The deposits in the bank on April 1, 1914, totalled $5,698,259; today, beginning 1915, they aggregate $5,647,628.17. The deposits for March totalled $49,640.57 and the withdrawals $49,831.75.

Havana Prices

Havana circulars of March 26, received by the Consul, report that the demand which was prevailing for fish in drums has not fallen off, but as the arrivals reported are heavy, prices have declined to $8.25 for codfish; $7.50 for haddock, and $5.75 for hake. The demand for codfish in cases has been very limited during the week, and although some animation can be expected, prices have declined to $11.35 and $11.50 per case for Norwegian variety, and $10 to $10.75 for cod from other sources. There is no change to report in the price of $1.37 per large box prevailing for blower herring. Potatoes—The market for potatoes has continued prevailing without any variation to report, but due, no doubt, to heavy stocks; holders wish to get rid of them. Quotations are $2.75 per Canadian barrel, and $1.37 per 100 pounds for bags.

Soldiers' Wives' League

Regular fortnightly meeting of Soldiers' Wives' League was held yesterday afternoon in St. Andrew's church schoolroom when much business of an interesting nature was transacted. Encouraging reports were heard from various committees. Mrs. Brown, wife of Major Brown, handed in the sum of $28, proceeds of a handsome collar; the tickets for which were by her two daughters, Violet and Madge. The collar was won by Mrs. J. B. Ferguson. The $28 was donated to the St. John Ambulance Society to apply on the motor ambulance asked for by Dr. Murray MacLaren. Mrs. M. B. Edwards announced a generous offer from Mr. Bond, who is soon to move his restaurant to Charlotte street. Mr. Bond has offered the proceeds of his restaurant on the opening day in his new premises, to be devoted to Dr. MacLaren's hospital in France. Final arrangements were made for a tea by members of the league to be held next Monday afternoon in Centenary church schoolroom.

HARBOR EARNS MORE THIS YEAR

A Comparison of Revenues of Last Few Years—Larger Steamers Now.

The harbor revenues for March this year exceeded those of last year by $7,901.63, and the prospects for April are good. Harbor Master Alward yesterday completed his accounts for the month and was well pleased with the returns. Since the first of the year the city has secured from the harbor as revenue $45,522.12. Ninety steamers were in port during the last three months and took away cargoes. This number did not include the coal boats that have discharged here during the winter. Mr. Alward pointed out that the steamers were increasing in size too. When berth number two and three were first built they accommodated two steamers each, of the largest type that came here. At the present time one steamer was all that could be accommodated at these berths.

While the revenue from the harbor showed such an increase over last year, Mr. Alward pointed out that the new government pier had also accommodated steamers and number seven berth was also a government pier, and the city derived no revenue from either.

The harbor was also without the intercolonial elevator this year and all grain had to be loaded at West St. John. Several new conveyors had been secured during the year, but the loss of the east side elevator accommodations had handicapped the port to a certain extent.

Mr. Alward supplied the following figures showing the revenues derived by the city from the harbor since 1908.

The following shows the revenues of the first three months of 1914 and 1915:

Table with 3 columns: Month, 1914 Revenue, 1915 Revenue, Increase. Shows data for Jan, Feb, and March.

MODERN APARTMENT HOUSE FOR ST. JOHN

Architect Has Been Over Sites—Business Men Have Become Interested.

The scheme to erect a modern apartment house in St. John advanced a stage yesterday. H. G. Jones, a Montreal architect, was in the city and looked over the available sites. Different parts of the city were visited and it was thought that the Pugsley lots opposite the Clifton House in Princess street, would be the most suitable. Several prominent business men have become interested in the idea of erecting a modern apartment house here and it is expected that the building will be erected soon. The scheme had been under consideration for some time, and it was thought the war would cause the plans to be retarded, but now it is felt the arrangements will be completed.

HAD EARLY CALL FROM AGENTS FOR MONUMENTS

One Brussels street woman who does not appreciate such "Business enterprise."

A woman residing on Brussels street is at present ill as the result of a fright she received early yesterday morning. She says her husband died last fall and she has since been greatly annoyed by agents who have called on her requesting that she purchase a tomb stone. While in conversation with an insurance agent the matter regarding a monument in memory of her late husband was spoken of and the insurance man said he had a friend in the tomb stone business and would speak to the stone cutter about it. The lady in question has not been very well since the death of her husband and is highly nervous. Yesterday morning, before six o'clock, she was awakened by a violent pounding on the front door of her home. She also heard an automobile motor sound in front of the house, then about the same time she heard a horse and wagon being driven into the back yard, and while one visitor was pounding on the front door, another was creating a racket at the back door. Such a disturbance at that early hour greatly frightened the woman and she is ill as the result.

PARADE OF CHILDREN A BIG SUCCESS

Thousands Witness a Unique Procession to Remind People of Violet Day—Playgrounds Assured.

Led by Caleb D. Howard, on a grey charger, followed by Mounted Police Moore and Hopkins and a good contingent of the band of the Sons of England, two thousand and two hundred boys and girls who had mustered at the court house at four o'clock yesterday for the parade, carefully planned as a reminder that there are many hundreds of children who will benefit by a successful Violet Day, went through the streets along the route exclusively published in The Standard. There were thousands of spectators.

The invitation to the youngsters to bring with them the flags of the Empire and of the Allies had been well responded to, but some of the youngsters had never a flag. A quick movement in the region of King Street East was observable amongst the grown-up people there, and—presto! there were flags for all.

The procession started on time, four o'clock, and took the route prescribed, but forty-five minutes enabling the little ones to step the distance. The band played "Soldiers of the King," when the word had been given by Mr. Howard, as chief marshal, and then, as the lines were extended, it was possible to realize how much manhood and womanhood, in embryo, there is in the city worthy of every effort on the part of those of maturer years to see that, at all events, they may have a playground where, under supervision, they may develop as useful citizens. Banners were carried with the following inscriptions: "Made in Canada," "Travellers' Aid," "Civic Clubs," "Playgrounds," "Boys' Clubs," "Men in the Making," and the thousands of flags that were carried through the streets were waved by the youngsters in healthy fashion. To be sure the patriotic element was not missing for Tipperary was the theme in some sections of the long procession.

On returning to King Street East Mr. Howard called for a general assembly, when the youngsters gathered around the band and sang the National Anthem. They gave three cheers for the band, three for Postmaster Sears, who was as busy as a bee throughout the proceedings, three for Mr. Howard, three for the ladies who have done so well for the work of the Playgrounds Associations, and three for the donor of flags for those of the tots who had not brought an emblem with them. The ladies in charge of the arrangements, Mrs. C. D. Howard, Mrs. A. M. Belding, Mrs. John Dean and Miss Hawker, were indefatigable in their efforts to see to the success of this, the preliminary part of Violet Day.

DAUGHTERS OF EMPIRE ORIGINATED IDEA OF SOLDIERS' SOCK DAY

Royal Chapter Planned Novel Social for Securing Socks for Soldiers.

The Royal Standard Chapter Daughters of the Empire originated the idea of having a soldiers' sock social, and arrangements have been completed for the holding of the social in the Knights of Columbus hall, Coburg street, on the afternoon and evening of April 21. Invitations in the form of a sock with suitable verses have been sent out and it is expected the patronage given will be generous. Similar socials have been arranged for other parts of the province and each person attending will be required to give a pair of socks. The socks will be sent to the front immediately and each pair is expected to contain a letter. Yesterday the members of the local chapter learned that the Red Cross Society had also arranged for a sock day for soldiers on April 20, to be general throughout Canada. Mayor Frink was waited upon by members of the chapter and on behalf of the organization sent the following telegram: Canadian Red Cross Society, Toronto. Royal Standard Chapter, Daughters of the Empire, St. John has made extensive preparations for Soldiers' sock social for April 21, in city and province. Announcement, official, that Red Cross Society will hold similar day on April 20 in embarrassing chapter and they have asked me as mayor to ask Red Cross to waive date as far as the Province of New Brunswick is concerned. (Signed) J. H. FRINK.

When she finally got courage enough to go to the door, she found a monument agent at each door, wishing to make terms with her for the sale of a suitable monument.

GOOD WORK AT RIVER GLADE

Many Persons Cured of Tuberculosis—St. John County Hospital will Help in the Fight.

The River Glade Sanitarium is rapidly becoming recognized as one of the leading institutions in the country for the treatment of tuberculosis. Dr. Townsend, who was in the city yesterday, said he had received enquiries from all parts of the country concerning the facilities and the means of entering the institution. Several letters have been received from people in Boston and other places in the United States who have learned of the institution. Still there are people in the province who have not yet realized that such an institution is provided for them. Dr. Townsend pointed out that tuberculosis was susceptible to treatment and in nine cases out of ten could be cured if taken in time and given proper care. He believed that anyone with an expectation and a tired feeling should be carefully examined and if the slightest trace of tuberculosis were present the person should be placed under treatment. Even if the case were not serious the treatment would not be harmful but on the other hand would help the general health.

The people of New Brunswick should come to realize the great loss to the country through tuberculosis. While the loss perhaps did not come directly out of any individual's pocket still the loss of one life meant $8,000 to the country. Tuberculosis was responsible for many deaths, which by proper treatment could have been postponed indefinitely.

At River Glade every facility was available for treating early stages of tuberculosis. There was accommodation for many patients and the treatment was especially to educate them to properly care for themselves and drive out of their systems the tuberculosis germs.

Already many cases have been treated successfully at River Glade and in many parts of the province there are men and women who have had their lives prolonged indefinitely by the treatment there.

Dr. Townsend thought the new tuberculosis hospital at East St. John would be a great benefit to the city and county. Advanced cases could be sent there and proper treatment given them. While the hospital was for advanced cases of tuberculosis it did not mean that anyone entering it would not get well for the kernel of many cases in other places where patients in the advanced hospitals had improved so that they were able to go to a sanitarium and later were completely cured.

The people of New Brunswick should understand that the River Glade Sanitarium was for them and should be used to a greater extent.

JEFFERY ACQUITTED ON THEFT CHARGE

Complaint made by Chinese disposed of in Circuit Court yesterday afternoon.

In the Circuit Court, before Judge Landry yesterday afternoon, Joseph Jeffery, the ex-policeman was acquitted on the charge of robbing a Chinese in Hop Lee's apartments, Mill street, a few weeks ago. Jeffery made a raid on the premises, having seen three women enter the store, and he was also in search of opium. The Chinese made a charge of robbery against the officer. As a result of the raid, however, Jeffery procured a couple of pipes said to be used for opium smoking and an opium charge has been preferred against the proprietor of the store and six other Chinese who were in the place when the raid was made. J. A. Barry represented the defendant, while Daniel Mullin, K. C. represented for the complainants.
