leading merchants, and after examining the public buildings and places of note will embark on a steamer and examine the river. The party will arrive in Newcastle during the afternoon, where an address will be presented, and immediately after he will proceed to Bathurst by train."
We are informed that Hon. Senator Muirhead asked several prominent Liberals to join in the reception of Sir Hector, and that they expressed themselves quite ready to do so, provided he was to be received simply as Minister of Public Works and not as a party man. This, does not seem to have met the Senator's views and a party reception is to be the order of business. R. R. Call, Esq., has placed the Andover at the disposal of the party Committee, and there is to be a free excursion on the river, which will, of itself, be sufficient to attract a large number of persons. THE DOG TAX IN LOWER DISTRICT. Coun. Goggin read the petition of Amon Perley and others praying for the recon sideration of the By-law concerning dog tax in the Lower District, with a view the doing away with such tax. He also read the letter accompanying the same. The petition was received. Coun. Goggin said that a petition was brought into the Council last January, asking for a tax on dogs in the lower District, and they were told by several parties, that the dogs were killing the sheep, and thought that a tax would stop it. The present petition from the farmers was, however, more extensively signed, and the Sec-Treasurer would, perhaps inform them that was to be done. Coun. Hugh Cameron had heard many complaints in the District; perhaps the Indian's dogs were to blame. He approved of the tax when it was imposed, but now the majority were against it, he thought, the By-Law ought to be cancelled Coun. R. B. Adams thought that it was child's play to think of altering the law, after perhaps one half the people had paid. dogs, killed the sheep, but for this there had paid, and that there would be too much delay in righting the matter, if
