A MINORITY GOVERNMENT.

A sharp depression has taken place concerning the statistics of the popular vote cast in the late general elec tion. The conservative compilers clain with absolute and admitted correctness that while in the house of commons the liberal members exceed in numbers the conservatives and independents combined, they do not represent nearly as many votes. This fact cannot be questioned, for the returns prove beyond doubt that the conserv- the Chinese ex-viseroy is entitled to atives, McCarthyltes, Patrons and independent candidates polled more votes by several thousand than the liberals. But the government press ir sists that many of the votes cast for the independents were liberal votes and ought to be so counted. There is no question that many liberals voted for independent candidates, but this dces not seem to affect the question, seeing that their votes may be supposed to be represented in the persons for whom they voted. For the purpose of the contest they were McCarthyites or Patrons, or independent conservatives had appeared in the papers, when they voted for candidates of these pursuasions. The statisticians cannot be expected to read the heart of the voter. They can only judge him by his vote. And judging by the official return of the votes, Mr. Laurier and his colleagues do not represent a majority of the people of Canada. In Ontario, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Manitoba and the Northwest the liber-Manitoba and the Northwest the liberal conservative vote alone was far in excess of the liberal vote alone, leaving the independents out of the case altogether. The only province which gave Mr. Laurier's party any considerable majority over the conservative party was Quebec. And it must be admitted that Quebec did the business handsomely.

OLD TIMES.

Sensational reports have reached London of the results of recent explorations and excavations among the remains of ancient Babylon. The back to the orthodox date of the crefast as possible. Meanwhile scholars land. will probably keep their minds open other possibilities a chance that a ly cynical reason for the re-appoint-cunieform inscription may lie even as some do which are carved in plain albe made clear that the Babylonian grit contemporary says: people were civilized and kept records say 3,900 years ago, the Egyptian Menes and the Hebrew Abraham were but people of yesterday.

THE MANITOBA QUESTION.

It turns out that the announcemen or the settlement of the Manitoba question is premature to say the least. The most that the government can say is that it hopes for a settlement which will be satisfactory to everybody. Such an agreement is obviously impossible. The most that can be looked for is an adjustment that will be accepted willingly or unwillingly by all the parties present trouble is settled. Egypt, Saconcerned in the matter. For the last two or three years there have been signs that the Greenway government was playing with the question for political purposes. If Mr. Greenway, Mr. Siften and their colleagues make concessions to Mr. Laurier which they refused to the late government as fatal to a sound school system, the suspicion will be confirmed. If on the other hand the Laurier government, after the pledges made by the party in Quebec and the statements of Mr. Laurier and Mr. Geoffrion has secured no concossions then the hypocrisy of the leaders will be manifest to all the world. We need hardly expect an anncuncement of the terms of settlement to be made if it can be avoided until next winter after the by-elections following the protests. Mr. Laurier has still a weakness for Torres Vedras. But he is confronted by an opposition the open, and the premier will be fortunate if he gets his supplies without defining his position on some questions of interest.

Sir David Macpherson, whose sudden death on board a steamship bound for Canada is reported, was one of many Scotch Canadians who have attained to influential position in the business and political life of the dominion. He came to this country in 835, when not much more than a lad. Having the Scotch Industry and aptitude for business, he was soon a member of one of the most enterprising and successful firms of contractors in Canada. In time he became a man of bers from the little province influence in financial circles. Before protested and only one grit. Li Hung Chang is said to be the richest man in China. He is probably the ablest also. As every ruler China is apparently authorized to get rich out of his office, the European governments properly accept Li for what he is, the nearest approach to a great and patriotic statesman that China has produced in modern days. General Grant considered that Li was ene of the four greatest men that he met in his journeyings round the world, and considering the limitations of his environment, it is possible that a high place among the four. It would be grossly unfair to measure Li by the same standard as one would measure Bismarck or Disraeli, or General Grant himselt.

It can be no harm to remind our readers that the Telegraph was the first paper in Canada to publish the news of the settlement of the Manifolm school question. The highly important piece of information appeared in this paper on Tuesday hat, one day in advance of any other Canadan paper. And on Tuesday Sir Oliver Mowat, speaking in the senate in reply to Sir Mackenzie Bowell's reference to what the papers that the question has been settled is not the case.

The announcement that Turkey has agreed to grant autonomy to Crete may be premature, but the Cretans are reasonably sure to obtain a fair measure of self government before the mos, Montenegro, Servia, Roumania Bulgaria and Eastern Roumelia have passed from Turkish control to practical independence. Bosnia and Herzegovina has gone over to Austria. Now Crete will be lost and soon Armenia must follow. The grand Turk by and by must be content to govern desser Turks only.

The census of France taken this spring confirms the lesson of the previous enumerations. The population of the republic has made no increase in the past five years, and taking Whittaker's figures for the population of 1891 there has been a slight decrease. There has been practically no gain since 1881. During that period Great Britain has overtaken and passed France in population. At the present rate of progress the kingdom of Prussia will have as many people which has power to bring him into as France in twenty years and the empire of Germany twice as many.

Mr. A. B. Morine, who was formerly a Nova Scotian newspaper man, but has been for two years a Newfoundland lawyer, is now in a cloud of glory. He conducted the defence of the bank directors against a great array of government lawyers and has landed the prosecution out of court. It is believed that the crown will abandon the case.

The valued Telegraph corrects the statement of this paper that Nansen got as near the north pole as St. ohn is to Halifax. The Telegraph says the distance to Halifax by an air line is only 125 geographical miles. The Sun travels by air line so seldom that it has fallen into the habit of reckoning the distance by railway.

The valued Telegraph still insist that the first candidature of Sir John Thompson in Antigonish and the nomination of Sir Charles Tupper in Cape Breton, were precedents for the andidature of Mr. Blair. Then the exposition to Thompson and Tupper these contests were good preedents for the opposition to Mr. Blair. Both conservative ministers were strenuously opposed and they did not get mad about it, either.

There is nothing in the program of the session about the prohibition plebiscite. It would appear that this part of the programme was for election purposes only.

Proceedings of Maritime Provinces Convention at Berwick.

Annual Meeting of the W. B. M. and the Reports Submitted.

Subscriptions in Aid of Foreign Mission Work.

(Continued from Page Fourteen.) Berwick, Aug. 22.-At the conven tion of the W. B. M. U. today, after a meeting of the county secretaries, Mrs. Manning called the convention o order. After devotional exercise the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The names of the delegates were then called, which em-braced many of the prominent women of the maritime provinces.

The delegates were asked to report Mrs. D. G. McDonald of North Syd ney reported for that society. suggested that the missing link in our aid societies is the young married women from twenty to thirty years of age. These women are the ones who have never belonged to mission bands and are therefore not interest-ed in aid societies.

Mrs. John Masters of St. John spoke societies of St. John, which seem to be in a flourishing condition.

Considerable home mission work seems to be accomplished by the societies of St. John city. Other societies reported and the outlook seems encouraging. An obituary service was held. Miss Johnson read the names of those who had been promoted to higher service during the year. Especial mention was made of Sister Porter of Frederloton, of Mrs. James Masters, of St John and of Mrs. T. A. Higgins of Wolfville and others.

A mass mission meeting took place in the Methodist church at 3 p. m. Mrs. T. E. Eaton, a former missionary, engaged in prayer. Miss Harrireading. The 23rd Psalm was chosen Miss Harrison spoke in a sweet clear voice and was listened to with rapt

Mrs. Nalder of Windsor gave a few words of welcome to Miss Gray, returned missionary. Miss Gray sponded by some very interesting re-marks and thanked the friends for their welcome and support.

Miss Gray especially gave words of warning and advice to those who are about to start for India. She spoke of the trials and difficulties of work in foreign lands. There are so many trials in the work in India that if it were not for the joy of seeing souls converted not a mis would stay in India one month. Still her love for the heathen is much stronger than it was eleven years ago. when she went to the Telagooes. closing Miss Gray said: "You are doing a glorious work and in due sea son 'Ye shall reap it ye faint not son'. Mrs. W. V. Higgins was then called to the platform and spoke words of trust and faith. Mrs. La Flamme being called for,

Mr. La Flamme came to the platform and gave the greetings of his wife to the convention. Mr. La Flamme spoke in his own pleasing manner, captivating the audience at once. "Be faithful: be faithful for a few more years and the harvest will come.' Mrs. Gullison, missionary elect, now spoke a few words and touched tenderly on the parting soon to take place and her hope to be a co-laborer the sisters at home. Miss Newcome, another young girl about to go out this fall to the foreign field, rave a very interesting and touching address and there were few dry eyes in the large audience. Such tender, sweet, sympathetic address we believe was never before listened to by an audience in Nova Scotia Miss Harrison gave the account of her call to the foreign field. Her impressions came in early life. Her call came while attending a convention a Mondton. Her address was full of power and feeling and thril'ed the whole audience Surely these young mission aries are endued by the Spirit from Miss Newcombe and Miss Harrison

The fifty-first annual convention of the maritime provinces opened at 10 a. n. on Saturday, with the president J. F. Parsons of Halifax, in the chair An unusual number of delegates hav assembled in the beautiful town Berwick. The prominent men of the three provinces outside of the clergymen who attend the meetings of th convention are a large and influential number and add much to the interest in these gatherings.

Rev. G. O. Gates was elected pr dent of the convention for the ensu ing year. Mr. Parsons, the retiring president, presented the Rev. G. O. Gates to the session. Mr. Gates in few touching words thanked the body for the honor conferred upon him. Meeting adjourned.

At Saturday afternoon's session C. Creed reported on the state of th denomination. Total membership 48,200; added during the year, 2,511 ordained during the year, H. A. Forter Bridgewater, N. S.; A. Saturday evening the institute resumed its session and Mr. Hughes read a strikingly original and the ful paper on the interpretation of the Apocalypse.

Rev. A. C. Chute. A foreign mission-ary meeting was held, but the attendarce was so large that an overflow meeting was organized out of doors, conducted by Mr. Dykeman, Mr. Simson. Geo. McDonald and others. A brief but inspiring address elcome was given to returned conaries by the president, Rev. G. O. Gates. These were Rev. W. V. Higgins and Miss Gray. With these wer Miss Harrison and Miss Newcombe Rev. W. V. Higgins then spoke, giving a graphic picture of the heather of India and of the work there. Rev. J. W. Manning spoke on incentives to foreign mission work. First incentive duty, then, compassion, and absolute certainty of victory.

Rev. G. J. C. White read a letter from a sister giving a gold ring to the foreign mission cause. A proposal to pledge $5 a year to the support of Mr. Gullison met with a sympathetic response. A large number pledged themfor $5 a year for life. Rev. Ralph Gullison gave a very feeling address, showing how he was led to devote himself to the foreign mission Miss Grav, who went out eleven years ago to Telegoos, spoke of her work and of her joy at meeting so many sympathetic friends.

Miss Newcombe and Miss Harrison also spoke briefly, after which Rev. J. A Gordon spoke farewell words to the missionaries

On Sunday large audiences assembled. Rev. W. Camp preached in the any danger of bleeding. morning and Rev. A. C. Chute in the Methodist house in the morning and Rev. Mr. Hinson in the evening. Mr Camp's subject: "The Love of Christ constrained me," was eloquently treated under two divisions: 1st. The Incentive of Paul's life; 2nd. The Life produced by this motive. The report of the board of gover nors was read: The board have held three meetings. Associated alumni held 36th annual meeting in June. Though the membership has increased and renewed interest is taken in th society in New England, yet they are not supporting the chair and means should be taken to supply the deficit. The usual work in the college has gone on satisfactorily; 28 students graduated full and 10 received the degree of M. A. Bible study is a recognized part of college work, and is being prosecuted with success. The law department started last year has prospere beyond expectation, through the assstance of W. E. Roscoe, Esq., and Prof. F. Tufts. Dr. Weldon congratu lated the students on the excellence of the work. While no especial revival has been enjoyed during the year, the religious life of the college is fairly good. The board have been reluctantly compelled to accept President Saw health, but he will continue chairman of the faculty and honorary president of the seminary, and will remain in charge of philosophical and ethical subtects.

The board has received $6,700 in cash from the M. Currey estate. The bequest of $100,000 from the late Godfrey Payzant was noticed and in connection the names of past donors, such as J W. Barss, A. C. Robbins, C. B. Which den, W. Cummings, A. F. Randolph and Dr. Parker Horton academy and Horton seminary underwent a favorable review with especial commenda tion of their present advantages and equipment.

Berwick, Aug. 24.-Monday afternoon the debate on the annuity fund was resumed, J. F. Parsons defending the administration of the fund It was assailed by Rev. E. E. Locke and R. H. Hemans. The report of the board of gover nors was then taken up. An earnes appeal for assistance for alumni chair was made by Rev. J. G. C. White. The resignation of Rev. Dr. Sawye was feelingly discussed by Rev. Dr. Steele, Dr. Carey, Dr. Saunders, Mr. Martell, J. F. Parsons, Rev. S. Kempton, Prof. Higgins, Rev. S. Mc-Black. They also spoke appreciatively of the late president. The shortage $4,000, by the late treasurer, brought out many questions and elicited much discussion. C. W. Roscoe defended his work as auditor against his many eritics.

Monday evening was given to platform educational meeting. I. B. Oakes spoke on the work and claims of Horton Academy; Rev. W. V. Higgins on the relation of Acadia to forign missions; Rev. J. H. Forshay on better preparation for the ministry; Rev. C. W. Corey on finances; Rev. Dr. Kempton on Acadia Seminary. An alumni rally was held at the close of the afternoon session.

ACROSS THE BAY.

A Brooklyn Lady, Attired in Bloomers, Appears in Digby Streets on a Bieyele.

Two Thousand Quintals of Dry Fish Shipped-Burglars at Work.

(Special to the Sun.)

Digby, Aug. 24.-Although there are scores of lady bicyclists here at this season of the year, Mrs. H. P. de Forest of Brooklyn, N. Y., can claim the honor of being the first lady to appear on the streets of Digby in yer's resignation on account of his Bloomers. Mrs, de Forest is a very graceful rider, and needless to say attracts no little amount of attention when on her wheel. She is accompanied by her husband, Dr. de Forest. They reached Digby on Sunday, having rode all the way from Yarmouth. They registered at the Royal.

Boutlier & Morehouse, the fish dealers, have purchased the little mouth steamer Island Gem, and will use her for buying up fish along the bay shore. Stanley Bent will be the firm's buyer.

Manifests received at the Digby custom house today show that nearly 2,000 quintals of dry fish were shipped last week from the out-ports of Sandy Cove and Tiverton to St. John, Yarouth and Halifax; total value, $3,600. Brigt. Venice, engaged in the coasting trade, has been laid up at Weynouth for want of a charter.

Hon. David I. Robinson, mayor of Gloucester, Mass., and a staunch republican, arrived today on his annual visit to Digby, accompanied by his daughter Emma and son William. They registered at Short's. Fishing schr. E. A. Horton, Captain John Sims, is in with a fare of 70,000 lbs. of hake and 10,000 lbs of cod, sold to Snow & Wightman. Rev. Mr. Robb of Norton, N. B., officlated at the Presbyterian services here on Sunday.

Thos. Galloway, the Ontario lecturer, spoke on, "How to make a success in Life," to quite a large number of people in Baptist hall Sunday afternoon. A deal laden steamer passed down the bay Saturday evening.

The police made one arrest Saturday ight for drunkenness. Burglars entered Erb's photo studio est night, but did not carry off anything of any value. They were eviafter money.

The keel of a new schooner for the ccasting and West India trade is about o be laid at Plympton.

THEY UPSET THE YACHT. Two of the sailors belonging to the ship Vanloo had quite an experience in the harbor Monday afternoon. They went out for a sail in the yacht owned by Mr. Globe, the manager of the Sailors' Mission, but without having asked his permission to use the boat. When off the custom house wharf they succeeded in some way not yet understood by Mr. Globe in upsetting the boat. They were in the water four or five minutes before they were picked up by the tug Leader. She took the yacht in to the wharf.
