MAMMOTH SALE. Saturday's List Fairly Bristles With Opportunities

YOU will never have a better opportunity to purchase your winter supply of clothing and furnishings at a fraction of their value than on Saturday. The Great Mammoth Sale is drawing to a close, and its last days are even more enticing than its first. Of course Saturday is always a day of opportunities with us, but this Saturday is the last Saturday of this famous Sale, and has a double significance for that very reason. If you are a smoker, it is safe to say you will be here for your ek's supply of Cigars, and while in the store it will be well worth your while to investigate the exceptional values we offer in some of the other departments. Our clothing is all made on the premises by our own expert workers, from the finest materials imported direct from the mills of England and Scotland, and the regular prices are as low as many dealers are paying for inferior qualities. In dealing here you may put the middleman's profit in your own pocket, and that's where it belongs.
