EVEN BREAK ON THE DAY SHOCKER ADDS ANOTHER

Thirteenth Win for Local Pitcher When He Scored a Shutout in First Game of Double Bill—Leafs Failed to Hit in Second Contest.

The Leafs wound up the present home stay by staging another bargain for a goodly crowd of fans, and incidentally split the card with the Newark Indians. Urban Shocker pitched his thirteenth win for the locals in the opening fixture and his fourth successive shutout, when Newark collected only four hits and no runs. Toronto scored twice.

Shocker struck out twelve men, and yesterday's performance of letting down Teney's crew with four hits makes only fourteen hits secured of the league's leading pitcher in the last four games he has pitched, a marvelous record.

The second game came close to ending in serious trouble. The Indians beat us 6 to 0, but at one stage, when we had a chance, the umpire pulled a decision that roused the fans and the players. With every base occupied in the eighth, Murray hit one down the third-base line that was labeled three bags, and most people thought it fell fair. Umpire Handiboe ruled that the ball dropped foul, and an awful roar arose. Murray was so mad that he grabbed the umpire by his coat lapel and tried to drag him down the line to show him where the ball fell. Manager Birmingham kicked loud and long, but it was useless, and both Murray and Birmingham were banished to the clubhouse. Manning had then to bat for Murray, and finished the game in centre field. A crowd gathered round the entrance to the clubhouse after the game, but Lena Blackburne saw that Handiboe got to the clubhouse.

The Leafs found Enright, the man they drove from the box on Tuesday, a huge puzzle, and secured only three hits off him in seven innings. Enright was benched in the eighth with the bases full and two balls on Murray.

Shocker showed one of his best performances in the opening game when he shut out the Indians 2 to 0, allowing them only four hits. Shocker fanned twelve men and allowed only one run, one hit and one error. He pitched a perfect game, and after the first innings he moved down the line to take the place of Dawson Graham, who hit the first home run in real play for the biggest part of the first game. He finally had to retire and Paul Kitchell finished the job at the first corner.

The Leafs went to work right away and got Shocker a safe lead. Truesdale poked a single on his first appearance and galloped home on Smith's mammoth double to deep left. Murray promptly sacrificed and then trotted in after Graham's high fly had been gathered in. This was the only scoring of a contest of straight pitching.

Shocker simply bowled them over as they came up and when Smith and Kitchell tried to make trouble by booting a couple of rollers in the eighth Shocker made the next batter whiff and Trout gathered in a fly for the third out.

Shocker was warmly applauded all through the fixture and the biggest week-day crowd of the season was treated to an excellent exhibition of pitching.

DOUBLE TROUNCING FOR THE DODGERS

Joe Schultz, Former Leaf, Won Overtime Game With Single—Giants Win.

At Chicago (National).—Poor base-running by Chicago and four double plays by New York kept the Cubs the decision in the eighth inning. The Cubs out-hit the Giants and their 12 safeties included home runs by Zelder and Mann. Kauff fell a victim to the trapped ball trick in the sixth. Score: R.H.E. ANOTHER YANKEE ON INJURED LIST

High Turns His Ankle Chasing a Fly—Donovan's Men Win Doubleheader.

At New York (American).—Despite the loss of another player, Outfielder Hugh, who wrenched an ankle while coming in for a short fly in the second game, New York retained its lead by twice defeating St. Louis yesterday by scores of 5 to 3 and 6 to 4. It was the sixth double-header New York has won on the home ground this season. In the first game Russell shut out St. Louis with four hits, two being scratches, while the Yankees pounded Knob hard.

In the second game New York hit Hamilton freely. Scores: R.H.E. St. Louis.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0 4 New York.....5 10 3 0 0 0 0-5 10
