KING'S WARD WORKERS HAD DINNER AT WHITE'S

The Battles of the 21st Fought Over Again, at Pleasant Gathering of Conservatives, Last Evening.

About fifty of the Conservative workers in Kings ward gathered in the Oak Room of White's Restaurant last evening to celebrate the battles of the 21st when the government of the regime of "wine, women and graft" and reciprocity was routed. After partaking of an excellent dinner and duly honoring the Toast to the King an impromptu and interesting program of speeches, songs and recitations was carried out. Dr. H. C. Wetmore, chairman of the Conservative association for Kings ward, presided and on his right was Dr. Daniel, member elect, and John E. Wilson, M. P. P., and on his left Hon. Robert Maxwell and B. L. Gerow, secretary of the ward association.

After the opening remarks of the chairman, Miles E. Agar proposed the toast to the House of Commons, saying that it was due to the vigorous assaults made upon the reciprocity agreement by the Conservative members in the last House of Commons, that the people had had an opportunity to express their views upon the pact and give their verdict for the policy so ably propounded by Mr. Borden of "Canada for the Canadians" and "Everybody for the Empire." Dr. Daniel responded to the toast and took the occasion to thank the workers of Kings ward for their energetic work on his behalf, and reiterate his promise of doing all in his power to further the interests of St. John.

Hon. Robt. Maxwell then proposed the workers of Kings ward, in an eloquent and interesting speech, which with a number of capital workers, it might also be said that the men who decided the fortunes of the day in an election contest were ward workers. An inspiring feature of the recent election as well as an augury of success in the future, was the number of young men who fought on the Conservative side during the contest. He thought they should continue their organization, and strengthen their forces for future contests. In conclusion he expressed his confidence that the new government would carry out its programme of nationalizing the port of St. John and thus enable the city to throw off the burden it had borne so patiently and devote its energies to setting its civic house in order.

J. Dean said they had done surprisingly well in view of the odds against them. Everybody knew Mr. Lantalam was an old war horse and a hard man to go up against. Florence MacCarthy, W. B. Gerow, B. L. Gerow, Mr. Poyas, Fred McInterny and E. A. Smith also responded to the toast.

After banjo selections, songs and a sketch by the Bond brothers, W. H. Harrison proposed the local legislature, and John E. Wilson, Hon. Robt. Maxwell and W. Frank Hatheway responded. The proceedings were brought to a close at an early hour in the morning by the singing of the National Anthem.

MR. ALLINGHAM AGED WITHIN HIS RIGHTS

President of Trades and Labor Council Participated in Recent Political Campaign Solely as Private Citizen.

The question whether W. W. Allingham, president of the Trades and Labor Council, was violating the conventions of his office in appearing on the platform and speaking at a Conservative meeting during the recent campaign, was not discussed at the meeting of the council last evening. It had been reported that some of the members of the council strongly objected to Mr. Allingham's action, and that a vote of censure might be passed upon him at the meeting last evening, but members of the council assured The Standard that the matter was not discussed.

MORE SHADY METHODS EMPLOYED IN COUNT

Incidents which Throw Additional Light on the Manner in which Liberal Candidate Got His Vote.

More shady methods indulged in by the Grits in St. John county have been revealed. This time Samuel Poole is the "hero" of the exploit. The polling booth for Simonds No. 3 was held in the Agricultural hall, Loch Lomond. Squire Barnes, a man over eighty years of age was the deputy returning officer. During the day a man entered the booth and gave his name as William Thompson. The Conservative representative challenged him on the ground that he was not the man and he refused to take the oath and left the booth.

Shortly after this the man made his reappearance accompanied by Poole. He again called the name William Thompson and was again challenged. Being urged by Poole he took the oath.

The Conservative scrutineer objected to his voting on the grounds that he left the booth at a prior occasion without voting. Notwithstanding the perfectly valid objection Barnes allowed the man to vote.

Two prominent Liberal farmers living on the Loch Lomond Road just outside the city both on the morning of election to vote. Both were challenged on their residence qualification. They swallowed the oath and voted.

Thus Mr. Lowell obtained a majority in the county.

ONLY ONE MEMBER OF THE BOARD ATTENDED

Ald. C. T. Jones the Only Member of Safety Board to Visit Barnhill Corner Property, Yesterday.

Although the members of the safety board arranged to visit Lancaster in a body last evening and inspect the property at Barnhill corner, which Randolph and Baker have offered to purchase for $1200, only Ald. C. T. Jones and Director Wisely made the trip. They formed their opinion about the value of the offer, but declined to say what they intended to do about it.

It is reported that Ald. Jones also formed some opinions about the members of the board who did not fulfill their engagement, opinions that probably form the basis of one of his characteristic orations at some future meeting.

Ald. Russell, chairman of the board, when interviewed last evening, said he had inspected the property on Saturday and did not think it necessary to do so again. "I would not consent to sell the property for $1200," he said, "though I would give favorable consideration to an offer of $1500."
