LIVE STOCK MARKET

Following the enormous receipts of cattle at the Union Stock Yards on Friday, Saturday and Sunday last, totaling in all nearly 4300 head, yesterday's receipts, 21 cars, comprising just about 500 cattle, served to let the market right itself pj a bit and clear the decks for Wednesday's and Thursday's selling. In addition to the 31 cars, there were between 700 and 500 head left over from Monday's big run, making a total of about 1200 on the market yesterday. While trade was apparently a trifle more active than on Monday, the best that can be said about it was that it held fairly steady with Monday's prices. The representatives of one or two of the big packing houses were looking for some good, the steam but there were few of the latsentatives of one or two of the big packing houses were looking for some good, big steers, but there were few of the latter class on the market.

The quality of the cattle offered was fair to good, but between 300 and 400 head were unsold at the close of the trading yesterday. The stocker and feeder trade was said to be weak, but extrachoice milkers and springers, the latter backward ones, were in request, and more could nave been sold at the current prices. Altogother, the market was inclined to be heavy, and another big run would in all probability still further depress prices.

clined to be heavy, and another of run would in all probability still further depress prices.

Sheep and Lambs.

Choice lambs sold yesterday at from 13½c to 14c, medium lambs at from 12c to 13c, ctills at from 10c to 11c, yearlings at from 10c to 11c, light sheep at from 9c to 9½c and heavy fat sheep and bucks at from 6c to 7½c. The market, tho easy, was steady with the big dron of from $1.50 to $2 reported in Tuesday's World for spring lambs. Sheep were, if anything, a trifle easier.

Choice veal calves are selling at from 13½c to 14c, medium calves at from 12c to 12c, grassers and common calves at from 7½c to 10c. There was a light run of calves yesterday, 100 head in all, but the market is easier than last week from 50c to $1. Continued light receipts would stimulate the prices and similarly a glut, ir view of the warm weather and season of the year, still further depress prices.

The deliveries of hogs were only light, 257 in all, and prices as shown by the sales, were unchanged.

MARKET NOTES.

MARKET NOTES.

A feature of the market at the Union Stock Yards yesterday was the sale of a load of extra choice steers by the Corbett. Hall, Coughlin Company, at $12 per cwt. They were consigned in by Hugh Morgan, of Dumfries Township, were a fine bunch, and went to the Swift-Canadian Company.
