STILL AS BIG AS A HOUSE.

Toonshining and Bootlegging Extraordinary in Montreal.

Montreal, Dec. 16.—A giant twin still, believed to be the largest ever discovered in Montreal, was found the other day by revenue officers who raided a house at 512 Magellan street. A man named Philip Levine was arrested. The house in which the still was unearthed is a two-story structure, and it is said that the giant still and its numerous attachments occupied the entire premises. A thousand gallons of mash were also discovered. Officials of the revenue department believe that the house is the headquarters of an organized gang of bootleggers.
