FIRST EDITION. AMONG THE RUINS.

GOOD PROGRESS MADE AT SOUTH LAWRENCE YESTERDAY.

Reports Being Pushed Forward Rapidly—New Thrilling Stories of the Tornado.

LAWRENCE, July 28.—The bugle call rang out regularly all day throughout the district torn by the tornado, relieving and assigning the guards. All day, the work of repair and aid went on, until all night the busy workers began to see the light of progress breaking through the gloom.

Battery C was relieved from duty at 6:30 o'clock, and company E went on guard for the night. By order of Adj.-Gen. Dalton, the batteries sleep all Sunday night in their armory. Mattresses were stretched out on the spacious floor, and there almost 100 men slept soundly until morning.

To-night the men are again quartered in the armory. Company F, 5th regiment, will be relieved from duty after 10 o'clock, and the battery will be dismissed Wednesday evening.

A large force of extra policemen are on duty, and the best of order and quiet prevail. The temporary quarters are still occupied by the city officials and the police. Mayor Crawford is as busy as ever answering questions and assisting those who come with every kind of a request. The headquarters today a steady stream of sufferers have called, no two having the same.

There is considerable solicitude among the sufferers as to the disposition of the relief fund. At present, all who are in need of immediate aid are given relief. Quarters and food are provided for them, but this, of course, cannot go forever. The people who have lost their homes, and, in fact, all they had in the world, are beginning to wonder now just how far the relief fund will help them. "I don't know just yet what we can do," said Mayor Crawford this evening, "but do the best we can with what we have left over from the tornado."

THIRD EDITION. ROBBERS AND TRAMPS.

THEY MADE RAIDS ON THE TRAINS MONDAY NIGHT.

Passengers Were Believed of the Train Robbery, One Passenger and Others Several of the Train Hands Were Seriously Injured—A Railroad Case Being.

VALLETTA, Neb., July 30.—An conductor of the Tremont, Elkhorn and Missouri valley road, entered the car to collect the fares between Long Pine and Ash Grove Monday night, shortly after dark, two young men wearing slouch hats, and red handkerchiefs tied over their faces, stepped up, each holding two revolvers leveled at him. They then marched him ahead of them towards the rear of the train, and the conductor was compelled to throw his valuables and his money. All of the passengers in the day coach were removed from the train, although as none of them were searched the aggregate probably would not be great. The conductor had meantime pulled the bell rope and feeling the train slow up the robbers jumped off and escaped.

DONALDSON, Ind., July 30.—The Lake Erie freight train was attacked by tramps Monday night near South Bend, and brakeman Charles Miller killed, but before he had killed his assailant, whose name is unknown. Several trains have been attacked by tramps recently who run over the trainmen seriously injured.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 30.—Burton, a member of the board of directors of the Pacific railroad company some time after midnight Monday night, the train was stopped by a gang of about 150 men. Four arrests have been made.

FROM UPPER CANADA. Abduction at Ottawa—A Question of Responsibility—The Wreck of the Carleton last week, standing at the dam, saw during the forenoon at least 200 men, many of them armed, gathered on the banks of the river, while the car was broken. While it was thought at the time that it might occur, his death was not unexpected. Many in the city will sympathize with Dr. Baxter and his family, who are well known here.
