HOW MINISTERS WILL VOTE

The World Asks Members of Ontario Cabinet Their Intentions as to Liquor Act.

BUT THEY ARE NOT TALKATIVE

So Far the Premier is the Only One Who Has Said "Yes" to the Question.

Premier Ross—Yes.

Hon. E. J. Davis—Nothing to say.

Hon. John Dryden—As his conscience directs.

Hon. Richard Harcourt—Refused to say.

Hon. J. R. Stratton—Declined to be interviewed.

Hon. F. R. Litchford—Could not be seen.

Hon. J. M. Gibson—Could not be seen.

The World on Thursday interviewed the members of the Ross government in connection with their position on the referendum. The question put to each one was: "Will you, following the lead of the Premier, state whether you will or will not support the Liquor Act?"

In every case the answer was practically the same. They were all as dumb as the proverbial oyster and refused point blank to give any information as to the attitude they would take.

Hon. E. J. Davis, Commissioner of Crown Lands, sought for a moment, and then informed The World that he was always very pleased to give any information he could, but in this case he had nothing whatever to say one way or the other.

Hon. John Dryden, Minister of Agriculture, replied to the question by asking another: "What is the ballot for?" He inquired: "Is it not for the purpose of giving a man the privilege of privately expressing his opinion and of voting honestly and to the best of his conscience? Well, then, that is what I intend to do—to vote on the question as my conscience prompts me." Further than this Mr. Dryden had nothing to say, and was rather inclined to think that the question was out of place, although it was pointed out to him that answering embarrassing questions was one of the disadvantages of being a public man.

Hon. Richard Harcourt, Minister of Education, was just as non-committal. He would not say how he would vote on the Liquor Act.

Hon. J. R. Stratton, Provincial Secretary, was out of town, and accordingly could not be seen.

Hon. F. R. Litchford, Commissioner of Public Works, is out of town, and accordingly could not be seen.

Hon. J. M. Gibson, Attorney-General, could not be got at to ask about his position.

Leopold's Armoured Auto

Bars Against Anarchists

First One Ever Built is for the King of the Belgians—Monarch Makes a Speech in Which He Does Not Know How Long He Will Be Allowed to Live.

Brussels, Nov. 20.—King Leopold has ordered an armored automobile constructed for his special use. It will be the first one ever built.

The King of Belgium is greatly alarmed at the recent attempt upon his life and as he is not troubled with an embarrassing amount of bravery, yet covets the pleasures of his daily spins with his horseless vehicles, he has decided to get an automobiling under a protecting steel cover.

The King was recently fired at while on his way to a memorial service in honor of the late Queen. Afterwards it was officially stated that he was not really fired at, but that three shots were fired into the air to attract attention to the miserable condition of the man who fired them. This explanation is not believed.

After thinking the King continued: "The times are very troubled. Anarchists are constantly stirring up their followers to disturb that order which is the guarantee of public liberties. Without order, city license remains, which leads inevitably to despotism. These agitators will not let me rest. But I can assure you that all the rest of my existence will be devoted within the limits of a constitutional powers to the good of my country and the protection of its liberties."

They want to intimidate us, but they will not succeed. Even if they struck down the head of the state it would make no difference, as he would soon be replaced. In addition to revolver shots they employ the pen, which can write what calumnies they please. I am nearing the end of my life. I do not know how long I shall live—how long they will let me live. But I can assure you that all the rest of my existence will be devoted within the limits of a constitutional powers to the good of my country and the protection of its liberties."
