

WHITE SOX STAGE COMEBACK

Defeat Cincinnati Reds in Tenth Inning After Game Seems Hopelessly Lost

The Chicago White Sox came across with one of the big surprises of the present world's series yesterday afternoon when they defeated the Cincinnati Reds in ten innings by a score of 5 to 4. The game was played in Cincinnati and was witnessed by more than 22,000 fans. In the third inning the Reds drove two men across the plate and duplicated the trick in the fourth. In the fifth inning the White Sox scored one run and three more in the sixth. Both teams went scoreless until the tenth when the Sox got another man across with the deciding tally.

The game was a loose one, but was replete with good plays and hard hitting and proved more interesting to the thousands of fans than any other played so far in the series, which is to decide the baseball supremacy of the world. Reuther, who won fame when he defeated the White Sox in the opening game and batted for a thousand per cent, began to show signs of weakening in the fourth inning and Ring was rushed to the side lines to warm up. In the sixth inning he blew up and was sent to the showers, Ring being sent in to save the day. Although he pitched good ball the White Sox got their tying and deciding run off his delivery and thus the loss of the game is attributed to him. Cincinnati played errorless ball behind their pitchers, but Chicago had three errors. Rishberg being responsible for two and Schalk for one. The White Sox made a shift in their batting order yesterday sending Weaver in as clean up hitter and moving Jackson down to fifth place. The move was a good one as Weaver started trouble in the sixth and tenth innings by driving out doubles. The box score follows:—

MEET HERE FOR FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Renewal of Inter-Collegiate Play to be Talked Over on Next Saturday

Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 3.—The inter-collegiate football league of the maritime provinces will be revived at a meeting to be held in St. John on next Saturday, when representatives of the University of New Brunswick, Acadia and Mount Allison universities will meet.

The league has been dormant since 1914 because of the war, but it is believed that the organization can be placed upon firmer footing than ever now as the "big three" have registrations this year which make the student body at each institution larger than ever. The meeting has been called by Manager Webb of the U. N. B. team, as the Red and Black won the trophy in 1904, when it was last competed for. English rugby will be played this year but there is a movement in favor of inaugurating the upper Canadian game, which seems to be finding new adherents daily, although its adoption may still be some distance away.

FOOTBALL.

U. N. B. Freshmen Win.

Fredericton, Oct. 3.—(Special)—The Rugby season was opened here this afternoon when the freshmen team of the U. N. B. defeated Fredericton High school 12 to 0. The freshmen scored four tries and failed to convert any. All were made by members of the back division. The freshmen held it all over their opponents in weight and also were superior in experience. Fredericton High is lighter than the average yellow and black team and does not look particularly good for the inter-scholastic series. On the other hand the freshmen were heavy and included a number of players who look pretty sure of places on the U. N. B. intercollegiate team.

Germany Wants An Enormous Loan To Restore Position

Long Term Credit Essential But Guarantees Not Satisfactory—
Will Buy Anything

The Hague, Oct. 3.—In connection with Erberger's speech on exchange and the announcement that important credits had been arranged with Holland which would affect exchange considerably, the Montreal Gazette correspondent learns that Erberger, who once again is in a difficult position, somewhat exaggerated the importance of the transaction in order to strengthen his political position. The Dutch credit referred to is for a large quantity of petroleum and fuel oil, of which 40,000 tons are to be delivered immediately. But other important financial transactions are also being negotiated here which it is thought will affect German exchange.

Several important ministers, financiers and industrialists have been in The Hague conferring with the bankers of various countries in the last few days, among other Max and Paul Warburg and the German minister of Finance. The prevailing opinion in financial circles here is that no important business can be negotiated by Americans until the Senate ratifies the peace treaty.

You—correspondent learns that large private American credits will be granted to Germany immediately after ratification, making business possible. News of any sort of a loan will be most welcome to American business men now in Holland, The Hague, Amsterdam and Rotterdam are at present overcrowded with German financiers and industrialists, shippers, and business men, among whom are governmental purchasers. They are here mostly with the idea of purchasing food, raw material, cotton, and even ships but all are up against the same obstacle, lack of means with which to pay, made depreciable worse by ever-falling exchange. In the lobbies of the big hotels large propositions are handled, and great ideas are exchanged between English and German and U. S. business men which often are abandoned after weeks of discussion, although all parties are anxious to do business.

Bankers Fear Panic
The German banks already are so overladen with guarantees that bankers fear a panic if more guarantees are undertaken.

Nathaniel C. Sternbach of New York, who has been visiting prominent cities of Europe for banking purposes, speaking to your correspondent before leaving Holland said he had come in contact with many important English and American business men who are vainly striving to sell to Germany, but that it was useless to make an attempt to sell to Germany and Austria until there was a concerted movement on the part of Germany needs six months credit, and she wishes to give guarantees from German banks which cannot be accepted under existing circumstances.

"The position of Germany today," he said, "is very clear. She will buy anything but with the continual depreciation on the mark there cannot be a recognized and established basis of credit. What Germany absolutely needs is an enormous loan from the United States as the few small credits she gets here and there are not helping her to reconstruction. I have just returned from a tour of inspection to the docks of Rotterdam, and find them literally choked with all kinds of raw material which does not find its way into Germany because Germany is unable to pay.
