue to be a free
“ country, and know itself to be such; that my friends, rela“ tions, and children, with their posterity, will inherit their “ share of this inestimable blessing, and that I have contributed “ my part to it.”
