ST. JOHN BOY AGAIN PROMOTED IN C.P.R.

John M. Keeffe Goes to Chicago as Traveling Passenger Agent.

Word of still another promotion in the ranks of the Canadian Pacific Railway for a St. John boy was announced yesterday when John M. Keeffe, son of Mrs. John Keeffe, was appointed traveling passenger agent at Chicago. Mr. Keeffe left Quebec last night for St. John, but will spend only a few hours here before starting on Sunday to take over his new duties.

Mr. Keeffe has been with the C. P. R. passenger staffs for the last eight years. Immediately after his graduation from the St. John High School and the completion of a business college course, he entered the employ of the company, serving first in the district passenger agent's office and later in the city ticket office.

About two years ago he was transferred to Quebec and after a few months there was appointed rail agent on the steamer Metagama. From the Metagama he was transferred to the Montcalm in a similar capacity and on the first trip of that steamer to Quebec this year was again taken on the strength of the Quebec port staff.

His promotion follows a period of excellent service and he will receive sincere congratulations of many friends here.

ST. JOHN LAWYERS GOING TO ENGLAND

This City Will be Well Represented at Great London Gathering.

Several St. John lawyers with members of their families will be passengers on the Canadian Pacific liner Montclair sailing from Quebec on July 9 for England with other Canadian bar members enroute to attend the international convention of the bar associations in London. The British and Canadian bar associations will be joint hosts to the American Bar Association, which expects to send 1,200 members over.

Included in those who have definitely planned to sail are Dr. M. G. Teed, K. C., Mrs. Teed, Miss Margaret H. Teed, B. C. L., and Miss Dorothy Teed B. A., now in Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. S. A. M. Skinner; Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Puddington, Miss Florence Puddington and Elmer Puddington; Dr. Fred R. Taylor, K. C., and Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. M. A. Skinner, plan on leaving here about the middle of June to sail from Quebec on the Empress of Canada.

Hon. Dr. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., M. P., is uncertain yet, according to Mrs. Baxter, about going owing to his duties at the House of Commons. Daniel Mullin, K. C. and J. D. P. Lewin also have not decided as yet if they will attend.

Sir J. Douglas Hazen, Chief Justice for New Brunswick, accompanied by Mrs. Hazen and Miss Alice Hazen, left on Wednesday night for Quebec and sailed for England yesterday on the C. P. R. liner Montclair. Sir Douglas plans to attend the big convention.

In the list of those already booked for passage on the Montclair are the names of five lieutenant-governors, six chief justices and numerous other legal luminaries. To meet the requirements of the Canadian Bar members, the big liner will call at Southampton and other Canadian members might reach London in advance of the United States visitors and join with the British bar members in receiving the guests from the U. S. Republic.

The programme already mapped out includes a special service in Westminster Abbey on Sunday July 20, a garden party at Buckingham Palace, a banquet by the Lord Mayor of London, a visit to Sulgrave Manor, the family estate of George Washington first President of the United States and a reception at the Imperial Institute in connection with London University on July 31.

COL. C. W. W. McLEAN MARRIED IN INDIA

Distinguished St. John Officer Weds Miss Ridley, of England.

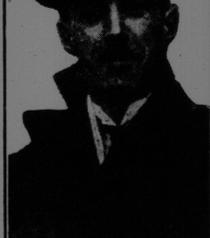

Word has been received here of the marriage at Jubbulpore, India, on April 22, of Colonel Charles Wesley Weldon McLean, C. M. G., D. S. O., son of Major General Hugh H. McLean, K. C., of Robesay, to Alberta Mary Ridley, only child of the late Charles N. Ridley and Mrs. Ridley, of South Warrimongh Lodge, Basingstoke, England. Colonel McLean is commanding the 28th Brigade, Royal Field Artillery, which is stationed at Jubbulpore.

Colonel McLean was born here and left when the South African war broke out, being then still in his teens. He received his commission in the imperial army and saw service in many climes. He was with the Royal Field Artillery when the great war started, and it was during that campaign that he was decorated with orders of Commander of Michael and George and the Distinguished Service Order and later received two bars to the D. S. O. After the war he was elected M. P. for the British constituency, and sat through one session, retiring from the field at the last election and rejoining the R. F. A.

Wins New Promotion

Standardization Inspector Thinks Local Institutions Both Very Fine.

Dr. H. C. Cassidy, hospital visitor for the American College of Surgeons made inspection visits to the General Public Hospital and the St. John Infirmary yesterday in connection with the standardization requirements of the College of Surgeons. Dr. Cassidy said he believed a considerable improvement had taken place in both of the St. John hospitals since the last standardization report was given. He considered that they were both very fine hospitals but he was not prepared to make any definite statements as his report is to be presented to the authorities in Chicago. Since he began his tour from headquarters in Chicago on Jan. 1 he has inspected about 300 hospitals and by the time he completes his tour he will have visited about 300 more.

FOUND BY POLICE.

An order book was found in Union street yesterday afternoon by Myles Carroll and handed to the police. The owner was located soon after. Two school bags were found in the King square yesterday, headquarters where they were called for later by the lads.

ON AUTO TOUR.

T. P. Regan, K. C., president of the New Brunswick Automobile Association, accompanied by his son, Gerald P. Regan, will leave today on a motor trip that will take them through Upper Canadian cities, down to the southern United States and back up along the Atlantic seaboard. They expect to be away about three weeks.

FRESHET SUBSIDING FAST.

The freshet at Indiantown is subsiding so rapidly that it has been found necessary to shift the stern from the Rowan wharf to a wharf at Pleasant Point to save the vessel from grounding. The Stubbs is loaded with piling on board in the Washademoak Lake, and is waiting for the water to become low enough so she can be towed under the bridges at the lower harbor, her reaching will be placed in position and she will sail for a United States port.

NEW RECTOR IS EXPECTED TODAY

Father Cloran was Ordained by Bishop, Now Cardinal Hayes.

Rev. James Cloran, C. S. R., recently appointed rector of St. Peter's church, succeeding Rev. William Hogan, C. S. R., is expected to arrive in the city this afternoon as a member of the mission band and later as one of the parish priests. While here he not only endeared himself to the members of the congregation, but also won high commendations for his achievements in directing members of St. Peter's societies in the presentation of theatrical and musical productions. One of his finest productions was "Forty-Five Minutes From Broadway," which scored a distinct success in St. Peter's hall and later at the Imperial Theatre.

EXPECT ABOUT 100

St. John Men Go to 'Prentice Boys' Annual in Fredericton.

The 54th annual convention of the Protestant 'Prentice Boys' Association of British North America will be held this year, commencing June 10, at 10.30 a.m. in the Orange Hall at Fredericton, and is expected to last for three days. Renwick J. Anderson of West St. John at present is grand master and William Price, also of this city, is grand director of ceremonies. The secretary is C. O. Brickman of Belleville, Ont. Delegates to the convention from lodges St. John, Lorneville, Fairville, Grand Bay, Fredericton and Woodstock, as well as other parts of Canada are expected to number about 100. A banquet to the delegates will be a feature of the convention.

As Hiram Sees It

"Well, sir," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to The Times reporter, "if you want a reel good yarn you come on out to the Settlement. We got a hanted house out there. Some fellers went there the other night and staid all night in the dark in the settin' room where the things was happenin'. They seen flashes o' some kind of onairthly light an' heard groans—an' all at once the fuggers of a feller in the dress the Loyalists used to wear riz right up in front of 'em."

U. S. SENDS WREATH HERE FOR GRAVE OF ST. JOHN SOLDIER

Upon the grave, at Cedar Hill, of a former St. John boy who served with the United States forces in the recent war, there was placed yesterday a large wreath sent to his relatives by the U. S. Government on the occasion of the annual U. S. Decoration Day. The wreath was received by the family of John E. Harding, who died on December 11 in a military hospital in Boston. He served with Co. B. of the 8th Engineers overseas and had an excellent war record. He was well known in the United States as a theatrical scenic artist.

SEES IMPROVEMENT IN TWO HOSPITALS

Standardization Inspector Thinks Local Institutions Both Very Fine.

Dr. H. C. Cassidy, hospital visitor for the American College of Surgeons made inspection visits to the General Public Hospital and the St. John Infirmary yesterday in connection with the standardization requirements of the College of Surgeons. Since he began his tour from headquarters in Chicago on Jan. 1 he has inspected about 300 hospitals and by the time he completes his tour he will have visited about 300 more.

Dr. Cassidy's itinerary included Illinois, Ohio, Pennsylvania, North Carolina, West Virginia, New Jersey and part of New York state. From New York he went to Montreal and has been working east since then. He came to St. John from St. Stephen, where he had visited the Chipman Memorial Hospital, and he left on the Digby boat this morning for Yarmouth, N. S. He will cross the continent from Nova Scotia to Vancouver and will be back in Chicago by Oct. 1.

This is Dr. Cassidy's first trip as a hospital visitor. Last year Dr. McEachern, the associate director of the American College of Surgeons, made the inspection of the St. John hospitals. Dr. Cassidy is a Canadian and comes from Montreal. He graduated from McGill University and has many friends among the medical profession in St. John.

QUESTION OF BOND ISSUE ARISES

Commissioner Frink Speaks of It in Connection With Paving.

"When is the public works department going to start paving our street," is a question which is agitating the minds of the residents of those thoroughfares which were named as the ones to be undertaken this summer, take the matter at council and secure the opinion of the members on the matter of a bond issue for the work. He said it could not be done. Dr. Frink said that the matter had been established and preliminary plans made on which he could base an estimate of the cost but he thought before going ahead with the detailed plans he would take the matter at council and secure the opinion of the members on the matter of a bond issue for the work.
