WOMENS DRESS IS CRITICISED BY PASTOR

New Styles, Dances and other Modern Evils Strongly Condemned—Getting Ready for Poultry Show.

Hartland, N. B., Jan. 13.—On Saturday afternoon in the office of Dr. Mac-Intosh, the executive of the Peoples' Union Agricultural Society, with some other of the more enthusiastic members, met and discussed the plans for securing fertilizer, timothy and clover seed at special prices. B. N. Shaw, the president of the society, speaking for a fertilizer company doing a good, legitimate business, outlined plans whereby members of the society at retail prices, so useful in farming, at prices very much more reasonable than those obtaining in the general way of business.

After the matter had been thoroughly discussed it was decided to place a large order for the product of the firm mentioned to be parcelled out among bona fide members of the society at the special prices mentioned. In regard to timothy and clover seed, Amasa Plummer, of the firm of Keith and Plummer, explained a plan by which the members could get the best of pure, clean seed at low prices, and as a result of his talk it was decided to place a large order with his firm, the benefits of which the members of the society could participate if their orders were placed at an early date. The meeting was the best and most successful the society has held since its organization and the enthusiasm of those present augurs well for the future.

On Monday, while engaged at work with a hay press, Joseph Melvin, of Carleton Place, with a painful accident, as a result of which he lost two fingers from one of his hands.

Last year there was a very successful seed fair held at Florenceville, and preparations are now well under way for another this year on a larger scale.
Secretary C. M. May has been keeping the snow well packed down in his perigranations in connection with the poultry show, which will be held on the 28th, 29th and 30th of this month. In addition to the birds that will be on exhibition there will be a good show on upstairs in Lyric Hall each night, so that it will be worth while for people outside of Hartland to brave the elements in order to be present.

The regular services of the Church of England were held, morning and evening, in Burt's Hall on Sunday.
Rev. Mr. Frauchette, delivering two well-timed and capable addresses.

On Monday Fred Boyer, wife and daughter, of Victoria, arrived at their home at Victoria last week after a few weeks' visit to Mrs. Baker's old home at Jacksonville, Me. After an absence of twenty years, Mrs. Baker thoroughly enjoyed this visit to her childhood's home, although many changes had taken place since she last saw the place.

On Monday evening the members of the Epworth League of the Methodist church here boarded sleighs and drove to Jacksonville, where they were the guests of Rev. George Ayres. A pleasant social evening was spent and the party returned home at a late hour thoroughly pleased with the outing and the hospitality of Mr. Ayres and others who had gathered to bid them welcome.

Sunday evening in the Methodist church Rev. Mr. Tisdale delivered a most telling address on "Infidelity." The speaker went after such pastimes as dancing, cards, the theatre, etc. He pointed out that these things had place in the true Christian's life. He was particularly pronounced on the matter of women's dress at some of the so-called social functions, and thought that women who would appear in such flimsy attire as is seen on such occasions must surely have lost all sense of the modesty so much to be desired in the modern and young women of the present day, when the tendencies are so strong towards the breaking down of the gentle modesty of the women of the earlier period.
The preacher's straight talk came like a bombshell and has been one of the principal topics of conversation so far this week.

An organization meeting of the Hartland Brass Band was held in Boyer's barber shop on Friday night when instruments were allotted to players and several recruits enrolled. Nearly two dozen have ordered instruments for themselves. The first blow was held on Tuesday evening in Lyric Hall, when the players went through the preliminary skirmishes in getting up a "lip." New music will be ordered at once and in a short time the band will spring a concert that will open the eyes of the residents.

Nothing definite has been given out as to who will be the new postmaster, but the wise ones have the matter all out and dried. In the meantime Miss Curtis and Miss Davis are attending to the public needs.

A Successful Dance.

The Knights of Columbus hall, Coburg street, was the scene of a pleasant gathering last evening, when the council held a dance which was largely attended. The handsome new wing of the building was devoted to the dancing and a nicely arranged programme was carried out. All present enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

He Knew.

At a club meeting held in a public house in a small village a discussion took place as to whether a hard or soft substance would last the longer.
The debate continued for some time, until one man spoke up and said:
"Now, men, you are all mistaken, as I can easily prove. When me and my wife married she had as good a set of teeth as any woman could have. Now she hasn't got one, and her tongue is as good as ever."

ABOUT TO BE BURIED
IN POTTER'S FIELD

Strange Life Story Revealed in Will—Romance in Youth may have made him Voluntary Recluse.

New York, Jan. 14.—Dudley Jardine, son and business associate of George Jardine, founder of the organ building firm of George Jardine & Sons, who dropped out of sight of his relatives thirty years ago and lived afterward under the name of 'William Smith' in Bowery lodging houses, paying about $1.25 a week, left an estate of $203,963 when he died at Gouverneur Hospital on February 9 last. His will was about to be buried in Potter's field when his identity was discovered.

This fact became known yesterday when the appraisal of Jardine's estate was filed, and with it was an affidavit by the men who saved the man's body from Potter's field and saw it interred in the family vault in Trinity Cemtery, at 155th street and Amsterdam avenue.

The appraisal shows that Mr. Jardine was speculating in stocks all the time he lived on the Bowery, and many of the gift edged securities he owned were held by the Stock Exchange firm of Thomas Denny & Co., of 30 Pine street for an indebtedness of $70,222.

The appraisal also shows that during the time Mr. Jardine was telling his Bowerly acquaintances that his income was only $3 to $4 a week he had $2,515 in cash deposited with the United States Mortgage and Trust Company. The total value of his securities was $201,411, and all were of the highest class.

Tried to Make New Will.

A short time before Mr. Jardine died, according to the appraisal, he got one of his Bowerly acquaintances to bring him a form for a will in order that he might save the money he would be compelled to give to a lawyer for drawing the instrument. The new will was never made, and the estate was left under a will made in 1889, under which Richard Hamilton, cashier of the Bowerly Bank, and Cor-nellius B. Gold were named as executors. Mr. Gold survived the decedent and took charge of the estate.

The will left the residuary estate in equal shares to the Prison Association of New York, the Board of Missions of the Presbyterian Church and the Board of Foreign Missions of the same church, the women's branch of the New York City Mission and Tract Society and the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Soci-ty. Each got $11,276.

Other large bequests were $17,618 each to Anna J. Devos, niece, and Geo.
R. Hogg, nephew, and $10,571 each to Frederick L. Jardine, nephew, and Robert McJohnston Jardine, grandnephew. Mr. Gold got $1,000 and a number of cousins received $125 each.
The will was made before Mr. Jardine's Bowerly days, and accordingly nothing went to the persons who had befriended the supposed poor man.

A payment of $1,600, however, was made by the executor to Peter Chou-lard, describing himself as ex-librisman of the Squirrel Inn library and reading room of the Church Temperance Society, at 281 Fourth avenue, whose efforts to raise a subscription among "William Smith" and Bowery friends to keep his body from Potter's field resulted in the discovery of Dudley Jardine's identity.

Friend Tells Bowerly Life.

Chouillard swore out an affidavit on December 18 last before the under-sheriff, who aided him in finding Jardine's relatives. He says that the "attendances, services and care rendered and bestowed" to the decedent were at "diverse intervals and places," at the lodging house, 81 Bowery, at Squirrel Inn free reading room at 131 Bowery and at Gouverneur Hospital. The attendances continued after his death and until the funeral.

"During that period," said Chouil-lard, "I was his recognized friend, the only one he mentioned and named with address at the hospital and the sole and only friend who went to visit him."

Child Almost
Strangled

You never know what minute a child will develop a bad cold or be seized by croup. For this reason it takes great burden off every mother's mind to have at hand Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine.

Mrs. E. W. Silver, South Milford, Annapolis county, N. S. writes: "I have used Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine for my little boy with most satisfactory results. His throat would fill up with phlegm so bad that he could scarcely make a sound, and I thought he would surely strangle. He grew worse, and had frequent bad attacks, so I began using Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. Scarcely half a bottle was used when the strangling ceased.

This medicine had a wonderfully soothing effect, and when he had taken two bottles I could not tell that he had any throat trouble. We have also used Dr. Chase's Ointment with equally good results. It is a grand medicine for salt rheum."

There are imitations, but the genuine Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine bears the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., the famous Recipe Book author.

MRS. FORD REAL
AID TO HUSBAND

MRS. HENRY FORD
"No one would know the Fords had money to talk with Mrs. Ford," was the remark of one of the friends of the man who is to give away $10,000,000.
"She is a typical homelody in every sense of the word. Why, she refused to have any servants around her house until two or three years ago, and insisted on doing every bit of her own work."

This is as pithy a description of Mrs.
Henry Ford as could be given.

him at his lodging house when he was indisposed prior to going to the hospital, and the only one who visited him, and the only one who brought him food and medicine.

Chouillard says that Jardine's identity was established by his examination of documents at the lodging house, and he advised the undertaker to hold the body until he could raise a fund to bury his friend. He started to find out what piano companies were paying him a pension and to get a contribution from them. This resulted in finding Frederick Jardine, a nephew of Montclair.

A romance of Jardine's younger days, which may have sent him to the Bowerly to live as an outcast, is disclosed in the appraisal of the only piece of jewelry he owned, which was worth $35. The article was a locket of hair of a woman and an old fashioned brooch with rose diamond and small brilliant.

Chouillard, attorney for the executor, made affidavit that a woman claiming to be the daughter of the decedent had asked to share in the estate.

"While she may be a daughter, she will be unable to succeed in setting aside the will," said Mr. Shedd.

10 CENT "CASCARETS"
STRAIGHTEN YOU UP
When headachy, bilious, constipated, stomach sour, breath bad.

Get a 10-cent box now.
Turn the rascals out—the headachy, biliousness, indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse your stomach, remove the sour, fermenting food, take the excess bile from your liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight straightens you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months.

Children love Cascarets because they never gripe or sicken.

DRAWN INTO THE FLYWHEEL OF ENGINE

Wind Blows His Coattails into Driving Mechanism when he Tries to Make Repairs.

New York, Jan. 13.—While policemen and others tried in vain to release him, the chauffeur of an eight ton automobile truck was drawn about the shaft of the flywheel, in Sutton street near Pitt, last night, his cries attracting so many persons that the reserves from two stations were called to hold the crowd in check.

The truck, carrying fourteen barrels of paint, each weighing 80 pounds, was going through Stanton street when Moe Yeager, of No. 336 East Fourth street, the driver discovered that something was wrong with the transmission gear. Running the truck to the curb, he stopped it without checking the motor.

Yeager crawled under the truck to make an adjustment, when the high wind blew the tail of his coat into the rapidly revolving flywheel. As he was jerked upward he screamed for aid.
The flywheel held to the garment and drew him higher. He threw out his right arm to keep from being hurled about the wheel when the sleeve was caught by the driving shaft.

Excepting a dozen children and a few women on the sidewalk the first person to reach Yeager was Policeman Strohan. He crawled under the truck and when his strength failed to pull Yeager out of his predicament he ran into a tailor shop and obtained a large pair of shears. With these he tried to cut away the garments that were being wrenched by the machinery.
They failed and the policeman ran into a butcher shop next to the tailor's place and obtained a meat cleaver.
Then he tried to chop away the garments, but he found he would have to cut flesh also.

In the meantime Yeager continued his screams of pain as he was drawn on top of the shaft, so that his body was wedged tightly between it and the bottom of the body of the truck.
Excited persons had telephoned to the Police Department and the Fire Department. The reserves responded from the Union Market and Clinton street stations.

Then some one found a chauffeur who knew how to stop the engine. The crowd then threw the barrels off into the street, and when the trap door was opened Yeager was lifted out, unconscious, nude except for his trousers, he was hurried to Gouverneur Hospital, and there it was said he was internally injured and had broken bones.

Meanwhile the judge interrogated several persons with a view to ascer-

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF
HAIR STOPS FALLING

Girls! Try this! Makes your hair thick, glossy, fluffy, beautiful.

Within ten minutes after an application of Dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes, but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.
A little Dandruff immediately draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Dandruff from any drug store or enter your name and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured—by careless treatment—that all you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a litle Dandruff.

DUCHESSE DE TALLEYRAND LOSES FIGHT AGAINST MARRIAGE ANNULMENT

DUCHESSE DE TALLEYRAND.
The Duchesse de Talleyrand, formerly Miss Anna Gould, lost a long fight in the Papal Courts at Rome when the Segnatura Tribunal, the high court of the Roman Church, rejected her appeal from the verdict of the Sacra Rota, an-nulling her marriage to her first husband, Count Boni de Castellane. The chief effect of this decision is that it permits the Count to marry again, if he wishes, with a religious ceremony. There is no impediment to him marrying again so far as civil law is concerned, for a divorce was granted to the Countess from him in November, 1906.

JEWISH ART EXHIBIT
OPENS, FIRST IN U. S.

Rugs, Carving and Metal
Work of Bezabel School Shown in New York and Hebrew Ideals Revived.

New York, Jan. 14.—An exhibition of Jewish art, the first of its kind ever held in America, was opened yesterday afternoon in the concert hall of Madison Square Garden and will be continued until next Sunday. There are Oriental rugs, filigree work in silver and gold, hand hammered copper and brass, wood carving and inlaid work—all produced by the Bezabel School of Handicrafts of Jerusalem.

Prof. Boris Schatz, a Bulgarian sculptor and formerly a professor in the National Art Academy at Sofia, established the Bezabel school eight years ago on $150,000 capital. Now many of its rugs and silver pieces sell for a third of that sum and its annual output is valued at $100,000.

Prof. Schatz's idea was to lift the poverty stricken Jews in Palestine from the state of beggary and to revive the ancient arts of the Jews. Every article produced in the school has a distinctive character. The fundamental idea has been not to copy Arabian or European models, but to derive new inspiration from Hebrew ideals, to create a new art with a Hebrew background.

Students in the school are paid a living wage when they start, even when they are unable to produce anything of value. The articles are sold at very low prices in comparison with similar articles produced in the West. In Jerusalem $1.50 a day is considered a fair wage for a craftsman. This is the first time that products of the Bezabel school have been seen on exhibition in America.

Prof. Schatz made a brief speech in Hebrew, which was translated by Dr. J. M. Marcus, president of the Jewish community.

"The question as to what a Jewish art is difficult," Dr. Marcus said.
"But the school is attempting to create a Jewish style at least. It has established a museum which has garnered together many relics of the country in order that the students may see what was once produced and if possible effect a renaissance."

"This school is helping to decrease poverty and misery that have long existed in Jerusalem. The school is bringing to our civilization a new message from Palestine."

Dr. Marcus said that exhibitions of the school's work had been held in London, Amsterdam, Berlin, Paris and Moscow. This exhibit will be sent from here to Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago and other cities.

Prof. Schatz conceived the idea of a school to revive Jewish art after his experiences at the St. Louis World's Fair, where he was in charge of the art exhibit of the Bulgarian Government.

Among those in charge of the booths yesterday were Mrs. N. Taylor Phillips, Mrs. H. Pereira Mendes, Mrs. L.
Napoleon Levy, Mrs. Israel Unterberg and Mrs. Jacob Hlowar.

NEGRO PRIZE FIGHTER

Philadelphia, Jan. 14.—Jack Blackburn, the negro pugilist, was paroled from the Eastern Penitentiary today after having served four and a half years of a fifteen year sentence for killing Alonzo Polk, another negro.
Blackburn is in good physical condition and is considering going to Paris in an effort to secure a match with Jack Johnson.

Polk was shot by Blackburn during a quarrel at the latter's home in this city.

A Wonderful Discovery

An eminent scientist, the other day, gave his opinion that the most wonderful discovery of recent years was the discovery of Zam-Buk. Just think!
As soon as a single thin layer of Zam-Buk is applied to a wound or a sore, such injury is insured against blood poison! Not one species of microbe has been found that Zam-Buk does not kill!

Then again. As soon as Zam-Buk is applied to a sore, or a cut, or to skin disease, it stops the smarting. That is why children are such friends of Zam-Buk. They care nothing for the science of the thing. All they know is that Zam-Buk stops their pain.
Mothers should never forget this.

Again. As soon as Zam-Buk is applied to a wound or to a diseased part, the cells beneath the skin's surface are so stimulated that new healthy tissue is quickly formed. This forming of fresh healthy tissue from below is Zam-Buk's secret of healing.
The tissue thus formed is worked up to the surface and literally casts off the diseased tissue above it. This is why Zam-Buk cures are permanent.

Only the other day Mr. H. H. H. of 101 Delamater Ave., Montreal, called upon the Zam-Buk Co. and told them that for over twenty-five years he had been a martyr to eczema. He said he was at one time so covered with sores that he had to sleep in gloves.
Four years ago Zam-Buk was introduced to him, and in a few months it cured him. Today—over three years after his cure of a disease he is still cured, and has had no trace of any return of the eczema.

All druggists sell Zam-Buk at 50c.

you send this advertisement and a 1c.
