AMERICA MUST SAVE WHEAT TO SUPPLY ENTENTE ALLIES

No Surplus Available for Exportation, Hoover Says, So One Must Be Created by Strict Economy in Home Consumption.

There is no need for rationing in America in Mr. Hoover's opinion, and with the supplementary regulations there will be no characteristics. there will be no shortages.

"It is true that the allies need from 75 to 90 million bushels more American wheat," says the statement. It is also true we have already exportwe also true we have already exported the theoretical surplus of last harvest over our normal consumption. The American people have saved a considerable amount, estimated from 25 to 50 million bushels during the past five months, and we are expectations and it anyone should attempt the purchase of foodstuffs for hoarding it will be robbing the allies of just that amount and its a right to of the food surples.
