TRACK IN SPLENDID SHAPE. Favorites Beaten at Lakeside-Elsie L. Won Stakes at Aqueduct.

The rainy and threatening weather yeserday morning did not stop the numerous trainers from working out their horses at the Woodbine. The rain was just enough to lay the dust, and, if anything, nade the track faster, and some good trials were made. The Queen's Plate candidates did some fast work, and did it ers, Moral and Foam Crest. They were sent off for a trial, Foam Crest being besent off for a trial, Foam Crest being dehind all the way. Moral got away first.

He ran the distance to the quarter in .28,
then let himself out on the back stretch,
going from the quarter to the half in .254, missing out the three-quarters in 1.234.
The boy pulled him up almost to a walk,
and he finished the mile in 1.58.
Allie Gates had Paardeberg and Devil's Own out together, sending them threequarters of a mile in 1.26. Orontas galloped a mile in 1.53, while Benckart went three-quarters in 1.244.
John O'Nell's Oakville Maid reeled off a mile in 1.584, going at an easy gait.
Charlie Phair sent Matlock for a 6-furleng breeze in 1.24.
The strongly touted long shot for the guineas, Mr. Davies' opunita, delighted his fanciers to the utmost early in the morning, when he reeled off a mile in 1.52, with a stable boy up. The work was most creditable to the horse, and, if he continues to improve he will be a hard one to beat. The fractional time for the distance was .29, .57, 1.244, 1.52. The last quarter was run nicely in .2745.

According to reports from Fort Erie, the horses training there will come on almost at once to the Woodbine.

At Newmarket track the Seagram horses were put thru their facings by Trainer Blair. It is probable the lot will get more work at the Woodbine this year than last. Harry Lewis is working the horses at Newmarket. Jockey Vittatoe will likely arrive to-day.

Harry Gilmore, jr., writes an interesting letter to the Crescent A.C. about Martin Duffy and the contest with Danny Duane Saturday night in the Mutual-street Rink. He touts Duffy as a wonder and the coning lightweight champion. Taking Dave Barry as a line, young Gilmore tells why Duffy should win. He beat Barry in six rounds last winter at Chicago, while Duane and Barry boxed a 20-round draw recently at Memphis. However, Barry may have improved of late, as in February he was credited with a victory at Denver over Kid Parker, one of the best 138-lb. men in the business. They start for Toronto Thursday night.
