

VI.

Twenty of the ordinary members shall have power to call a Special Meeting of the General Committee by sending a signed notice to the Secretary at least a fortnight before the time desired for the meeting, the Secretary to give notice to the Executive Committee immediately on receipt of such requisition.

VII.

Matters of importance shall be decided by vote of the General Committee at a meeting regularly or specially convened; in the event of a vacancy occurring in the office of President, Vice-President, Treasurer or Secretary, it shall be competent for the General Committee to fill such office provisionally until the next annual meeting; but in the event of circumstances occurring needing prompt and immediate action, the Executive Committee has power to act on its own responsibility.

VIII.

All business to be discussed at a meeting to be proposed through the presiding officer, such questions to be handed in, in writing, before the business of the day commences; she shall declare the decision and have a casting vote.

To prevent confusion and ensure attention, all remarks must be addressed to the presiding officer.

IX.

All members have the privilege of admitting articles for sale at the rooms of the Society, subject to the approval of the Executive Committee and rules of the Society's Constitution, and shall be entitled to be charged ten per cent. on sales made.
