gainsay the proposition we here lay down, greatness of his subject for achieving suc- that Col. Fisk was out of his house; I supto wit, that the subject at present demand- cess than in the production of new facts in

House of Commons. It is true, the elec- voted to eulogium; the second to apology business to attend to in the afternoon; 1 lying dangerously ill at his home in Corntion will probably not take place for six for the want of scientific, geographical and had an engagement with a well known wallis. months to come; when that time has we might say accurate religious knowledge of Shakspeare, as shown in his reference regarding a trot to come off at Providence; arrived, matters now seemingly important to toads with jewels in their heads, and I also telegraphed to a gentleman requestmay have become utterly insignificant, voyages, fairies, ghosts and supernatural ing his presence here this wock. Here while others, now of small moment, may objects generally; reference was then made Mr. Stokes remarked that he was disobeyhave developed into great magnitude. to the want of mechanical appliances, and ing the instructions of his counsel, and, Loss by Saturday's Gale. scenic and spectacular effects at the time The men who offer now, and insinuate when the plays were enacted, and it was themselves into our affections, may not be shown how their defects produced the beauthose who, since months hence, we would tiful descriptive passages with which so Stokes took a small wallet from his chains. The "Cuba" is owned in St. have to rule over us. Notwithstanding many of the writer's works abound. Then pocket. followed a short biographical sketch, folthese reasons against hasty decisions-not- lowed a short blog the board of the blog and the blog withstanding what some superficial people ferent groups of plays, which the lecturer may regard as discounting the future too endeavored to arrange historically, were far in advance, we shall insist, with or produced at different phases of the au-far in advance, we shall insist, with or without reason, that a crisis is upon us; haste is essential; to hesitate is to be lost; immediate action is our only sal-ter the scholars, was unpretentious, and there port relation to diffuse nor too ornate. We vation; we know not what a day may bring forth : and a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush. These may seem stale suggestions ; nevertheless, the crisis has arrived, and we fly to its solution. And have me not enrice the solution.

Inas arrived, and we fig to its solution.ways happiest and most forcible.WeAnd here we can not avoid dropping aways happiest and most forcible.WeAnd here we can not avoid dropping acan, of course, never have too much of themind. Miss Comstock, a relative, and aTrustce in the place of Mr. Furlong, whosetear over a contest which the Prophet'stext of great writers, but we can read thenumber of his intimate friends called uponnumber of his intimate friends called uponwhich, in fact, is at our very doors, -themind. Miss Comstock, a relative, and left him apparently in greatMr. Rowan would have nominated him.which, we think, it is the province of thetext for ourselves, while, perhaps, wemind. Miss Comstock, a relative, and left him apparently in greatMr. Rowan would have nominated him.which, we think, it is the province of thelecturer to provide. It seemed to us, also,that the lecturer had confined the rendingwire present in the prison.now it alights, -now it envelopes us in itsfor his subject rather too closely to thewere present in the prison.During the last few days a large number shadowy wings. We refer to the Conflict older commentators, and had we opportuof the Press,-the raging contest for that nity to take part in the pleasant diversions of a literary controversy, we would feel Third Seat. If the bribed and bloody and inclined to argue that Shakspeare was not connection with the life and times of Shaks attack of varieloid ; there was nothing oc-regarding a trot to come off at Providence; For England.

Mr. A. T. Smith, of Carman and Smith, who was installed W. P., made a neat Buctouche, is in the City, en route for England.

LOCALS.

therefore, could not speak further. Reporter-Do you have any fear for the the Nova Scotia coast in the gule of Satur- put a stop to it, and he thought he could result as regards yourself? Here Mr. day night last and lost her anchors and effect something.

Mr. Stokes-Do yon see that wallet?

Moral of the Murder.

[From the Boston Post.]

Barnum's Farewell.

[Fro the N. Y. Post.]

This evening the wonder-world of Bar-

To recite in detail the whole story of the pose to assist in rebuilding the burnt city, wise appropriate remarks. He had always lation in point of numbers

 The Daily Tribune.
 ments of the Professor's paper, our excuss for failing to present an earlier notice by for failing to present failt in the try construction. And that you intercepted Mr. Frist on Brondway and fail weed him to the first own abilities to make them believe any produce some new diagnosis of the mask or fully is easion and was received with marked favor. To mark of Judge Barnard, drove you to deep reation, and that you intercepted Mr. Frist the first or granted that no right thinking person in this community will gainsay the proposition we here lay down.
 Interesting Temperates Gathering, The construction of the officers of Albion Division, which state of our columns present we observed in the construction of the onstant in the construction of the onstant in the construction of the onstant in therest of the mask or fully we enote the mark of Judge Barnard, dro

Rev Mr. Pope, Rev. Mr. Bennett, W. R. read the letter in the TRIBUNE in full, Esquires, Sheriff Harding, Chief of Police publication and comments, promised to re- Charges of stealing and compounding

by Robert Middlemore, G. W. A. MR. MARSHALL, speech in which he took occasion to remark of the liquor traffic. The schooner "Cuba" was blown over to was determined to do all in his power to to show the necessity for the titles, &c.

MR. ARMSTRONG George by J. A. Moran, Esq., and others. of the Globe, next being seized upon by trade the custom of Law; and that Law them together, and could say that never as was Mr. Keans, Mr. Wetmore or any or

JUDGE GILBERT was pleased and gratified to be able to be there, and congratulated the Temperance body on the progress it is making. He had body on the progress it is making. He had never before been at an installation. but was so pleased with what he saw and heard like unto ceremonies of the Church &c. During the last few days a large number that he will exert his utmost efforts in of persons from the North Shore (we heard dealing vigorously with the evil when of one party of at least fourteen) masons, brought to his notice. carpenters, etc., have passed through St. ANDRE CUSHING, ESQ .

John en route for Chicago, where they pro- made some sensible, well-timed, and other-

Mr. Wetmore's Speech at the Temperan e

M. Burtis, W. P. Dole, Andre Cushing, thanked the writer and the editor for its victed of destroying the records of a court.

representation in the next Dominion Hones of Commons. It is true the also is the allogium: the second to applore the strend to in the atternoor of the lecture was de-business to strend to in the atternoor of the lecture was de-business to strend to in the atternoor of the second to applore the strend to in the atternoor of the second to applore the strend to in the atternoor of the second to applore the strend to in the atternoor of the second to applore the strend to in the atternoor of the second to applore the strend to in the atternoor of the second to applore the strend to in the atternoor of the second to applore the strend to in the atternoor of the second to applore the strend to in the atternoor of the second to applore the strend to in the atternoor of the second to applore the strend to in the atternoor of the second to applore the strend to in the atternoor of the second to applore the strend to in the atternoor of the second to applore the strend to in the atternoor of the second to applore the strend to in the atternoor of the second to applore the strend to in the atternoor of the second to applore the strend to in the atternoor of the second to applore the second to applore the strend to in the atternoor of the second to applore the strend to in the atternoor of the second to applore the strend to in the strend to in the atternoor of the second to applore the strend to in the Wetmore, Esq The officers were installed view with his correspondent in the most the Penitentiary. friendly manner. The letter was in three The Telegraph, replying to the Globe,

1st, To account for the non-suppression vinces are satisfied with the Washington parts.

2nd, To answer for the newspaper refrightfully on the increase. Ile said he ports of officers, speakers, and meetings; also received behind time yesterday :-] 3rd. To reply if there is not as much drunkenness as ever ?

The first question referred to the Traffic, Juries now sitting, in consequence of the which was and is a question of Trade ; that excited state of the public mind.

Mr. Stokes-Do you see that wallet? Well, as sure as you see it, just as sure will be acquitted by any jury that can be A Special Sessions of the Peace, to con-lynx eyed enough to see all the good look-increase to the feature of the peace, to con-increase to the feature of the peace, to con-lynx eyed enough to see all the good look-lation. It followed that as the agitation office and John A. Cochrane, President of impaneled Mr. Stokes here excused himself, and December General Sessions, will be held speech, who, rising, remarked that seldom tapped on the window of the door for Warden Stacon. The Warden asked him sympathized with the cause that brought state of the Trade or the Law quite as much for some time to come.

To-day's Despatches.

GREAT HOME RULE DEMONSTRA-As to the 2nd question ; - the newspaper TION IN IRELAND .- THE GLADreports of Temp rance meetings : the news STONE GOVERNMENT DENOUNpapers were answerable for and would, no loubt, give the correspondent full satisfa CED IN ENGLAND .- THE POPE'S tion. As to the titles borne by the various officers, they were simply valuable as evi-dences of the esteem and regard of the ULTIMATUM.

(To the St. John Associated Press.) members for one another; and as to the passwords, ceremonies &c., if the writer LONDON. Jan 10 .- Evening.

ncluded them, they were to the Temper There has been a procession in Limerick, numbering 30,000, with banners and bands, by the supporters of Home Rule, The third question embraced the whole matter and was all that was really impor- in the form of a reception to Smyth Butt, tant in the letter. Before replying as to and other prominent advocates. the question of fact, the speaker asked that the following important considerations be The meeting was held at O'Connell's monument, where a number of speeches borne in mind in the discussion. Ist. The changes in society as to popu-

a banquet was given to Butt.

From Ontario. [The following Special Telegram reached us vesterday after going to press.] TORONTO, Jan. 10. Crooks was elected yesterday without position. The rumor is received that Sir John A. Macdonald will succeed Lord Lisgar. Whiskey Detective Mason has been con-

TRECCESAPE

7 20

declares the fishermen of the Lower Pro-

Treaty. [The following Special Despatch was

The Counsel of Stokes has asked that the case be not presented to either of the Grand

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.

otted cnemies of this Canada of so much a creature of circumstan there was not a strong reason for fearing not recognize a belief in the supernatural that this planet would be shaken to its very centre, and presently be resolved back intro characteristic of New York, whose mani-ideal, which, like that of Coleridge, could ideal, which, like that of Coleridge, could intro characteristic of New York, whose mani-festation may be predicted with a fearful The following is a f that this planet would be shaken to its so much as a taste for the imaginative and into chaos; but since this horribly uncivil war has marched straight into the hereto-fore peaceful bosom of the Press, there is no t came about was in this wise :--One of our Thunderers, we beg his pardon for naming him, --our esteemed The lecture throughout was heard with marked attention on every side. although The lecture throughout was heard with marked attention on every side. although The lecture throughout was heard with marked attention on every side. although The lecture throughout was heard with marked attention on every side. although The lecture throughout was heard with The lecture throughout was heard with marked attention on every side. although The lecture throughout was heard with The lecture throughout throughout throughout the lecture throughout throughout the lecture throughout throughout throughout the lecture throughout throughou it came about was in this wise :-- it cannes about was in tail to was in-The determine overy side. The determine overy side. The foreign the constitute over the series of the about the constitute over the series of th he announced that in a certain contingency, which meant " at all events," he would fore declare and give notice to whom it may concern that in the event of the Mdrning Thunderers putting candidates in the field meet you here with this terrible crime Thunderers putting candidates in the field meet you here with this terrible crime Thunderers putting candidates in the field for the Commons, they too will have candi-dates to present to the electors of the City and County of St. John. What is more, these candidates will co-operate, although these candidates will co-operate, although these candidates will co-operate at the supers, and I assure you there is a tale yet these candidates will co-operate at the supers, and I assure you there is a tale yet these candidates will co-operate at the supers, and I assure you there is a tale yet these candidates will co-operate at the supers, and I assure you there is a tale yet these candidates will co-operate at the supers, and I assure you there is a tale yet the supers, and I assure you there is a tale yet that blocked the outside entrances—these to me a terribly sharp contrast to the pic-ranning on different platforms. Their untold. friends will pull together, and back them Reporter—Can you bear to hear the ture of intense activity in the world of Mill Burned. against all comers. One will be for a toll- worst? (He had not yet been informed of gate on the Marsh,-the other against it; Col. Fisk's death.) one for the School bill, the other against it : Mr. Stokes-Certainly ; 1 can bear to -one for "Better Terms," the other hear anything. against it :- one for the Dominion Govern- Reporter-Mr. Fisk is dead. ment,-the other against it. But consider-Mr. Stokes-Is that so? [Calmly.] ing the peril in which the country finds Reporter-Yes; he died about an hour herself through the jealeusies of her ago. rounderers,—consider, ing the loss to humanity and the world that would result from the wiping out that would not prejudge me by calling me a ing the less to humanity and the world that would result from the wiping out of this glorious Dominion,—the Prophet would urge with all the terrible earnest-would urge with all the terrible earnest-In the word word are worden as which impending calamity is calculated to evoke, that, in this supreme moment of our country's danger, a Coalition be instantly formed, that the candidates of the stantly formed in Bangor, while the balance is the stantly formed in Bangor, while the balance is the stantly formed in Bangor, while the balance is the stantly formed in Bangor, while the balance is the stantly formed in Bangor, while the balance is the stantly formed in Bangor, while the balance is the stantly formed in Bangor, while the balance is the stantly formed in Bangor, while the balance is the stantly formed in Bangor, while the balance is the stantly formed in Bangor, while the balance is the stantly formed in Bangor while the balance is the stantly formed in Bangor while the balance  Mr. Stokes-That statement is prepos dreadful fate that threatens.

Professor Boulger at the Institute.

As the appointment of Professor Boul-ger to the vacant seat in our College, or so nonico's, corner of Chambers street, and to be street, and to be street and called University, at Fredericton, attract- took some lunch.

ed some interest at the time, chiefly on ac- Reporter-Did not Judge Barnard say recent tragedy in New York, what led to Mechanics of this description are needed been a Tempera ours had set out, wilfully and with malice prepense, to destroy our fair Domínion, they could not have pressed into their ser-vice a more deadly weapon than that Third Seat. It arouses the angry passions of generates no end of enmities and produces generates no end of enmities and produces generates no end of enmities and produces jealousies incurable. So long as these tranches were confined to ordinary people. troubles were confined to ordinary people, large use of supernatural objects, we do most regular repetition of these startling guage to Catherine McOurdy, were each out by all means. Mr. Cushing's earnest remarks were cordially received. occurrences has become an unenviable fined $2.

Fisheries,

Mr. Gus. Bustin sung a Temperance made a lively speech. He said, years ago, $ 1.421 when he had said the Temperance cause ficts. 30,768 365,372 the Christian Visitor had abused him to 18.202 5,316 the extent of a column. Times had changed his high acquirements. Interview with Stokes. [From the N. Y. Times] In his greeting there was almost an air f iollity. Stokes had also a stream bar stokes had also a stream bar strea sized annihilation—that would, in short, stop his "little game." And so the grant of his greet particular to the spectral field of t Montreal, Jan. 10th. — Flour at Liverpool 26s. and 30s. Red Wheat 11s. 4d. and

11s. 9d.footed up at $520,700. Among the names of stockholders we find that Noah Woods
et als., Trustees, have set against them 4443 shares. This is the lion's share Now rob Choice Extra State $6 80 a $7.45.
Pork heavy—$14.25 new; $13 a $13.25 old.footed up at $520,700. Among the names of stockholders we find that Noah Woods
et als., Trustees, have set against them ad43 shares. This is the lion's share Now nobody with half an eye can fail to dis-old.have had at all times a warm and friendly interest. And we, the Grand Jurors, have great pleasure on this oceasion to bear and in tegrity, which have marked the discharge of your Honor's professional daties while at the Bar in advocating the interest of your elient as well as in your official daties as the late Attorney General of this Province, and from your Honor's long experince and legal attainments, we feel the metter 1 Next we find Pierce of Pierce & Wentee State and Welland Canal, super-Montreal flour market dull, shade easier.The out of the stock owned by the pensylvania gentlemen. That's what the metter 1 Next we find Pierce of Pierce &have had at all times a warm and friendly interest. And we, the Grand Jurors, have great pleasure on this oceasion to be and the stock owned by the pensylvania gentlemen. That's what the ince, and from your Honor's long experince and legal attainments, we feel the your distary of this province has received noThe man was quiet about five minutes, the about General Grant's chances for the Presidency ? Do with anxiety and grief; the weeping latter and sister; the speechless agony of the wife who had hastened to the scene; the bainful silence in the hall and along the hotel passages; the suspense of the crowds that blocked the outside entrances—these form a terribly sharp contrast to the pie-ture of intense activity in the world of business and men, and, though shocking in their rehearsal, are pecessary to explain the terrible scene activity in the world of business and men, and, though shocking in their rehearsal, are pecessary to explain the terrible scene activity in the world of business and men, and though shocking in the terrible scene activity in the world of business and men, and though shocking in the terrible scene activity in the world of business and men, and though shocking in the terrible scene activity in the world of business and men, and though shocking in the terrible scene activity in the world of business and men, and though shocking in the terrible scene activity in the world of business and men, and though shocking in the terrible scene activity in the world of business and men, and though shocking in the terrible scene activity in the world of business and men, and though shocking in the terrible scene activity in the world of business and men, and though shocking in the terrible scene activity in the world of business and men, and though shocking in the terrible scene activity in the scene back and said : "You confounded ignoramus, did you

f business and men, and, though shocking in their rehearsal, are necessary to explain and impress the moral of an extraordinary personal career, possible perhaps in no other place than where its acts were sev-erally laid. A lumber mill located at the lower dam, Milltown, St. Stephen, and owned by Mr. H. F. Eaton, was destroyed by fire Satur-day evening last. The engines arrived in season to preserve the foundation. Part pot having been made." Now we will how the trace trace is a prover explain owned by Messrs. Pierce & Blaidsell, but stand in teeir name on the books of the Company, the proper transfer but stand in teen made." Now we will season to preserve the foundation. Part not having been made " Now we will Judge Wetmore made the following reof the machinery was also saved. There not undertake to say into whose hands . ply :-

is no insurance upon the loss, which is this amount of stock has failen. Perhaps Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen of the Grand estimated at twelve hundred dollars. Noah Woods et als., Trustees can better Fears were entertained that the flames answer. This would leave 790 shares the dwarf-a pretty dwarf and a lively-will hide his diminished head in peaceful obscurity; the lady born without arms will trip lightly away to the hidden re-treats of private life; the cannibal girl-a very harmless little creature of ten years.

Professor Boulger at the Institute. As the appointment of Professor Boul. As the appointment of Professor Boul.

driving a Third avenue car. As for the beasts they will be put in win.

count of the loud murmurs of disappointed aspirants for the position, and the asserted slur which was thereby cast at the Alumni of that institution, literary circles in this of that institution the lamb shall be asserted of the during that the part institution the literary circles in this of the during that the part institution the literary circles in this of the during that the part institution the literary circles in this of the during that the part institution the literary circles in this of the during that the part institution the contract the part institution the part institution the part institut A. R. WETMORE.
City have looked forward to the first public appearance of the Professor with some degree of curiosity. (It is not yet too late, presume, to direct attention to the such a thing I would not have believed it.)
With buns. Then shall the seal snort and snore without frightening timid women, and then the playful baboon shall sport with the humpbacked grue. Then shall the seal snort and grace- presume, to direct attention to the such a thing I would not have believed it.
With buns. Then shall the seal snort and snore without frightening timid women, and then the playful baboon shall sport with the humpbacked grue. Then shall the seal snort and grace- presume, to direct attention to the such a thing I would not have believed it.
With buns. Then shall the seal snort and study sport of the School for a building, $200 for Old Washingtonian movement, and spoke stances ; the improved affairs of the workice man : remembered the 2nd. The same a The Prince remains at Dominion of Canada, making it difficult to follow the drink, so as to adequately com The Imbroglio at New Orleans conpare the past with the present by any state-ment of figures either for or against the writer's position. Apart from all this, Mr. Wetmore proceeded to urge that the writer was in error, from the following facts. Ist. The enormous growth of the Tem- ρ rance Societics in the Catholic churches; the rise of the British Templars (13,000 strong within a factor of the many wrongs inflicted upon Ireland, and urged the raising of the oppressed nation from strong) within a few years; the steady progress of the older Order of Sons of Temperance, the Juvenile Societies, the Temple of Honor; the position of the various Protestant churches, as evinced in

We, the Grand Jurors assembled at the Marshall, Insurance Broker.

Sircuit Court holden in and for the County f Westmorland, beg leave before separat-

The man was furious ; he walked up the car, but at last came back and said : "You confounded ignoramus, did you ever hear of Adam ?'

Artemus looked up and said : " What was his other name -

IF YOU LOVE good things secure some of those fine Oysters at George Sparrow's, King Street. 1w-dec 30

MARRIED.

Suddenly, on Wednesday morning, Margaret, vife of Mr. James Smellie, aged 62 years.  Funeral on Friday, at 8 o'clock, from No. 33 Duke street.

PORT OF SAINT JOHN. ARRIVED.

Fairweather, bal Schr Nelson, 148, Wright, Boston, Vroom & Arnold, bal. Schr Promoter, 58, Doherty, Boston, master, bal. 148, Wright, Boston, Vroom &

At Indiantown, 10th instant, Berths, infant daughter of G. F. and Annie Brown, aged seven months.

SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE.

WEDNESDAY, Jan 10-Eark Guinevere, 915, Dick-son, Boston, Gao Thomas, bal, Bark St Andrew, (new),, Quaco, Hall & Fairwoalder, bal

Jury for the County of Westmorland, I thank you for your congratulatory ad-

Foreman.

General of this Province while I had the honor of holding that office.

Serious Railway Accident. A special telegram to the TRIBUNE from Halifax, to-day, says: -"Down train from Windsor this morn-dress on my first visit in a judicial charac

ng the laws of the land, lack of success

