BRANTFORD.

A Township in the Gore District; is bounded on the east by the townships of Ancaster and Onondaga; on the north by Dumfries; on the west by Burford, and on the south by Oakland. In Brantford 58,035 acres are taken up, 42,273 of which are under cultivation. This is a fine township, containing good land, and numerous well cultivated farms. A larger amount of land is under cultivation in Brantford, in proportion to the quantity taken up, than in any other township in the province. The Grand River runs completely through the township, on which, in about the centre of the township, is situated the flourishing town of Brantford; and the settlement of Mount Pleasant is in the south of the township. In the west of Brantford much of the land is of that description called oak plains, light land, easy of cultivation, and under proper management, growing superior wheat. There are six grist mills and six saw mills in the township.

Population in 1841, 5199.

Ratable property in the township, £114,437.

BRIDGEPORT.
