General Strike in Fiume

To Get Rid of D'Annunzio

Fiume, April 23.—Another general strike has been declared here, the latest being made for the withdrawal of Gabriele D'Annunzio and his legionaries, the removal of the present national council and the opening of the Fiume frontier.

An attempt was made to hold mass meetings last night, but D'Annunzio's police prevented them.

ANYTHING BUT WORK

Cleveland, O., April 23.—Five hundred striking members of the Cleveland Yardmen's Association, at a meeting here this afternoon, voted to go to jail in preference to returning to work. The men voted against returning to work after Frank J. O'Rourke, president of the association, had notified the men that the department of justice agents had notified them that unless the strikers returned to work by tomorrow morning the leaders would be arrested.

CAILLAUX MAY BE RELEASED TODAY

Sentence of Three Years' Imprisonment Said to Have Expired.

Paris, April 23.—Joseph Caillaux, former premier of France, tonight, in the Neuilly Hospital, listened to the reading of the sentence of the senate, which, sitting as a high court of justice, yesterday convicted him of "commencement" and "correspondence with enemy."

Three years' imprisonment, five years forced residence in a town to be selected by the minister of the interior and ten years' loss of political rights, the latter clause carrying with it inability to vote or to hold office, was the sentence imposed.

The document was read by a court officer sent to the hospital for the purpose after it had been promulgated before the senate tonight by Leon Bourgeois, the presiding officer. Caillaux was not present in the senate chamber at the time.

The prisoner made no comment after the official made known the contents of the document, but his face showed signs of deep sadness. Asked by the newspapermen present whether he desired to make a statement, Caillaux replied:

"I shall be at your disposal tomorrow or the next day, when I am released."

It is understood that at a secret meeting of the high court this evening, prior to the reading of the terms of the verdict against Caillaux, it was agreed that the time Caillaux had spent in prison and in the hospital should apply to the three years' imprisonment term imposed and that, therefore, Caillaux will be liberated tomorrow.

The decision not to bring Caillaux before the senate tonight provoked rumors that he would be released during the night. M. Moutet, of counsel, for Caillaux said the prisoner was willing to appear before the senate to hear the verdict of condemnation. At the morning session Caillaux had listened to the court pronounce the verdict of guilty of violating article 78 of the military code, and declared, in reply, to the usual question, that he had nothing to say.

Stormy Session Was Expected.

After the morning session the court went into secret session to frame the sentence to be imposed on Caillaux. It reconvened tonight at 9 o'clock. It had been expected that a stormy session would ensue, but a violent protest by Senator Brivet, who quickly calmed, proved to be the only incident. The neighborhood of the senate was extremely quiet during the night.

When the sentence had been read by M. Bourgeois, the 90 senators rose and left the chamber.

Opinions differ regarding the termination of Caillaux's prison sentence. The evening newspapers hold that, with allowances, the three-year term has already expired, and the condemned man should be released tomorrow morning when the date of his banishment should begin.

Maitre Demange of Caillaux's counsel, is a veteran of the French bar, and the defender of Prince Bonaparte at Blois in 1859, and of Dreyfus at Rennes in 1899.

Commenting on the verdict and sentence in the Caillaux case this evening, he said: "I am grieved that in the declining days of my career I have had to serve justice, without finding it." M. Demange is 80 years old.

London Collegiate Fire Causes Nearly Half-Million Dollar Loss

London, Ont., April 23.—London ratepayers will have to make up a loss of approximately $440,000 as a result of the destruction by fire last night of the London Collegiate Institute.

Experts on building figures expressed the opinion today that it would take $500,000 to replace the building and equipment.

Much criticism is being heard today because of the fact that the total insurance on building and equipment was only $40,000.

NEW YORK HONORS ST. GEORGE'S DAY

Martin Burrell Speaker at 134th Dinner of the Society.

New York, April 23.—A cable message from King George praying for world peace was read tonight at the 134th annual dinner of St. George's Society of New York at the Waldorf Astoria. There were 350 members and guests in attendance, some of the guests having come from Canada especially for the occasion.

The King's message, sent thru his private secretary, said:

"The King sincerely thanks the members of St. George's Society for their loyal greetings, and good wishes which his majesty much appreciates. The King joins with them in praying for peace among the nations of the world and a spirit of unity within our empire."

Telegrams of greeting were received from kindred societies of Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Ottawa, Halifax and St. John, as well as from Boston, Baltimore, Albany, and Charleston, S.C.

The speakers included Martin Burrell, Canadian minister of customs; Ronald C. Lindsay, M.V.O., charge d'affaires British embassy; James M. Beck and P. W. Hittell Wilson, correspondent of The London Daily News. Dr. W. E. Lambert, president of the society, presided.

Toasts were drunk to the King, the Prince of Wales and President Wilson. Sir Auckland Geddes, British ambassador to the United States, could not attend, as he has not yet been officially received by the United States government.

Mr. Burrell said that in spite of criticism there was a spirit of friendliness between the people of England and America. He said England was not decadent, but rehabilitating herself. There was never a time when men needed cooler heads and stouter hearts than at this moment. He hoped the United States would extricate herself from its technical state of war.

Burrell said Canada would help the United States to rid this continent of the presence of an element which is seeking to overthrow all constituted authority. He thought both countries would be successful in stamping out radical tendencies.

Mr. Lindsay told the diners that by observing the best and highest traditions of England they could do what is best for England in America; that this would be the best propaganda could use in the interest of England in the United States.

BIGAMY IS CHARGE AGAINST D. VALLEE

Beachville Man Makes First Appearance in Court—Case Remanded for Week.

Woodstock, April 23.—(Special).—With a large white carnation easily adorning his buttonhole, Dennis Vallee of Beachville, strode jauntily and unconcerned into the police court this morning to answer to a charge of bigamy. Early in the morning of April 13, accompanied by Clara Canfield, with whom it is said he went thru a form of marriage in Kingston, Vallee took a hurried departure. Later the couple were arrested in Kingston and Vallee has been in jail ever since. He did not plead or elect trial. The case was remanded until a week from Monday.

WILL KEEP GAS PRICES IN CITY OF WATERLOO

Kitchener, Ont., April 23.—(Special).—The Waterloo Light and Water Commission decided today that there would be no action taken in connection with raising the price of gas. Gas in Waterloo is now selling for $1.90 per 1,000 feet, and the commission did not deem it necessary to increase the price as they are able to finance at the present rate.

I SHOULD WORRY

The representative and old-fashioned system of old-fashioned education, that is, the system of the old-fashioned school, is impossible to teach this subject in less than six to ten months—that is, to have a student who is capable of filling a good position satisfactorily. They are the tip of the iceberg. What is taken to acknowledge instruction. They know better, but are afraid to acknowledge the corn.

But why should I worry? I know it can be done. Hundreds of graduates who are occupying positions the equal of those of any other how, why, in three months or less, I have over a dozen graduates in one of the largest financial institutions in Toronto, and only one, a young girl of less than fifteen years of age, spent four months in my College; all the others graduated in three months or less. If any person doubts this statement, I will furnish the names of the graduates, and their place of employment, with the exact time they attended my College; over this time is appealing to me almost every week for more of my graduates. Come and investigate and you will believe as all who investigate do. Come and let me demonstrate to you how I can teach the principles in from seven to ten days by which you can write any word, simply, briefly and legibly. After that you can acquire the ability to write at the standard rate of speed—100 words per minute—in six days. I will demonstrate the free of charge and without obligation to any person, including the students of the old-fashioned system. I know I do it. Seeing is believing. Come to the demonstration at my College, next Thursday evening, 8 to 9 o'clock.

Last week's demonstration was a success. More than half of those who attended were former students of the old-fashioned system. They were disappointed, discouraged young ladies; today they are happy, contented and working like demons at their desks to win the new, simple, rational, speedy way of writing. Their objective—a nice position with a good salary.

See me personally at any time, or write or phone. I. C. Clarke, Principal, Clarke's Short-hand College, 568 College Street, Phone College 155.
