A Model for Men of Business.

A Model for Men of Business: or, the Christian Layman contemplated among his Secular Occupations. Revised and Modified from the Lectures of Rev. HUGH STOWELL, M. A., Incumbent of Christ's Church, Salford. With an Introduction, by Rev. D. CURRY. 16mo., pp. 322. Price, 35 cents.

An excellent little volume, indicating its character in its title-page, and forcibly presenting the morality of the Gospel to the acceptance of men of business. There is so much in every day life to call our thoughts away from God—so much to blunt our sensibilities to the moral principles which should govern and direct every Christian man in all his intercourse with the world, that a book like this cannot but be a most profitable companion for all who desire to be at last accepted in Christ Jesus. We welcome its appearance. For sale at the Methodist book-stores generally.—Method. Protestant.

This is a work much wanted to carry the sanctity of the Sabbath into the business of the week—to make religion, with business men, an ever-present and all-pervading principle. It is well written, and highly edifying. Let it be widely circulated.—Pittsburgh Christian Advocate.

The Life and Times of Bishop Hedding.

Life and Times of Rev. Elijah Hedding, D. D., late Senior Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church. By Rev. D. W. CLARK, D. D. With an Introduction, by Rev. Bishop E. S. JAMES. Pp. 686. Price, large 12mo., $1 50; 8vo., $2 00.

The Temporal Power of the Pope.

The Temporal Power of the Pope: containing the Speech of the Hon. Joseph R. Chandler, delivered in the House of Representatives of the United States, January 11, 1855. With Nine Letters, stating the prevailing Roman Catholic Theory in the Language of Papal Writers. By JOHN M'CLINTOCK, D. D. 12mo., pp. 154. Price, 45 cents.

Last winter Hon. Joseph R. Chandler, a Catholic, and Representative in Congress from Pennsylvania, being hard pressed by anti-Romanist influences, made a speech, in which he denied the political supremacy of the pope. In doing this, he showed himself possessed of the cunning of a Jesuit, or the weakness of a neophyte. Dr. M'Clintock, in a series of nine letters, has thoroughly exposed the weakness and sophistry of Mr. Chandler's speech. It is a volume for intelligent readers—none others will relish the learning and the nice discrimination which pervade the work.—Northern Christian Advocate, Auburn, N. Y.

A series of letters to the Hon. J. R. Chandler, stating the prevailing Roman Catholic theory in the language of papal writers, forms the substance of this volume. They were prepared in reference to the speech of Mr. Chandler, delivered at the last session of Congress, and from the position and character of the writer, as well as from his mode of treating the subject, are eminently deserving of public attention.—N. Y. Tribune.

Carlton & Phillips, No. 200 Mulberry-street, New-York, have just issued a neat duodecimo volume of one hundred and fifty-four pages, with the foregoing title. It needs not that we say the work is a most timely and masterly production.—Western Christian Advocate.
