Workers, since the arrest of John J. Mc-dred dollars. Namara, is known to the government officials. It became known yesterday that a dictagraph was concealed near Ryan's desk soon after McNamara's arrest and that the deputy district-attorney had rented a room just below in the same building to which the wires from the dictagraph led. All that passed in the office above was recorded by stenographers in the employ of the district-attorney.

When President Ryan was informed at noon today that a dictagraph had been placed in his office and had been there for four months he said it was impossible. When asked for persuission to make a search for it he smiled and gave his consent. When the instrument was found and the connecting wires were disclosed Ryan was so ignitated that he could not talk coherently.
