DEATHS.

KING.—At her home, Farmouth, on Thursday, Aug. 17th, of blood poisoning, Jane, beloved wife of Edward King. She had been ill for only four days. After appropriate services in the home her remains were brought to Lockport, her former home, where interment took place, Aug. 20th, the pastor of the Baptist church here being assisted by Joe. Tupper, lay reader of the Episcopal church.

TINER.—On Sept. 5th, at Hubbard's Halifax Co., N. S., Winnie, beloved wife of Rev. J. E. Tiner, passed suddenly away, aged 39 years, leaving a husband and six small children to mourn the loss of a devoted wife and affectionate mother. Our departed sister was a beautiful Christian character, greatly beloved by all who knew her. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. L. J. Tingley, assisted by Rev. Mr. Foster, (Eps.) and Bro. Gordon P. Barnes, Brother Tiner and family have the sympathy and prayers of many friends.

BORGALD.—At Chester Basin, N. S., Deacon Maynard Borgald, aged 72 years. Our brother was a consistent member of the Chester Basin church, in which for a number of years he held the office of deacon. Although an invalid for the past seventeen years he was noted for his cheerfulness and sweetness of disposition. During his last illness, he gathered the backsliding and unconverted around him and by earnest exhortation sought to lead them into a better life. He died in full confidence of glorious immortality. A widow and one son survive him. May the comfort of the Divine Spirit be theirs in their affliction.

BAZANSON.—At Garland, Kings Co., N. S., on August 24th, Brother George Bazanson, passed to his heavenly home at the early age of 37. Our brother was ill for but a few weeks and having been stricken down in the full strength of his manhood his death was a great shock to the community in which he lived. A few weeks before our brother's death he became a firm believer in Christ and his heart being filled with the love of Christ he spoke often with a warning and encouraging voice to those who visited him. His greatest desire in wanting to get well was that he might live to serve Christ here below. He suffered by times severely, yet he bore it all patiently and submitted himself willingly to the will of his master. Bro. Bazanson was widely known and highly esteemed by all who knew him. His funeral was on Sunday, Aug. 27th, was the largest attended funeral that ever took place on the Burlington Section of the North Mountain. He leaves a widow and four children to mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband and father. To the bereaved family, the sorrowing father and friends we extend our deepest sympathy.

DAVIDSON.—On Aug. 17th, 1905, Mrs. Sarah Davidson, aged 59 years, at the home of her son Charles W. Ralston, of North Attleboro, Mass. Mrs. Davidson was born in Cumberland County, Nova Scotia, where she lived until about three years ago when she moved to North Attleboro. She was converted, and united with the Baptist church when about fifteen years of age. She lived a beautiful Christian life and as the day of her departure drew near she rejoiced more and more in the prospect of seeing her Saviour face to face. She was married in 1864 to Mr. John Graham Ralston, of River Philip, N. S. In 1886 this union was dissolved by death. After remaining a widow for seven years she became the wife of Mr. V. F. Davidson, of River Philip. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Alice Hunter, relict of Harris Hunter, of Linden, Cumb. Co., her husband, and seven children, viz.—Hance B. Ralston, of Brighton, Mass., John M. Ralston, of Port Townsend, Wash., Charles W. Ralston, of North Attleboro, Mass., George L. Ralston, of Brighton, Mass., Mrs. George A. Livingstone and Mrs. Louis G. Franklin, of North Attleboro, and Mrs. A. W. Gilroy, of Springhill, N. S., and several brothers and sisters. The funeral was held on Sunday, August 20th, from the home of her son Chas. W. Ralston, of North Attleboro. The services which were very impressive were conducted by the Rev. William A. Farrén, pastor of the First Baptist church, assisted by the Rev. John Wesley Annas, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. Mr. Farrén delivered a very touching and eloquent eulogy on the deceased Mrs. Davidson was held in highest esteem by the very large number of her acquaintances. VISIT TO OUR OLD HOME IN HANTS COUNTY, N. S.

Thirty-nine years ago, in looking for a situation in business life, we found ourselves in Hants Co., in West Gore, near Rawdon. Here we spent five years of our earliest life, thence we moved to Summerville, in the said county. Here, under a conviction that came to us from the teaching of God's word, under the labor of G. A. Weathers, now gone to rest, we united with the Baptists. At once we became interested in the work of the denomination, as the Lord's work. A deep conviction concerning the ministry came to me, but under a feeling of unfitness, for years we hesitated and would not go forward. After some fourteen years, still in business life, and sometimes preaching as an assistant to my pastor, and in communities where there was no ministerial supply, we found ourselves back in Rawdon. Church was then without a pastor; we tried to help them in prayer meetings, and sometimes were pressed upon to take a stand and try and preach to them. Poor as were the efforts, they were highly appreciated by those good, kind, Christian people. From here a request was sent to our home church that we should have a license. The license was granted. A little later on a call came from the New Ross Church, inviting us to become their pastor; so we entered the work, and God's blessings have been and is still blessing us abundantly in our work. And back to or near the old home, at Windsor, we find ourselves a few days on furlough. Here we met one of our dear old Baptist friends from Rawdon. Nothing could prevail but we must go to Rawdon to spend Lord's Day; so we made a visit back to the old "home." On Lord's Day morning we went to the house of prayer. A few people, notwithstanding the rain, were present. In the evening we met a large gathering of people who seemed anxious to listen to the gospel; and we enjoyed the visit very much in trying to talk to the people about Jesus, and meeting many old friends. And now the needs of the field. Truly we were reminded of the words: "The fields are already ripe unto the harvest."

As we look over this county, we find many opportunities for faithful labor in connection with the Lord's cause. New opportunities are opening up, but where are the laborers? Especially does the Rawdon field need a live, energetic man to take hold of the work. We find some points in this county, where the Baptist interests do not seem to have grown as one might have hoped. I suppose the need of funds and the right kind of men to take hold of the work on these large, hard, scattered fields, has been the cause. May the God of the harvest abundantly bless the work, and send laborers into the harvest.

ST. CROIX SOAP MANUFACTURING CO.

"A Pure Hard Soap," Makes Child's Play of Wash Day.

Away Down in the Extreme South-western Portion of New Brunswick, in a small but Thriving Town, is the Largest Manufacturing Concern of High-Grade Soaps in the Dominion of Canada.

The following description of the "Home of Surprise Soap" taken from the St. John Telegraph was published in connection with a very interesting account of the manufacture of this justly popular Soap and we only regret that our space will not permit us to publish it in full. Surprise Soap is well named if for no other reason than the magnitude of the industry it has, coupled with good business ability, resulted in establishing and has no doubt "surprised" the foundries as much as it has its competitors.

When one thinks of St. Stephen the next thought is Surprise Soap. This sterling commodity by its extensive advertising has done much to make the name of Surprise Soap a household word, and has closely associated with it the town of St. Stephen where it had its birth and from a struggling infant has grown to strong and lusty manhood.

Surprise Soap can be found in every city, town and village. Yes, it may be said to be in every store in this broad Dominion of ours.

Walking down Water Street the first building that catches the eye is the factory where Surprise Soap is manufactured.

Surprise Soap had its birth in a small 30x50 ft. 2 1/2 story building in 1878, when it was conducted by Mr. Pickard, under name of Ganong Bros. & Pickard. Ganong Bros., who were wholesale grocers, handled the entire output of the concern. So rapid was the growth and increasing sale of their product that a joint stock company was formed in 1884 with James H. Ganong president and treasurer. Mr. Pickard retired and W. G. Carson was made manager with an interest in the business. In 1887 W. G. Carson sold out his interest in the business to C. W. Young.

In 1888 James H. Ganong died and J. E. Ganong took over the active management of the business, having associated with him C. W. Young as president. Under their fostering care they have lived to see Surprise Soap known in every family from the Atlantic to the Pacific. This arrangement of management still holds good to the present day.

It was not until 1890 that this progressive company decided to branch out from the Maritime Provinces. At this date they began operations in Ontario, Quebec and the Northwest. Its merit and superiority over other brands was soon recognized and today representatives are all over Canada from coast to coast and in Newfoundland and the West Indies.

The output of Surprise Soap today is twenty times what it was a few years after it was launched out on the troubled sea of competition. During the last six years the sales have just doubled.

Could there be any better proof of its value and worth to the housekeeper than this rapid increase in sales?
