	ter, Miss Margaret R. Coleman, became 4	the wife of Sanford Mercer, of Torryborn, Rev. Mr. Allton, of Sussex, being the officiating clergyman. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, A. R.
	Sproule, and looked lovely, gowned in cream ponge silk embroidered Princess style, and wore the conventional wedding 49	veil crowned with lilies of the valley; she carried a large bouquet of pink and white carnations. The ceremony took place on the lawn, after which the guests repaired to the dining room where luncheon was served. The young bride is deservedly popular and will be much missed by her many friends. A great many beautiful gifts were received, including some cheques, showing the high esteem in which the young couple are held.
