STORM WARNING

Storm signal No. 2 has been ordered up in the Gulf and at all stations along the Nova Scotia coast and in the Bay of Fundy, indicating moderate south and southwest gales accompanied by rain.

PRESENTATION

About twenty-five friends of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin L. Wood called at their home, Manawagonish road, Fairville, last evening to extend congratulations on a happy event which occurred not long ago. Games were played and a good time enjoyed. Before leaving the host and hostess were made recipients of a handsome brass parlor lamp with the best wishes of the gathering. Refreshments were served and the party broke up about midnight.

NOTHING CAME OF IT

A little more than a week ago an alarm was rung in for the fire department to extinguish a blaze in a motor boat in Market slip. At the time it was said that the fire was started through the carelessness of "someone" who lit a match near the gasoline tank of the boat. It is understood that an investigation has been on foot. The owner of the boat, it is said, did not reach the scene of the fire until some time after it started. There was an attempt made by the police to associate with the case a man who was seen standing on the wharf and who was just about to ring in an alarm. In the police court this morning the matter was apparently to have been threshed out. But there was no positive evidence and the case was dismissed.

USE CANADA'S PORTS; URGES BOARD OF TRADE

Meeting Passes Resolution on Situation Developed Because of Submarine Raid

The use of Canadian ports as a solution of the difficulties arising from the recent submarine raids off the United States coast is urged in a resolution adopted by the council of the Board of Trade this morning. The resolution points out that trade with Canadian ports is protected by the British navy and that any submarine menace which might arise could be dealt with more effectively and without danger of international complications. The routing of all British goods through Canadian ports and the development of the ports to meet the greater demands is urged and the support of all shippers in Canada is requested. The resolution, which was adopted unanimously, is as follows: "Resolved, that the situation that has arisen in consequence of enemy submarine attacks upon peaceful merchant ships sailing out of United States ports, and of the attitude assumed by the United States government towards these enemy attacks, demands that instant action should be taken to secure to a fuller extent the carrying of commerce designed for Great Britain and her allies through the ports of Canada, where it can be assured the protection of the British and allied navy without the danger of international complications arising. And further resolved, that this council urges upon the government of Canada, in co-operation with the home government, the importance of further hastening the development of the open ports of the maritime provinces, so as to care for this commerce in summer and winter, and it also calls upon Canadian shippers to route their shipments wherever possible through Canadian ports, thus assuring them necessary sea protection and at the same time strengthening and upbuilding Canadian ports and railways, towards the development of which vast sums of the public moneys of Canada have always been expended. And further resolved, that the boards of trade of Canada be asked to co-operate in this movement, and that our representatives in parliament be requested to urge the matter upon the attention of the government so as to secure immediate action."

PTE. GIBSON WRITES OF SOMME DRIVE IN WHICH HE TOOK PART

Private H. G. Gibson in a letter to Bruce Erb of the city, tells a little of the recent big drive on the Somme. The letter reads: "I am now in Blighty as a result of being wounded in the big advance on September 15, when the Canadians showed it was a terrible experience standing waiting for the word to go, but we were quite calm and were quite chery. We had about a mile of open country to get to our objective, but we got there, as I was like going through hell's fire, but we did not flinch and were on and on our goal and took all before us, and we also succeeded in taking a village. I just got hit as we got to the village. The shells were bursting all around and a little piece of shrapnel got me on the left leg and my leg got stiff. Then the stretcher bearer got over to a trench and there I dug myself in with my entrenching tool before my leg got stiff. Then the stretcher bearer dressed my wound and I lay there until just before day-break; I then struggled back through the shell fire to a dressing station and got fixed up and was sent from place to place until I am at last back to Bonnie Scotland once again. I am able to limp about, but may be sent to bed at any time. The Somme is some place, and I will not forget it in a hurry. I saw several Baker of my platoon drop."

UNITED BAPTIST INSTITUTE IN SESSION HERE

Session Opened This Morning in Germain Street Church—Paper Read by Rev. M. B. Puryear

The United Baptist Institute opened in the Germain Street Baptist church at 10 a. m. today. The president, Rev. L. H. Crandall, of Bear River, N. S., in the chair. Rev. D. Price of Chipman, offered prayer. About eighty delegates were present at the opening, and the number constantly increased during the session. A period of devotions preceded the regular programme. The president spoke of the importance of the devotional element of the meetings. Prayers were offered by Revs. Messrs. Milton Addison, E. J. Grant and H. D. Worden. An 88 Year Old Delegate.

Among the delegates present was Deacon Charles E. Santori of Berwick, N. S., aged eighty-eight years, who is active in everything doing. Mr. Santori is a regular attendant at the meetings of the convention. He is an enterprising farmer. He has been a member of the Baptist Church in Berwick for sixty-nine years. He is still hale and hearty and bids fair to attend many more meetings of the convention. Rev. Messrs. F. H. Beal, J. H. Jenner, Milton Addison, J. S. McFadden and M. L. Gregg were appointed a nominating committee.

The oldest minister present was Rev. Alfred Chipman, D. D., of Berwick, N. S., who, with his wife, traced the meeting of the institute.

Rev. M. B. Puryear, pastor of the African Baptist Church in Halifax, read a paper on "The Place of the Holy Spirit in this Dispensation." Mr. Puryear said the church was the product of the life and death of Jesus Christ as brought to bear on and in the lives of men. The Holy Spirit was a person. He is the guardian of the church. The Old Testament reveals evidence of the work of the Holy Spirit. He was found also in connection with the life and ministry of Jesus Christ.

This was, however, the era of the Holy Spirit's ministry. The Holy Spirit was on Jesus in his ministry in the synagogue in Nazareth. Jesus becomes intelligent to us as the Holy Spirit revealed and interpreted the historic Jesus to us. Pentecost was not the Natal Day of the Holy Spirit into the church, but his birth day with the church. Pentecost was a present day experience in which the church might vitally share. The church is the body of Christ mystically related to Christ, its head, through the action of the Holy Spirit. When a man accepted Christ by living faith he becomes an organic part of the body of Christ. Jesus did not organize a church. He planned for such an institution. The Holy Spirit carried these plans to fruition. The church was organized by the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. The church today was the brightened shadow of the Apostolic Church.

The business meetings of the church, the speaker said, should be conducted in the recognition of the presence and the activity of the Holy Spirit. He was an efficient factor in the work of tracing all Christian workers for effective service. The Holy Scriptures were the product of the Holy Spirit. All Christians were agreed on this. They might differ as to the method of their inspiration. The Holy Spirit was the best interpreter of His own product. The Christian might know the mind and will of God because he had the Spirit to guide him into the truth. They should go to the Bible and to the closet at one and the same time.

Faith was the gift of the Spirit. Such faith would produce works in the believer in harmony with the Spirit of Jesus. That which did not produce such work was worthless. The most natural thing for a man who believed in Jesus Christ was to pray. The Holy Spirit was the effectual factor in prayer. The Holy Spirit in this era was God expressing Himself in the church with the purpose of bringing the church to perfection.

Upon invitation Rev. A. K. deBlois, D. D., was called to the platform and spoke of a summer spent at St. John more than thirty years ago, in the home of Rev. H. Cross, then pastor of the Germain Street church. His most intimate friend was W. C. Cross.

ROBERTSON IS SENT TO HIGHER COURT

Taking of evidence was resumed in the police court this morning in the case of Andrew Robertson, charged with theft, forgery and obtaining money unlawfully. The defence is that the defendant is receiving much credit for the efficient manner in which they handled the case.

J. M. Robinson, banker and broker, said that the defendant called at his place of business and negotiated for the sale of certain stocks, saying he had twenty-six shares with the American Bonding Machine Company. The defendant on another visit endorsed a stock certificate, which was forwarded to New York by the witness. The defendant said he was going to the woods for the winter and he received $0.40 from the witness in anticipation of the selling of the stocks. The stocks were not sold.

Robert T. Duncan, of the English and Scotch Woolen Company, said that he had missed a razor from his store, where the defendant had been and which was later on found in the possession of the accused.

Alexander Ingram told the court that it was his name the defendant had used when he signed the stock certificate. The defendant had been in the English and Scotch Woolen Company's store in Charlotte street, where the witness is employed. Mr. Ingram said that his coat, with a pocket book containing the stock certificate, was hanging in the back shop. It was recognised by the witness. The witness said that the endorsement was forged.

The evidence was concluded with the testimony of Acting-Detective Hopkins and Detective Briggs. The magistrate committed the defendant for trial.

POLICE COURT

In the police court this morning four persons were fined $8 or two months in jail for drunkenness. Wm. Nixon, given in charge by F. L. Broderick on charges of being drunk, using abusive language on the property of J. Roderick & Son, and for willful destruction to property, was remanded.
