SEMI-WEEKLY SUN, ST. JOHN, N. B., SEPTEMBER 24, 1902.

GOODSPEED ON THE STAND Same Terrible Tells Story Without the Variation.

Stands Cross-examination Well, but Makes One Bad Contradiction-Mr. Mullin Protests Against Him

as a Witness.

"Higgins said he would shoot me on | and the shells in it were the same size as the bullets found. the spot unless I took a hand in it," Frank Kelly, the next witness, was and later, "Higgins said he would kill me if I told on him," was the burden sharply questioned by Mr. Mullin regarding the nature of an oath before of Fred Goodspeed's evidence Thursgarding the nature of an oath perers of both Higgins and Goouspeed that the oath was put to him. His answers Mr. Doherty told witness of seeing his day afternoon as he stood in the witness box and told straightly, unhesitatingly, with clear unembarrassed was sworn. voice, the story of the brutal murder He said: "I knew Willie Doherty for in which he is charged with being an about two years, and Frank Higgins accessory.

vious depositions.

about eight years. Used to go around with him occasionally. I just heard about the murder Monday night when All the details of the crime were given as coolly and in practically the the body was found. I went up to the dead house, but didn't go in. Saw Higsame words as at the inquest, and in the police court. With the same roundgins on Brussels street that night with eyed, convincing manner, he told of some other boys. I walked along with the walk out to the park, of the sud-den shots fired, of Doherty's pitiful them as far as the grave yard. There were six or eight boys there," but I don't remember who they were. I think pleas for mercy, of the savage blows rained on his prostrate form by Hig-I left Higgins on Carmarthen street by gins, of the covering of the mutilated the grave vard body, of the return home, of the hiding of the fatal revolver, and in every-We were talking about the body be thing varied not a word from his pre ing found and some one said we'd all have to go up to the court as witness-And for nearly two hours he stood es. It was Higgins who first spoke to under the fire of Mr. Mullin's searchme about it. He said: "You'll have to be up, too." ing cross-examination, and gave quick answer to sharp question after ques-"I asked him what for, and he said for having a fight with Willie Dohtion without a trace of confusion. Nothing he had given in direct examinaerty. tion was shaken, although some new The memory of the witness was de-

* 20 2 83 TAC OF

after his arrest.

To the judge-It was in the presence son last when he brought his dinner to him Friday noon. The boys knew this

To Mr. Mullin-When the face was washed off I distinctly recognized the

MR. MULLIN OBJECTS

Mr. McKeown here asked that an or der be issued to bring Fred Goodspeed

Mr. Mullin objected, submitting, that a prisoner indicted as an accomplice in connection with a crime should not be called as a witness. He cited legal authorities supporting his contentions, and said his objection was made with the knowledge that the matter rested largely in the discretion' of the judge.

A witness so testifying, he said, would have a terror held over him which would tend to make him fix the crime more closely upon his associate, where if he were pardoned or a nolle prosequi ment. Mr. Mullin argued his case at crown's case, he said, rested largely upon the uncorroborated testimony of Goodspeed. The finding of the revolver was not a corroboration as the only evidence that it was thrown there by Higgins was the unsupported statement

Before any decision in this matter was given the evidence was received of Louis H. Robinson, U. S. immigration er and another boy at Vanceboro on had received a telegram from L. R.

Ross to look out for the boys, whose description was given. They said their names were Chanler and James Mar-morning turned the boys over to Detective Killen at McAdam Junction

The boys said they came from St.

Cross examined, witness said Frank was. He was acting in his capacity as

AFT IRNOON SESSION.

immigration agent when he stopped the shall. Witness took them off the train agent, who told of stopping the prison

The

entered he would have no such induc length and quoted authorities.

of the accomplice.

John.

boys.

when they told their stories.

body as that of Doherty.

from prison into court.

evidence of a dubious character was fective and Mr. McKeown pressed him closely with questions, to which Mr. clicited and he was involved in at least one serious contradiction. This was Mullin objected. The judge sustained when after declaring that he had not the crown and Mr. McKeown led the seen Higgins on the morning of the witness with easy connected questions but failed to elicit much more of in-Monday the body was found, he was terest. Witness could not remember if forced to admit that he had seen him. and that he had walked out to the anything was said about the murdered park with him while Higgins took a of Willie Doherty. He did not know look at the place where the body of why they were talking about the polthe victim lay. Counsel also confused ice court. All he could remember wa what Higgins had said directly to him. him somewhat regarding the time consumed in the various actions of the as quoted. On the following Friday he saw Higgins and Fred Goodspeed on the evening of the 8th of August. He

But with these exceptions the evidthe cotton mill wharf. There was no ence of the principal crown witness talk then about Doherty. was substantially maintained. The HE FOUGHT DOHERTY. cross-examination is not through, how-It was about two years ago when I ever, but will resume at the opening had a fight with Doherty," said the notified the St. John police and the next of the court at 10 o'clock this mornwitness, "and we have been on friendly

ing. terms since." EVIDENCE UNDER PROTEST.

How did the fight end? asked Mr. Goodspeed's evidence was received Mullin only after vigorous protest by Mr. Mul-

"He stopped," was the reply, "and lin, who on technical grounds urged then I stopped. He stopped because Higgins said his name was Charles Marshall. They both stated they were he said I kicked him. I don't think I mains to Portland, where their home against the hearing of an accomplice under indictment unless other corroborating testimony was forthcoming, was getting the best of him at the going to Portland, where their home which he insisted was not the case. He time.

occupied nearly two hours in arguing As Kelly is only 14 and very small his contention, which was finally overfor his age, though chunky and solid ruled by Judge Landry, who allowed looking, and Doherty was nearly a six-asked Higgins to look at it. He look-ed and said it was Doherty. Then witness and Sergt. Kilpatrick lifted the body up and Higgins said, "That's Willie Doherty, all right." The same night Higgins told witness he would do all he could do be been do speed was again removed from the court room. Mr. Mullin further claimed that was for the prosecution to show that no inducement had been held out. Judge Landry ruled that the witness should be heard, and Goodspeed again he would do all he could to help find the murderer. He told mè he had last took the stand, and Mr. McKeown be seen Doherty alive at a quarter past | gan his exam eleven the preceeding Friday. He said he and Fred Goodspeed stayed in the old graveyard all the afternoon. At a quarter past eleven he saw Doherty about two years, and Frank Higgins going up Sydney street with a parcel, about the same time. I only came he supposed it was his father's dinner, home July 10th from Salem, in the he supposed it was his father's dinnen. Cross-examined by Mr. Mullin, with ness said he had no talk with Good-night the body was found Goodspeed told the same story as Higgins about seeing Doherty and staying in the graveyard all the afternoon. When the second visit to the dead house was the second visit to the dead house was and came up to the old graveyard made Higgins asked Goodspeed to about 5 or 10 minutes to one. Frank come too, but witness didn't see Good-Higgins and Willie Doherty were speed go in. Having made this statethere. I did not expect to meet them ment Goodspeed adhered to it until

HE MEETS HIGGINS.

There was nobody else there at the ne, but later Harry Kelly and Clifford King came up. I had been there bout a quarter of an hour before they came. They stayed about 20 or 25 minutes and then went away the same way they came. We stayed a couple of minutes or so, when Frank Higgins said: "Let's go to the park and get a feed of berries.

Continuing, the witness told of their rogress down Brussels street and out Gilbert's Lane and of passing a fellow on the lane who asked if there were any girls in the Park. I said, "A chap like you could get a girl all right." The boys passed this fellow again and went in the main entrance of the Park. They walked at an ord-inary gait and didn't hurry. They shooting birds in the Park. followed the main road out as far as the path to the bear den. The plan of the Park drawn by Mr. Knox was here produced, and on it the witness pointed out their route.

IN THE PARK

"We went down to have a look at the bears," continued the witness. "Higgins left Doherty and me here and went over the hill down toward the track. We saw him next down by the fence that runs along the foot of the hill. We followed along the fence until we came to the white house on the road leading to Dave Connell's. We went up over the big hill by Connell' nouse, picking berries as we went. I led the way most of the time. We brought up at the end of Lover's Lane, behind the Park. On the way out Willie Doherty and right. Frank Higgins were talking about places they had robbed. In the Park they were talking about hypnotism and seemed on the best of terms. THE MURDER.

As we were walking out near the path on the burnt land back of the Park, Doherty and I were ahead and about five feet apart. Frank Higgins was picking berries behind us. I was picking away when I heard four shots go off and Willie holered out: "My God, Higgie, you've shot me," and ran up the hill a little, about ten the hill. Willie ran straight up and I summer. He told the same story to feet. Before the shots were fired I saw no revolver. When I heard them I was to the left when the shots were fired. "We went away scared and I ran up the hill too, but At the top of the hill we were about noon," he continued. six feet apart.

Mullin

yard. I knew he had a revolver, but eight. Then they went up to the we had no talk about it. I mean I graveyard and stayed till about half didn't ask him to bring his revolver past nine or ten. A little after nine and we'd have some shots at birds and his brother and some others came and uirrels. I was going to the Opera House in with his brother. He didn't remember the afternoon when I met Higgins and seeing Higgins the following day. Saw Doherty in the graveyard. I was him on Sunday in the tanyard. This there when King and Kelly were there. was in the morning. In the afternoon I didn't hear Kelly speak about any- he stayed in, as it was raining, and in thing in his pocket. I didn't hear Clif-ford ask him what he had in his yard with some other boys. Higgins pocket. Frank was lying down on the grass at the time. I don't think his coat was open. I was sitting on a tembsione, Kelly was standing by me and King was lying down by Higgins. Questioned by Mr. Mullin further, Deherty was sitting under a tree a witness said he did not see Higgins little piece away. After King and Kel- Monday morning, but told of seeing ly went away we only stayed a few minues. There was nothing said about him on Union street with Harry Kelly.

Later he admitted seeing Higgins in the Park that Monday morning. He STICKS TO HIS STORY. didn't remember being in the refreshment house.

Asked about the conversation with Mr. Mullin and the judge pressed him Baird on Gilbert's Lane, witness said closely on this point, but he persisted he had been cheeky, but was only in in saying he did not remember whe-fun. He described again the route ther he went in there or not. they took around the Park, varying not a jot from his evidence in direct

"We went out to the Park and I stayed in Lovers' Lane while Higgins examination. He said it was about went out to Willie Doherty. half past one when they started out. "Wasn't it you that went out?"

They didn't loiter on the way. Mr. pressed the counsel Mullin was particular on this point and forced witness to swear positively HIGGINS SAW BODY IN PARK. he didn't sit down on a hill anywhere. No, sir. I went up the lane with The revolver was never taken out, he Higgins, but it was him that went out declared, and Doherty did not have it where the body was. It was nearly in his hands examining it. 12 o'clock when we came in and he Witness became a little confused walked up the track with me as I about the relative positions of the went home.

three boys during the walk through, Didn't you see him down at the not understanding counsel's question, Opera House Sunday morning ?" but got himself straightened out all "Yes, sir." "Didn't you have some candy that "I was walking ahead when we were you got out of Phillips & Foley's with out behind the park," he said, "and key you had ?' Doherty was even with me when I "I had the candy, but it was Harry

Alexander who had the key," was the Did you count them ?" asked Mr. reply. Questioned about the identification

"No, I didn't, but I'm pretty sure of the body, witness admitted saying there were only four. That was all I to the police that he last saw Doherty heard. The first shot alarmed me, but in the graveyard Friday noon and that I remember hearing four. I remember hearing four. GOODSPEED WAS CLOSE TO did not remember telling this to De-DOHERTY.

puty Jenkins that night, but he told I was close to Doherty and I ran up him the next day, and added that he had only been in the park once that tickets on King street and boarded the

"We went away on Friday after-

Prisoner Tur Scene-

" 'Help, Higgie;

Doherty cry as said Frank Higg noon as he told !

ly murder. "The

I could and saw

ground, his brea

ing up and dow

stood by the boo

Never in the c

province was sit

ly dramatic than

thronged the co

in the close atm

ed with intent

impassively lean

counsel in the o

yers sat quietly

ference. No qu

and the stillne

broken only by rustling of penci

On the stand

stood Frank Higg

derer of William

sing-song recitati

and unhesitating

which has arouse

than any occurre

And that story f

of the cruel killi

speed, the crown

whose evidence t

prisoner has reste

Higgins' testime

and as clearly

had previously be

Keown's trying o

mable to shake

If anything the

He talked in the tone of a school

He needed no

went on from po

ful language as

ous detail the ev

Cross-examined.

parts of the st

tion of an acce

occurrence five

sion, and, about

twice more wit

syllable Tittle

tant qualifying

rect examination

time with glib o

been reading his

ted page he coul

minutely exact.

As it stands n

stories exactly

minor bits of tes

threats against

preciated by mo tions in the chie mony. Higgins'

late and motives

his giving it, bu

straight and so

to contradict hi

show today cer

falsities in it, the

be placed in an

All through

Goodspeed stood

fire of Mr. Mul

himself in seve

ancies, but each

self without gr credibility. The

tions hurled at admissions that crime than he knowledged, and

under the strain

hours he was con

questions charging

the commission

of these he gave

emphatic negativ

you borrow the

want to burn th

brought a succe

decisive "No sir

ness, grasping th

ody into the re

During it all

put the whole f

the counsel's in great importanc

his original test

removed with his

of innoncence. friends have pl

For even admit

"Didn't you fir

bore up well.

THE DA

lest detail.

Goodspeed as owning<sup>1</sup> the request he repea

HIGGINS

nals.

of the witness'

sheets of paper.

chair. Around

They crushed fo

wide-eyed, brea

ed, with the

Higgins

be heard. foot man, this ran a ripple of laughter The rest of the evidence was not of around the court room, in which Higdirect importance, consisting largely of gins joined genially. the circumstances surrounding the To Mr. McKeown, I saw Higgins in identification of the body and the find- the tan yard with a revolver almost a ing of the revolver. More witnesses week before the murder. One night he who saw Higgins with a revolver prefired it off. I don't know whether Higvious to the murder were also heard. gins and Doherty were on good terms tion was that for Goodspeed to be al-The crown's case will undoubtedly be or not. I heard Higgins say he'd get closed today, and the defence will square with Doherty when he got out open, though how far it will proceed of jail. Doherty was in with the that he really was an accomplice will depend upon the number of wit- Holm Eoys at the time. Higgins said nesses to be presented by Mr. Mullin. Doherty had stolen some things from He has some important evidence to present, but, as formerly, is exceeding-Cross-examined-He was in the tan ly reticent regarding the nature of it.

yard and heard him say this. There It is believed, however, that today was quite a crowd there. I don't rewill conclude the reception of evidence, nember Higgins saying that Doherty leaving Saturday for the closing adhad done a dirty trick on him. dresses, the summing up, and the deliberations of the jury. FIRED THROUGH A HAT.

INTERESTED CROWDS

Edward Tobin saw Higgins with a had thrown it there. It had been pro-revolver on the cotton mill wharf about ven, he admitted, that it was Higgins' That the interest in the case is a week before the murder. He fired a revolver that had been found in the growing toward its conclusion was evibullet through the hat of a boy named creek, but there was nothing to show denced by the througed court room Carberry, who was in swimming at the yesterday. During the afternoon every time. spare bit of space was occupied by the To the Judge-The boy told Higgins crowded hundreds outside the railing. he'd make him pay for it and Higgins while benches from all over the buildaughed. He had a box of cartridges ing were carried in for the privileged There was a crowd there and I don't visitors within. hink anybody else had a revolver. Mrs. Higgins and her daughter and Nobody said anything to Higgins about Mrs. Goodspeed occupied their usual carrying such a weapon. places and sat through the proceed-John Quigley, a friend of Higgins, saw him at the dead house the night ings quietly. Mrs. Doherty, at the afternoon session, broke down under the body was found. Higgins had just the strain of listening to the heart come out and he told me the body was rending details of her son's murder, Willie Doherty's. There was a crowd less Higgins were found guilty there around but witness couldn't remember and sobbed hysterically." Her hushand who sat by her side, tried in vain to any more of the conversation. Witsoothe her, without success, and beness corrroborated Tobin's testimony fore the proceedings were half over she about Higgins firing the shot through was obliged to leave the room. the boy's hat. He was shown the wea-

HIGGINS SERIOUS.

cro

looked like one Higgins had. Witness told of meeting Higgins and Higgins grows a little more serious Goodspeed on Friday, August 1, comand the lines around him tighten. He ing up the track from the Marsh Road has lost none of his coolness and going toward the place where the re watches every bit of evidence with volver was found in the creek. This calm interest, but he does not smile was sometime in the afternoon, perso carelessly as he did at first, and at haps about four o'clock. He had left nes his frequent change of position, the shop where he worked to go for slightly worried expression and unrest a walk and was out about half an ing, wandering fingers betray a growing nervousness. During Goodspeed's hour. James Hamilton who had been exexamination he consulted with gaged by the police to help in searchhis counsel with earnest volubility. He ing for the revolver in the Marsh Creek watches his client's fight with pertold of the search and the subsequent sonal interest now instead of his forfinding of the weapon. He identified mer wildly bored expression. His laugh of incredulous contempt the weapon produced in court as the one found. was ready on several occasions when Deputy Chief F. W. Jenkins told of Goodspeed gave bits of evidence of a his connection with the case. He minmore than usually damaging nature. As the first witness at the morning session Detective Patrick utely described the location where Doherty's body was found, giving acmorning session Detective Patrick Killen, was recalled, and he told of be-ing given two cartridges left in the box from which Higgins purchased the balcurate distances. He told of the find-ing of a revolver in the creek, according to information given by Goodspeed. ance in A. Hunter's shop. The boy Sharkey gave them to him, but he did HIGGINS IDENTIFIES, not see him take them from the box. Questioned regarding the Indentifica-Cross examined: He had seen in the tion of Doherty's body. The deputy told of seeing the body at the park and later in the dead house, without paper that the local government had offered a reward of $500 for information eading to the arrest and conviction of recognizing it, though he knew Doherty well. The features were cut and swolwho murdered Doherty. len and covered with dirt. Joseph

BULLETS WERE 38.

A. Hunter, gunsmith, called and be washed. He and Sergt. Kilpatrick whether he made his confession in the and Frank Higgins and Goodspeed went hope of getting a pardon or a reward, sworn, was shown the bullets found in Doherty's body and said they beto the dead house. In the presence of longed to a 38 centre fire cartridge. revolver produced was a 38 long

The afternoon session, which saw a by me and caught Willie Doherty, I crowd in the court room greater than never saw him till he passed me. When t any previous sitting, not a few lad- Higgins caught him Willie turned ies being present, was opened with a around. I don't think Frank tool continuance of Mr. Mullin's protest hold of Willie, but he raised his arm to hit him with the revolver. Willie against the summoning of Goodspeed as a witness. The basis of his contengrabbed hold of it and then sank down on his side and said:

lowed to testify there must be some 'If you get a doctor, so help me God evidence outside of his own to show 'll swear it was an accident." ILL SHOOT YOU RIGHT HERE. There was, he contended, no evidence of this kind. He read further copious I started to run and Higgins pointextracts from cases he considered ed the revolver at me and said: "If analogous to the one under consideryou don't have a hand in this I'll shoot you right here." The only direct evidence against the Then he hit Willie 4 or 5 times over the head with the revolver and Willie prisoner, Mr. Mullin contended, was the finding of the revolver, and this was of sank down with a groan and was no value without the testimony of the quiet. Frank then shoved him down accomplice, Goodspeed, that Higgins into a hollow with his foot and we covered him over with sticks and stuff and left him there. Then we came in Lover's Lane. down to Gilbert's Lane and along the that he threw it there. He had once track as far as the corn mill. We went owned it, but it might have passed out down to Sandy Bank and Frank threw of his possession. Continuing, Mr. Mul-lin argued that as it had been proven home. I think it was a little after five home. I think it was a little after five that Goodspeed's word could not be rewhen I got there. I had no watch. lied on; that his evidence be rejected. This completed the examination and Mr. McKeown, in response, pointed the listeners drew long breaths and out that Goodspeed was not really an keyed themselves to greater expecaccomplice at all, and nothing he could ancy as Mr. Mullin arose, adjusted his say against Higgins would do his own gown and proceeded deliberately with case any good. He was only indicted the cross-examination. as being an accessory after the fact and with helping him to escape. Un-CROSS-EXAMINED To the cross-examiner the witness was nothing against Goodspeed, so if said: I went away to Salem Septemhe had any inducement it would be to ber last year with Johnny Beckman, a clear the prisoner rather than convict young man of about 21 years. He him. Mr. McKeown was proceeding to went to Boston. I don't know what argue the case read by Mr. Mullin, but he worked at. ' I don't know whether pon found in the creek and said it was informed by the judge that it was he was a thief or not. I was in Bosnot necessary.

ton with him about a week staying with Mrs. Kiser. I didn't see Beck-man after I-left Boston, and I think GOODSPEED'S EVIDENCE AL-LOWED. he is there yet. I went to Salem to get work. I had no friends there and He ruled that the crown had a right went there alone. I met a crowd of to call Goodspeed. He held that eviboys, but I never stole anything while dence had been given which he was I was there. I put $22 in a bank there bound to leave to the jury to decide in my own name. It is there yet. I'm whether or no it was directly corrobosure I didn't tell anybody I put it in rative. Goodspeed was thereupon brought into court. The discussion on the mat-ter had occupied an hour and a quarany other name. I was working in a cotton mill; starting at $3.50 and later got $3.75, I paid $2 a week for ard. The money I put in the bank ter of the afternoon session and if was 25 minutes to four before the little I saved while working. I came back prisoner upon whose testimony so much depends entered the court room. to St. John July 10. I left the money in the Salem Five Cents Savings Bank, as I expected to go back. As he took the stand the rows of on-Witness then under further questionlookers filling every inch of available told of places he had worked at space, leaned forward eagerly. The prisoner himself roused to a sharper in this city before going away and ex-plained how he left school, interest than heretofore. Goodspeed bore himself with the same modest self-possession he has GOODSPEED EXPELLED FROM shown at each appearance. His ruddy color had waned a little from his long confinement, but his eyes were as clear and his voice as steady as when he first told his terrible tale. He gave no glance at the prisoner, but walked quietly to his place and took the oath solemnly with his eyes upon those of the administrator. Mr. Mullin here made further objec-

Up to this time Higgins hadn't train in the station. I had some threatened me at all, but I didn't run money and Detective Killen took $4 away to give any alarm. I didn't away from me after we were arrested, make any outcry and didn't say anybut I had $5 in my hat while we thing. Frank tried to strike him with were in Matawamkeag jail and he the revolver. didn't find that." Witness's description of Higgins's a minute and came right back.

kill me if I told on him. I think I said

FISHING.

examination.

about the revolver.

heard four shots go off."

"L gave my name as Marshall of actions and Doherty's pleas were Portland, Me. When we were going given here the same as in direct ex- on the train Frank Higgins said we amination. were to give Marshall as our name. He "When Higgins hit Doherty 2 or 3 said he told his mother he was going times over the head, Willie was leanto use that name. I never travelled ing on his elbow," he said. "Then he sank down and Frank kept on hitting before under a false name. I never gave the name of Charles Higgins in him until he was quiet. It all took Salem six or seven minutes. I had been Asked about interviews in the police standing one or two minutes when I station. Goodspeed said :

started to run, when Willie asked for a doctor. He lived three or four min-HOW HE CONFESSED.

utes after that. After Higgins threat-"The Saturday I was brought back ened to shoot me I walked about half Mr. Baxter came to the door of my cell and asked me if Higgins did the Witness, in response to further ques-tioning, told of Higgins shoving the shooting. He said I needn't speak, but just nod my head. I did so. Up body down the hill and of the two of to this I had told nobody about it. I them burying it. He thought it was , told Mr. Earle about it too, and I think somewhere about 3 o'clock when the Chief Clark came to the cell that afshots were fired. They stayed there ternoon and asked me what I knew about three-quarters of an hour be- about the murder. He did not say it fore starting for the city. He de- would be better for me to tell, and scribed the return trip as in the direct said I needn't unless I wanted."

It being 6 o'clock, court adjourned to 10 a. m. the following day. WOULD KILL HIM IF HE TOLD. On the way in Frank said he would

LORD ROBERTS

this at the inquest or in the police court. I'll swear I told it somewhere Criticizes British Soldiers and British Just before we came to Gilbert's Lane, Officers. Frank took the revolver out and said it was no good to him now and he was LONDON, Sept. 19.-A special order going to throw it into the creek, where issued tonight by Earl Roberts, comit wouldn't be found. Further on he mander-in-chief, says that his experisaid the tide never went out at Sandy ences in South Africa brought to him Bank and he'd throw it in there. a realization of the fact that British He tried to work the revolver, but he couldn't because it was broken. soldiers cannot yet take the fullest advantage of the admirable weapons fur-This was before he said he would nished them. Earl Roberts criticises British offithrow it away. This was all he said cers for their lack of interest in shooting practice, and reminds them that their tactics are likely to fail if the AFTER THE MURDER HE WENT superiority of fire is not establish Witness described the walk down to In conclusion the commander-in-chief andy Bank and his subsequent route promises to hold general officers residered satisfactory.

> All reports from the Canadian

"I went to St. Malachi's school," he aid, "and was expelled for hitting the stones. He was positive it took him Ogilvie's Flours are splendid for loaf teacher with a slate. I threw three or four slates at her at the same time. I saw some blood on her head and rived about half past five. He stayed saw some blood on her head and hands. Some boys held me until the there fishing about 20 or 25 minutes principal came and he put me right then he went home. Usually got sup-per about six o'clock. It was on time this night. It took him about 15 min-I knew Higgins and Doherty before Doherty could not recognize it and witness proposed that that the face withes with a view of ascertaining with Doherty some. The morning of Examined fur

SCHOOL.

TRANTE MANARY CAL

LIT I T I TI OF TO AND

Examined further, witness said he went down to the tanyard that night the first of August I met Frank Hignk Higgins and Goodspeed went lead house. In the presence of witness washed the face and held out to him. During the argument is the trank we went up in the grave-Stayed there till about a quarter to TOBA. where he left Frank Higgins about a quarter to five. Then he walked slow-ly up the track. It might have taken conditions under which harvesting is nim 40 minutes to come up to where being done. The Ogilvie Flour Mills

Genuine Castoria always bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

home. After he got there he went fish-ing for a little while at the foot of Mecklenburg street. It was about that hereafter no other will be conhalf-past five or a quarter to six when I went up to the house. He was fish-ing about 20 minutes. He thought it had taken about three-quarters of an hour to come in from the Park to HARVESTING WHEAT IN MANI-him to minutes to come up to where his house was. He stood at the foot of Elliot row looking out over the flats for 10 minutes or so. Then he just came fooling along, throwing usual quality of flour this season.

from the greater victed by his ow ourglaries which puzzled the polic FRANK HI

> Then came with its crowde defence opened : loquent introd of battle and re hitherto succes the defense by the stand in his tempt to fix the upon the boy w nony had drawn to his own clien A couple of previous good c er and then was called. The crowd railing leaned

of expectancy.