LOCAL MARKET.

London, Tuesday, Dec. 11. The sleighing could hardly be sur- ber, 8s H1/d. ed, and if it continues till after Chistmas it would make things more lively, and there would be a lot of produce, hay and oats, that does not as a rule come to this market, that would come. There was a good demand in all of the lines represented. Prices were as a rule steady. Grain-Fully 30 loads of oats were offered; sales were fairly brisk at $1 05 to $1 10 per cwt; more selling at $1 07 to $1 08 per cwt. Three loads of barley sold at $1 07 and $1 08 per cwt. A half-dozen loads of wheat sold at 70c per bushel.

Hay and Straw-There were 45 loads of hay offered, and there was a brisk demand, especially when there were so Futures closed very steady; December, many inferior loads offered. Father Mahony was born in St. Mary's parish, Hamilton, in 1863, and was educated in the separate schools

Dear Sirs: As I am one of the thousands that have been benefited by your Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, I thought it my duty to give you a description of my case. "I am 19 years of age and was always in the best of health until last spring when I sength a severe cold by going about with the remedies I tried would not stir it. My friends began to fear it had turned to consumption and were advising me to go east and see a specialist. One day my father brought heme a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I laughed at the idea of it being any good and refused to take it, and only as a last resource would I.
